OUR OWN STATE.

OGDEN.

County Finances—District Court—One Accident—Park Committee—News Notes.

Special Correspondence.

Ogden, May 10.—The county clerk issued marriage licenses as follows: In the 8th, to N. C. Christensen, 28, of Ogden, and Miss J. L. Nelson, 22, of West Weber; on the 9th, to John Deary, 20, and Miss Loretta Bingham, 18, both of Ogden.

COUNTY FINANCES.

County Auditor Hollingsworth's report of the receipts and disbursements of Weber county for the quarter ending March 31, 1899, has just issued. The receipts amounted to $60,038.39. Receipts for same period during January and February, $61,134.34. Disbursements for January, February and March, $62,314.61. Cash on hand March 31, $59,852. The net savings in the salaries of the assessor's, attorney's, auditor's, clerk's, recorder's and treasurer's offices for the first quarter of 1899 over the quarter period of 1898, are shown to be $78.

Two cars of Harvesting sheet steel arrived here on the Union Pacific yards yesterday. It is thought the ship now under construction in San Francisco will be launched next month.

Helen Eber, of Hooper, died yesterday of Bright disease without a 'ician, has been placed in the county jail to serve a term of thirty days for vagrancy.

The benefit ball tendered to Fred O. Clark and Theodore F. Child by the "M. M. I. A. of the Second Ward takes place tonight.

Jos. L. Dolle, a veteran of the Sixth Infantry, and twelve others went through examination at the Manila, where they will join the Sixth regiment.

DISTRICT COURT.

The only matters coming before Judge Hiles in the Second district court yesterday were:

Hosmer Ruer vs Dennis Rasmussen, continued from Monday and not concluded.

Hilard Berry vs B. H. Hiner, case placed over trial of a continued mill Thursday, May 18, at 10 a. m.

Bids are being solicited for a new schoolhouse in Huntsville.

Funeral services over the remains of Sarah Parker were held from the residence in Riverdale at 10 o'clock p. m. today.

County Superintendent Wilson is not his brother Wilson who was a catcher in the baseball game Sunday. The superintendent says he was not there.

Sheriff Lacey returned yesterday morning from Salt Lake, where he went in search of the partner of the alleged Wilson Lane holdup. He says he is getting back his man, who he thinks contributed his flight through Salt Lake to the southern part of the state.

GUN ACCIDENT.

Roy Child, a little boy, while playing with a revolver Sunday afternoon, was accidentally shot by the premature discharge of the weapon. The ball entered his hand and passed through it at the point of the thumb, causing a painful but not dangerous wound.

PEACE COMMITTEES.

A mass meeting of ladies of this city was held yesterday afternoon to consider the matter of holding a universal peace meeting about May 18th. Mrs. Jane J. Richards was chairman and Mrs. W. F. Adams secretary. The meeting approved the universal peace resolution and appointed a committee of general arrangements as follows: Mrs. F. V. Stanford, Mrs. H. H. Smith, Mrs. C. E. Dryden, Miss Mae Cashin, Mrs. Thomas A. Whalen, Mrs. Kate S. Hilliard and Mrs. J. C. Bagley.

Deputy Sheriff Jos. Bailey brought back from Brigham City, into Monday night, Kenneth Wharton, the gypsy woman accused of obtaining money by false pretenses from an Ogden lady, and yesterday she was arraigned before Justice Joseph Hall to plead to the charge. She pleaded not guilty, was placed under bonds of $25 and the hearing of her case set for Thursday at 10 o'clock a. m.

George Thompson, the alleged Wilson's Lane hold-up, was arraigned in Justice Hall's court to plead to the charge of larceny. He also pleaded not guilty and the hearing on the charge was set for tomorrow at 2 o'clock p. m.

PROVO.

Peace Hearing Convention—City Will Test Everything Within Corporate Limits.

Special Correspondence.

Provo, May 8.—Mrs. Mary John and Mrs. Martha Daniels of the Relief society, called a meeting of the ladies of this city, which was held yesterday in the old tabernacle for the purpose of organizing committees for a peace meeting to be held in the large tabernacle of this city, at 7:30 p. m.

The following committees were appointed:

Executive Committee—Martha Daniels, Donna Meecham, Mrs. E. A. Wolgast, Program Committee—J. H. Dean, Jos. Jenkins, Mrs. Mary Allen, Mrs. Rodolfo, Mrs. Noel Hunt. Presentation Committee—Mrs. Fred Nelson, Mrs. Amy Pike, Jessie McIntyre, W. E. Vogel.

CITY COUNCIL WORK.

The city council held their regular session last night. Mr. David Boyle of the First ward, who was appointed a member at last meeting, filed his official bond and was seated.

The city attorney handed in an opinion to the effect that under the recent ruling of the Supreme Court of Utah, the city had the right to assess and collect taxes within the corporate limits of Provo city. As a corporate limits of Provo city. As a result of the opinion the following order was presented by President Booth and was adopted:

It is hereby ordered that the city recorder assess and collect the state of Utah county to place all the assessed property within the corporate limits of Provo city.

Said property to be placed on the assessment roll, in the manner required by law, and the same be added and made of city taxes in compliance with the opinion of the Supreme Court of Utah, recently rendered.

A bill for an ordinance was introduced for the establishing and creating of a sinking fund in Provo city. It was read for the first time and after a long discussion was laid on the table for one week.

Reed Street, for the local electric light companies, informed the city that they could furnish electric light city at 10 cents per month for each light to 8 c. cents.

LOCALS AND PERSONALS.

Jonathan Dockley is over from Mammoth this week visiting with his family.

The Bruno Steinel Concert company is the attraction at the tabernacle on the evening of May 12th, under the auspices of the musical department of the B. Y. academy.

The whole this morning have been the larger bill board on the corner of Bank and Center, which stood opposite the court house.

Judge S. S. King has been at Eureka inspecting the Imperial mine, of which he is the manager and stated that a three foot vein of good ore quality has been uncovered. He predicts a great future for the mine. The Imperial was formerly the Dalton.

The baseball team of the B. Y. A. are practicing hard these days for the coming game with the High School team of Salt Lake.

County Treasurer Blanding has an extra force of late engaged in his office for the purpose of getting out the first tax notices, giving the assessed valuation of the property.

Adam Calson was this evening brought down from Salt Lake and turned over to the authorities of the insane asylum.

Hyrum Jensen formerly of this city, but now of Cripple Creek, Colo., is in the city on a visit.

A baby has made his appearance at the home of Deputy Sheriff W. S. Henry today. All concerned doing well.

The marriage of County Clerk Thorpe Haversnay was brightened by the arrival of a budding baby boy.

Two cars of lumber caught fire at the west square between the Provo mine and D. Y. academy mine. The were dried 11 to 10 to favor of the Provo hose.

The county commissioners have purchased the lower 40 acres of land for the county poor farm, Mr. Davis, who made the bargain thinks that he struck a good one.

W. C. Barnes, a transient, who has been ill at the county jail for a week left for Salt Lake yesterday evening on transportation furnished by the county.

LOGAN.

Snake River Valley the Coming Country—Marriages.

Special Correspondence.

Logan, May 8.—Mr. Richard Bernson, who is engaged in business here, returned last evening from a trip to the Teton Basin country. He left here some five weeks ago and since then has prospected the Snake River valley and