The Constitution—Prohibition.

Editor Deseret News:

I perceive from what appears occasionally in the columns of your paper that the question of prohibition is somewhat in evidence in Utah, and there is a desire expressed by some of our people that the constitution soon to be adopted by the coming convention shall contain an article prohibiting the manufacture and sale of spirituous liquors in the coming State of Utah.

ONE YEAR IN THE FIELD.

A Fine Letter From Elder Owen Woodruff in Germany.

The following letter from Elder A. Owen Woodruff, written from [illegible]

I am converted to their principles, being thankful to President Smith for the last sermon on tithing paying I ever heard, in the old bowery at Granite. His earnest remarks made such an impression on me that I shall never forget them, though I may live many years.

My dear parents, this letter will reach you about the time of your birthday; [illegible]
