UNIVERSITY OF UTAH.

The annual society war yesterday began in which some a hundred interesting papers were rendered.

The Chemistry competed in the University yesterday, after being laid up for many long weeks. The boys always the same manner—"as they can't obliterate the

The first year students held a most enthusiastic meeting yesterday, to report to getting members for the Varsity club. Every one of the

The "C" class met yesterday to listen to Professor's report, and make arrangements for the dance that they are to give. As they had decided to also date as the "Ds" are to have their social, they will probably make their banquet a week or so.

The "C" class are going to give a ball in Commercial week meeting Friday, in Elder hall.

The social event of this week will be a dance given by the Variety club, Thanksgiving eve. There will be various features. Tucker coffee, music, both vocal and instrumental, elocution, and entertainments and the "Pot" proceeds are to go for the benefit of the Chronicle.

The class in Biology met in the laboratory yesterday afternoon, and listened to an illustrated lecture by their instructor, Dr. Talmage.

"A Peep Through the Microscope," was the topic of Dr. Talmage's lecture at the laboratory meeting last night. The lecture hall was packed long before the clock was put out, and the midget began. The picture was illustrated by a stereopticon accompanied with curiosities, and a series of stereoptican views. The lecture was given under the auspices of the Microscopical society of Utah, and was an unusual success.

Another large consignment of books is expected to arrive at the library within a few days.

Samuel H. Hamlin has been elected captain of the junior football team. This organization has been doing some excellent work, and Mr. Hamlin has demonstrated that he is the right man in the right place.

The senior team will play a game of football with the High School team on Nov. 25th, on the campus. The same day the junior team will do battle on the gridiron with the Hot, School team of the Junior City. The game will be played in the city.

In Mr. Young's class in civil government, the Republican ticket was elected at all four sessions. Can any work then will be a success, especially so supported and last issue that spoke up to the campaign in Salt Lake City will be discussed.

SALT LAKE HIGH SCHOOL.

All the part in enthusiasm over their football victory the boys did been exceedingly tame in work on the campus, but, broke out in unrestrained fury in the general assembly room, yesterday morning. The boys were as full as like a hive of bees, and it grew more audible as the hours to dash from one to another, with the High School building resounded with the most soul-stirring yelling in all its frames. The High School team was the champion team of Utah, but thing of it. Hence the boys made a demonstration adequate to their feelings, well they could, and they did. They were so noisy in the hall—they they made a play for a holiday, but they were greatly disappointed, they turned down and then came cries for an hour, why didn't we get by one this week, and we had two one last week before and didn't get one taking, and then the school declaring for, and was There is a picture on the black board up there that attracts the more attention than the chief picture in the shadow box, while the latter shows the most enthusiasm of the artist, the former calls forth the loud cheers of the football players.

Wednesday morning the students listened to the young ladies choice for the first time. They made a most creditable appearance and their music was lovely.

Next saturday the football team will meet the senior University team on the gridiron. A hot game is anticipated.

The junior class met yesterday and elected the following organization: President, Guy Riter; vice president, Warren Peel; secretary and treasurer, Kitty Eager. Riter was elected some time ago.

BRIGHAM YOUNG ACADEMY NOTES

Special Correspondence.

Provo, Nov. 17.—At the last meeting of Literary the boys were beaten in a contest with the girls of English C. The contest was in oral narration.

Saturday Prof. Hinckley and his assistant class took their little business and moved the stage and books of Rock Canyon.

Arrangements are being made for an excursion from the Bowery school to the parent institution, the Brigham Young Academy.

One hundred and forty students entered anew at the Lehi Normal Saturday. Prof. Hinckley and Prof. Hickman explained the machinery for their benefit.

The students assembly had the pleasure of listening to a talk to President Cluff on "What Would the Two Last Months Have Done?" It was a very opportune speech and caused us to reflect.

Last Monday evening the Bowery was the Brigham Young Academy "Day in Lieu."

Up on side of the eastern mountains the time in physics classes with Prof. Hinckley, Prof. Hickman, capital harmonizes with them and found the fall of the leaves as far as Maple Dell.

Saturday a contest taken place between students of English I. In the morning, contestants from the classes of Misses Lester Morgan, Mattie Lillie and Miss Annie Pike. Those in English I are: Misses Warren Stephens, Eugene Ecker and Miss Cora Nebeker. The essays were read before the school.

A great number of the students and teachers are planning to organize to see the world's fair at Paris. In this case the season will be greatly lengthened as well as the comfortable being assured.

Prof. N. L. Nelson and Arvita Young returned to Sunday at Manti on Saturday.

Arthur Gates, well known in Salt Lake City, for society was with a visit to Prof. and Mrs. Amos Fox. Those in English