TRUTH AND LIBERTY.

NO. 286. TUESDAY, OCTOBER 27, 1896. SALT LAKE CITY, UTAH. VOL. XXIX

OLD GLORY'S BIG DAY

Sunday to be Observed as Flag Day Throughout the Country.

BOTH PARTIES LOVE THE FLAG.

Thousands Distributed and Will Be Displayed at the Close of the Campaign.

CHICAGO, Oct. 27.—Old Glory will have a big day Saturday. Thousands of voices in both parties will follow the advice of the campaign committees and observe Saturday as flag day. Reports received at headquarters indicate that parties all over the country will vie with each other in decorating their homes and business places with the stars and stripes.

In Chicago additional honor will be paid the national emblem at a big patriotic meeting to be held in the auditorium, Saturday afternoon, when prizes will be paid to the story teacher in city and state.

Mark A. Hanna suggested flag day, but the Democrats are not going to let the Republicans alone give expression of the national sentiment for the occasion.

Republicans early in the campaign adopted the flag as the emblem of that national honor for which the party and people are striving.

Mr. Hanna issued an address October 17 urging all who intended to vote for McKinley and national honor to make a public display of Old Glory on their homes, stores, offices, shops and factories on October 31, the last Saturday before election day. Senator Jones, chairman of the Democratic national committee, promptly followed with an address urging the supporters of Bryan to observe Flag Day in a similar manner. The Republicans previously distributed 1,000,000 paper flags and intend to have 100,000 for use in Chicago on Saturday.

A Proposed Hunting Truce.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 27.—Two prominent hunting enthusiasts from London are now at their way to this city. One of them is Louis Janin Jr., son of Louis Janin of this city and formerly an editor of the Mining and Scientific Press, of New York. Mr. Janin was at one time a mining engineer here and is now in the employ of a London syndicate. His errand here will be short, as he is going to Australia to examine some properties that the London syndicate is thinking of purchasing.

Representatives of the London Exploration company, the largest mining syndicate in the world, is the other hunting enthusiast in question. It was on this gentleman's report that the company recently bought the famous Anaconda mines in Montana. The company also owns the Uncle property in Amador county, California; the Alaska Treadwell, the Steele Rich in New Mexico and the Hinsdale Pirate in Arizona. It is believed that his trip to California has something to do with the rumors that is company is thinking of purchasing the famous Mariposa grant in Mariposa county, California, consisting of 44,000 acres in the heart of the Mother Lode country.

The gentlemen are accompanied by John W. Hickey, Calvinia Hayward, Senator John P. Jones of Nevada and the Hearstreaders.

If the proposed deal goes through, it will be the biggest mining deal ever consummated in the West. It is also stated that Mr. Stellin may arrange for the purchase by his company of the Homestake mine in South Dakota.

Fatal Sash Fight.

NOGALES, Ariz., Oct. 27.—A dull fight with fatal results occurred at Nogales, Sonora, Sunday, and for a short time caused a panic in the audience. One of the fatalities, becoming more enraged than usual at the relative time fights, rushed about the arena, goring everything within sight.

A house was disemboweled. A pleader, Jose Angulo, in an attempt to place a horn in the side of the wild animal, was caught on one of its long horns which pierced him in the groin. He was tossed and fell to the ground bleeding and mangled where the beast held the horns on his body and gored him. He was mortally injured and died a few minutes later.

Obituary Notices.

LONDON, Oct. 27.—Lord Alexander Paget is dead. He was born in 1816 and was the brother of the marquis of Anglesea.

The younger duchess of Leeds is dead. She was formerly Miss Harriette Wendall Stuart.

FOX LAKE, Wis., Oct. 27.—Henry Rothchild, aged 55 years, one time congressman at the inaugural ball of the United States, died here yesterday. For a number of years under the name of Schaefer he took prominent parts in plays under the management of Junius Brutus Booth. He was traveling with Booth when the latter made his last appearance as Hamlet at Edwin Forrest's in The Iron Chest, November 19th, 1852, at New Orleans. Deceased was twenty years in residence in this city.

OPPOSING FREE COINAGE.

Circular Issued by the Leaders of Railroad Brotherhoods.

PEORIA, Ills., Oct. 27.—The following circular was issued today: "It is the sentiment of the United States to refrain from a false economy, as we sincerely believe, and to extend a helping hand to our friends and acquaintances may have turned converting our employes of campaign documents going to bundles of the free, and circulated in the strongest manner possible, in which it is made to appear that we are in favor of free silver at any ratio, and the substantial establishment of two standards of money, contrary to the views we may be, we wish to be recorded by all who are interested in our position as being emphatically in favor of the maintenance of the gold standard, and we for the issue money plank promulgated by the Republican convention at St. Louis. Our signature were obtained lately three years ago to a document pretending to be a memorial to Congress, then in session, which in our belief and memory was a much milder paper than to the proclamation referred to. No matter what our opinions may have been on the money question at the signing of the memorial nearly three years ago, we have learned enough since on the subject to warrant the denouncing of the attempt at true coinage of silver at 16 to 1, believing it to be directly against the interests of labor and also believing that under a condition of free coinage, this country will be soon forced down to one of the most frightful panics any country in the world ever has seen. Our belief in this statement is strengthened by the address made by William J. Bryan, candidate for President, in a recent speech in the Northwest, wherein he is reported to have said he thought free coinage would bring about the greatest stagnation and panic but from which in our years, we would recover.

"We do not believe this country can stand such a calamity. Our present misfortune and distress and are therefore opposed to the sentiments contained in the aforesaid proclamation.

Dan. Kelly,
P. M. ARTHUR,
Grand Chief of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers.
J. WEIR STANLEY,
Grand Master of the Locomotive Firemen.
F. W. ARBOT,
Grand Secretary and Treasurer of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen."

SOUTHERN PACIFIC REPORT

Earnings and Expenses for the Year Ending June 30, 1896.

Results More Satisfactory Than Those of the Previous Year—A Small Surplus.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 27.—The annual report of the Southern Pacific company for the year ending June 30, 1896, just filed with the board of railroad commissioners shows a comparatively small surplus from the year's operations but the results are more satisfactory than those for the year ending June 30, 1895, which closed with a considerable deficit. The earnings and expenses are shown in the report to be as follows: Pacific system, including all lines west of E. Ogden, Ogden division of Oregon Short Line, $21,992,292.30, freight earnings, $19,014,692.34; other earnings, $3,000,959.62.

For the year ending June 30, 1895, the gross earnings for the two systems were $25,347,136.39; the operating expenses were $23,171,916.39, and there was a deficit for the year of $2,219,871. Gross earnings for the year ending June 30 last exceeded those of the preceding year by $300,032.17 and the operating expenses were $300,999.69 less. This amount for the condition of the affairs shown in the report just filed.

Lillian Russell Denies a Rumor.

CEDAR RAPIDS, Ia., Oct. 27.—Miss Lillian Russell, who was seen yesterday and questioned as to the report that she was to be divorced from her husband and marry Walter Jones, stated to the most emphatic manner that there was no truth whatever in the report.

AN EXPENSIVE ERROR.

It Cost an Insurance Company $100,000.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 26.—Owing to a clerk's error the distinct Life Insurance company of New York must pay Mrs. Nellie Pinney a judgment of $100,000 with interest and costs, making over $100,000. Such was the decision rendered by the United States circuit court of appeals in this city. The case by which it is to pay the policy to Guy C. Pinney for $20,000 and suit was brought by the widow and judgment given, but the case was appealed.

B. M. Hopkins, clerk of the court at Washington, failed to properly indorse the writ of error on the back thereof, therefore there is no official record showing that the writ was actually filed. The time allowed within which another appeal could be filed has expired, so the decision is final.

Killed His Brother.

BIRCHER, Wis., Oct. 27.—Alexander Bircher, a farmer living near Cuyville, this county, quarreled over a trivial matter and Edward shot Alexander dead. The murderer was arrested.

THE FUR SEAL QUESTION.

Russia and Japan Will Cooperate With our Government.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 27.—It is stated by officials that the United States will have the cooperation and support of both Russia and Japan in the approaching time over establishing adequate protection for the fur seals of the North Pacific ocean. The question is about to be brought forward as two commissions, one American and one British, have intended after an investigation of the conditions to Bering sea. Aside from the information they have secured, Assistant Secretary of the Treasury Hamlin has recently made a report after personal inspection of the Pribil islands, stating that if modifications of the Paris award regulations were not agreed to, "the fur seal within one or two seasons will be commercially extinct."

The Japanese government stands ready to join the United States in any plan of seal protection and is desirous of instructions to its officers which are being exterminated from the Japanese islands. The co-operation of Japan is said to be of much importance to the United States, as the seal poachers and pirates have fitted out mainly at Japanese ports. A large trade with them has been built up at Yokohama and Nagasaki. Notwithstanding this Japan feels it to her interest to suppress the pirating.

Many of the Canadian poachers go to Japanese ports and either sail under the Japanese flag or take out sealing permits from the British consulate there. The Japanese government wants the protection to cease by sealing, so that no doubt will exist as to the permanent preservation of the seals and otters.

The Russian government also, if she is said authoritatively, will become an extension of the protection to the seals. It is pointed out that while Russia owned Alaska and the seal islands, now attached to the United States, there was no more protection to the seals and that the destruction began under Russian management. The policy of Russia continues to be to protect the seals on the Russian islands of the North Pacific and there will be full cooperation with the United States toward any concerted action in that end.

Ready for Business.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Oct. 27.—After a suspension of business for a little over five weeks the wholesale firm of Pratt, Dunnigan & Krumsick will begin business once more and inside of a week the company will be ready to fill orders or duplicates. The firm has reorganized in its Eastern Illinois. The firm failed with liabilities of $150,000 and assets of $200,000. The decade was due entirely to the depression in business.

RUN ON THE SUB-TREASURY.

Its Gold Reserve Threatened With Annihilation.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 27.—The subtreasury was just pulled through a rather serious run which threatened to annihilate its gold reserve and leave it without a dollar with which to redeem the patient avalanche of greenbacks that poured in over the counter. Timely aid came from Chicago and other sources, and when the outpouring of gold finally stopped, the $10,000,000 of the reserve was gone, and the frequent additions that have been made during that period was reduced to a bare $1,000,000.

The reserve in the sub-treasury had on hand more greenbacks than it wanted. In two weeks time $10,000,000 worth of them were dumped over the counters and they only represented a fraction of the drawn. There was something like $7,000,000 in gold in the vaults when the run commenced. Chicago responded to the call and sent $3,000,000, and an equally large amount was secured from the mint within the $1,000,000 in gold in the reserve was replaced from Australia were turned into double eagles at the mint and carried to the subtreasury. Only twenty-four hours of this process were run after the flurry was over. Thus business has increased by the deposit of over $1,000,000 upon which greenbacks have been withdrawn and there is every indication that the flurry is over.

Most of the gold withdrawn went beyond the mountains. The sub-treasuries here and at New York are the only ones authorized to redeem greenbacks. Usually the demand for greenbacks is nearly all east of the Rockies, so exchange is almost invariably in favor of New York and it costs less to ship silver bacon than gold.

THE SILVER SITUATION.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 27.—The statement telegraphed from San Francisco that the United States sub-treasury there had just pulled through a run which threatened to annihilate its gold holdings is stated by treasury officials to be greatly exaggerated. During August and part of September the withdrawals reported at the subtreasury of San Francisco were abnormally heavy, but at no time were the officials apprehensive. Long before the withdrawals had assumed such considerable proportions instructions had been given to the Chicago subtreasury officials to be ready to ship to the Pacific coast such quantity of gold as might be required and later on more shipments were made. For the most part, however, the assistant treasurer at San Francisco managed the matter with little assistance from Washington, and as one official stated today:

"The flurry lasted but a short time and caused no alarm. There have been no unusual withdrawals for nearly a month."

A SECRET SECRET

Close Ranks and Germany Allies when Bismarck Retires.

BERLIN, Oct. 27.—The Reichsanzeiger announces officially that the government will make no statement regarding the announcement of Prince Bismarck's organ, the Hamburger Nachrichten, on Monday last, that a secret treaty existed between Russia and Germany during the last six years Prince Bismarck was in office. The Reichsanzeiger says:

"Diplomatic negotiations of any kind are strict secrets and to preserve them unconditionally is an international duty the breach of which would paralyze the conduct of affairs. Consequently the imperial government must therefore decline any attempt to clear up the matter and it will neither correct nor alter a fact, nor simply wait in silence, in the conviction that the reliance upon the sincerity to treaties of the German policy is too firmly established among the other powers to permit verisimilitude of this kind."

The Future Train Wreck.

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 27.—This division of Kinwess, the largest on the dead locks of the eight persons who were killed in the Frisco train wreck the colony was rescued. The largest interest attaches to the finding of the jury as to whether the collision occurred through the criminal carelessness of the, because of orders.

Passenger Train Wrecked.

HOUSTON, Texas, Oct. 27.—The southbound Houston & Texas Central passenger train was wrecked sixty miles from here yesterday. The engine jumped the track, but the coaches stayed on the rails. Engineer C. E. Curtis was badly cut; Walter Mathews, fireman, was killed. No passengers were hurt.

BRYAN AND PANICS.

Free Coinage of Silver, He Thinks, Will Stop the Depression.

NONE WILL HOARD THEIR MONEY

When It Becomes Cheap and the Value of Property Increases Correspondingly.

BLOOMINGTON, Ills., Oct. 27.—Bryan will make the last week of his campaign a record breaker. Shortly after seven o'clock this morning, he was talking to the people of Lincoln, Ills., at nine o'clock the people of Bloomington were listening to him.

At Lincoln when the special car wasside-tracked, shortly after 8 o'clock this morning, a crowd of school students of the academy gathered in her car, demanding a speech. He spoke later to several thousands in the public square. He said:

"A week from today the American people are to decide upon the financial policy of this nation for at least one term, and possibly longer. When our opponents fail in everything else, they commence to make gloomy predictions of what will happen if we have free coinage of silver. You know we never we complained of the conditions, sometimes they called us calamity howlers, but, my friends, the word of those who have complained of the conditions as they are, were speaking words of praise compared with the language used by our opponents when they begin to tell what was going to happen if free coinage of silver came. One of the most frequent prophesies which they make is that panic will follow the adoption of free coinage of silver; that all people who have money will hoard it up and all people who have mortgages will foreclose and force people to go a period of ruin here and their language fails to express their ideas on the subject. They simply stand aghast at the future.

"I want to show you that the language of silver instead of bringing a panic will stop the panic people have been suffering from for years. The silver interests have been interest and hard times become harder. This is what a panic means. We are in the midst of a panic now and there is no way to stop the panic with out stopping the falling prices, which increases the volume of money, which measures prices. Now, there is one safe principle to create, where you are discussing what is going to happen if we have free coinage, that is to remember that principle is that the people are not going to do anything in relation to them, if they know it. You can count on the silver interests going to work and tell you that men will hoard their money under free coinage, I tell you I know they will not. I hoard the money, because people never hoard money when money is falling in value. They do not hoard what they expect to go down. You will find that when the free coinage law is in force people will be glad to get rid of the thing falling in price, and under free coinage there will be a large amount of money brought into circulation and people understand, that means that the purchasing power of the dollars will fall, and when they have money the man who owes a dollar will be trying to get rid of the dollar and get rid of something which is rising in its purchasing power."

COMPLIMENT TO STEVENSON.

DUNKIRK, Ills., Oct. 27.—The Workingmen of Kensington gave Bryan a social reception. From a stand in Franklin park he talked to several thousand. After being introduced by Thomas Stevenson, he paid that gentleman a compliment for being still true to the traditions of his party. He then proceeded to answer questions propounded to him by a morning paper and his answers apparently satisfied the crowd.

Charged with Murder.

KANSAS CITY, Oct. 27.—Lawyer Charles F. Missey has sworn out a warrant for the arrest of Miss Alice Platt, Missey's former servant girl, formally charging her with the murder of his wife's mother, Mrs. E. T. Terrence, and his two children, Sue and Elizabeth, aged respectively one and four years, who died of poisoned g.

THE POPE INTERESTED.

The Election in the United States Watched at the Vatican.

Division in the Books Feared, If the Prelates are Taking Part in the Political Controversy.

LONDON, Oct. 24.—The Pall Mall Gazette publishes a dispatch from Rome which says: The Presidential election in the United States is an absorbing topic at the Vatican, the explanation being the strides which Catholicism has made in America, which is now one of the church's brightest spots. It is recognized that a standing danger to Romanism in the United States is the insolence of American laymen, noticeable from time to time in the Catholic press. The fear is fully recognized that these laymen slipped greater power than their brethren elsewhere and showed that he understood this by a very answer to some English priests who asked for certain privileges. He said: "I am, as you say, poor; yet I cannot accept your gifts," but, said the pontiff with a slight twinkle in his eye, "I can show you the way to infate your money go to America, for there the dollars are greater than the pope."

On the occasion of Pope Leo, matters assumed a different aspect. He charged Mgr. Satolli with the duty of intimating to the bishops in unmistakable language the limits of their powers and the result was something like a split, which it took Mgr. Satolli two years to heal. But his mission had good results.

The correspondent of the Pall Mall Gazette, remarks that the church does not desire its representatives in America to take active part in the campaign, seeing a new division in the ranks, and apprehending at the same time that some more impenous Bishop might break out.

THE WHEAT MARKET.

A Further Rise in the Price Predicted Before Long.

LONDON, Oct. 27.—On the Baltic this morning business in wheat was dull, and the tendency was towards easier prices.

The Evening Standard says the tendency is for higher prices.

"The failure in India," it says, will divert California and Australian wheat from Europe there. Only the tremendous effort of the United States to keep wheat across the Atlantic in exchange for gold prevented a much greater increase in the prices and when the rush is past, there will be a further rise.

CHICAGO WHEAT MARKET.

CHICAGO, Oct. 27.—Wheat opened weak this morning, at a decline of nearly a cent. Northwest receipts were very heavy, traders looked for further liquidation. Liverpool cables, too, were discouraging.

The bears again took control of the wheat pit today and persistent hammering marked the price. December (the) is at one time, the final figures showing a loss of 2 cents. The market in every respect was a huge disappointment to the speculators who expected higher prices. Liverpool and the Dual. The market was reported to be firm at first, but it was a false economy, and its effect was to start immediate liquidation. Take continued all the day and the market at times was in a deplorable condition.

Various causes, outside emphatically west cables, contributed to the decline, not the least of which was the high money rates in New York. Cudahy was believed to be responsible for a great deal of the demoralization, for he was so active and positive seller when the market developed its greatest weakness, and carried with him a large following.

At the close the market was still nervous and weak.

Voter Restless in Kentucky.

CINCINNATI, Oct. 27.—The Commercial Tribune's special report says: Democrats met last night, where the Democratic division time with the Republicans and gold Democrats. Ex-Governor Leslie presided and Ex-Governor Lindsay, who carried the state three times, Judge Hargis, who was speaking for the silver party, and the platform and criticized Secretary Carlisle in severe terms. Hon. Hallo Breckinridge, the Gold Democrats, had to speak in the court house, but the meetings were disturbed, but the disturbance was limited to jeers and yelling.

A Wealthy Failure.

CINCINNATI, Oct. 27.—It developed at the auctioneer's inquest that Virginia Kinnan, aged 74, who died as a pauper from the effects of a fall, was found to be the owner of several trunks containing quantities of silks, lace and jewelry. She had stored the trunks several years ago and had been living in charity all the time she died in the poorest garments. She was buried in silks and laces.

Dutch Capital for Hawaii.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Oct. 27.—Paul Isenberg, the wealthy Hawaiian sugar planter who with his family has been spending several months in Europe, has arrived in the city. Mr. Isenberg's European trip was for the purpose of interesting foreign capitalists in the gigantic Oro plantation scheme, of which much has been written lately. His mission was to a marked successful, for he is now negotiating with a guarantee of about $1,500,000 from several Dutch millionaires.

DEMONSTRATION FOR M'KINLEY.

The First Delegations to Arrive are Ladies.

CANTON, Oct. 27.—The first delegation today to be presented to McKinley was a party of fifty-two ladies who arrived in a special car from Martin's Ferry, Ohio, at noon. They were large ribbons upon which was inscribed, "McKinley and Protection Money." The ladies marched to the McKinley residence at the head of the Marysville and Virginia delegation which arrived at 10 o'clock on 15 Eleven coaches. The women were introduced by Harry Pratt, and the delegation from West Virginia and Maryland by E. H. Sinnell of Piedmont, W. Va. Later a delegation accompanied by two bands made a lengthy enthusiastic demonstration.

Below the first crowd was out of the yard three other delegations in one body were in the street waiting their turn. These also were from Ohio and consisted of the employes of the Union Nail company, Lemonin and Hopkins company, and Peck, Stow and Wilcox. Kilty's band, Canton band, and the Great Army band, played "The Star Spangled Banner," while the crowd greeted McKinley with cheers. The delegation was large, having used two special trains. William McKenzie, a veteran, made the introductory address.

The employes of Junction Iron and Steel company of Mingo Junction, with wives and friends, in number sufficient to fill a special train, headed by the G. A. R. Drum band, arrived just after the Clevelanders and waited their turn. They were introduced by Captain N. J. Crawford, a member of the company. A reviewing stand has been erected in the front of the lawn. More delegations are announced to arrive this afternoon. The most important is the Scott Money club of New England.

THE VENEZUELA QUESTION.

The Final Arbitration About to be Submitted.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 27.—The Venezuelan government has cabled to Washington a brief prepared at Caracas by a commission of five eminent jurists on the British Venezuela boundary question. It will be submitted to the United States commission as soon as the translation is completed. The brief covers 300 pages and is said to be a fitting presentation of the case. Messrs. Scruggs and Bertow, counsel for Venezuela in this country, are about to submit their final argument. The English side of the documents presented have covered points of evidence, but the taking of proof now is practically over, and the final argument are to order.

The recent document which has caused much comment among official circles to be written by a Jesuit priest. He presents the English side of the case, citing Catholic authorities, drawn from Vatican archives. The work was entitled Lord Stanley, Venezuela. Claims say the work is expected have been fairly met and overcome in Venezuelan documents presented to the commission.

Visitors from "Heaven."

BLOOMINGTON, Ills., Oct. 27.—George Jones was personally and his wife, formerly Miss Tuttle, her two children and two other couples from "Heaven" who were married at the same time the ceremony in Chicago, at Maysville, returned to the city this morning after an absence of nearly five months. The "chariot" from the Wilson farm was at the station to meet the party, but unwelcoming called as he returned to his wife. Asked whether he intended to return from his lodging south to this city, he simply replied: "Time alone will tell."

Both Schwenfurth and his wife carried golden grieving at his additional martyr tooth to the appearance of the party.

LEGISLATURE OF FRANCE.

Opening Session of the Senate and Chamber of Deputies.

The Speakers Refer Lovingly to the Visit of the Russian Czar and Czarina.

PARIS, Oct. 27.—[Copyright, 1896, by Associated Press.]—The senate and chamber of deputies re-assembled today. The sessions of both chambers were merely formal and occupied an hour. The presidents of the two chambers, in the opening address, alluded to strong and sympathetic terms to the recent visit of the czar and czarina. The president of the chamber of deputies, M. Brisson, after reading a letter from President Faure, giving the wording of the czar's telegram to the chief magistrate of France on leaving that country, said the sentiments declared in that telegram manifested France's sympathy with Russia and expressed himself as certain the present moment would be a opening address by Elder Heber J. Grant, of the general superintendency of the M. I. work, an explanation of the Australian ballot system by Commissioner Jones and the association paper by Editors M. M. Babcock and several musical numbers in addition.

ROBERTSON ARRAIGNED.

Miss Little-Hold's Seducer in Court—Mother and Daughter Go Home.

Frank Robertson, the fellow who lured Miss Littlefield of Morgan City from under the paternal roof and cast her into a den of shame in this city, thus causing the girl's mother to become almost insane over the affair, was arraigned in the police court this morning for vagrancy, to which he pleaded not guilty. He asked for time to which to consult an attorney, and his hearing was set for tomorrow at 10 o'clock. In default of $200 bonds, he was cast into jail.

The exciting and pitiful scenes caused by Mrs. Littlefield's swinge at the police station yesterday only came to a halt when the devoted, but distracted mother, was put under the care of a physician. Dr. Richards was summoned and administered nothing drugs to the woman, which had the effect of pacifying her, after which, mother, way ward daughter and friends took the train for their homes in Weber county.

When the girl was found by the officers yesterday, she said she would return to her mother, preferring to continue on in leading a life of shame. The parent's mad revenge, however, soon had a different effect on the daughter, and it was upon that she consented to go home. It is likely that Robertson, her lover and the cause of her downfall, will receive that which he so richly deserves.

He'll Never Get Drunk Again.

Eph Kelly was in the police court today and pleaded guilty to drunkenness. Eph asked leave of the court to make a statement and upon permission being granted him, he stated that he had a job to go to—hauling rocks for a man living in Cottonwood—and his female desire was to secure his freedom, that he might have the privilege of going to work. He said if he was set at liberty this time he would never touch another drop, and upon this statement Judge Morgan suspended sentence and Eph started off to secure that job.

Surprised the Bishop.

The primary class of the Seventh ward Sunday school, under the chaperonage and direction of the teacher thereof, spread a surprise on Bishop William Harris yesterday, by breaking in upon him at his residence and greeting him on the arrival of his 81st birthday. The venerable Bishop heartily welcomed the little tots, and in a few minutes told them that eighty-one years ago he was not larger than them. The children joined together in three Sunday school songs and the Moses Kelly also rendered sleep a duet of their own selection. The News joins with the Sunday school children in congratulations to Elder Harris on his hale and hearty condition at such an advanced age, and trusts that he may be spared to spend several more years with us.

SHOT AND KILLED.

Sad Ending of Thomas P. Gillespie, a Salt Laker.

MET HIS DEATH IN NEVADA.

Was Superintendent of the Sterling Gold Mining Company's Properties and Sixty Years of Age.

Mr. Gillespie was shot and killed Sunday afternoon. What disposition shall be made of the body which is now being brought here?

Soon was the intelligence and query woke a telegram from Stanvel, California, conveyed to Mr. Hugh J. Cannon, of this city, early this morning. It brought with it the sad news of the killing of Thomas P. Gillespie, also of this city, who at the time of his death was acting as superintendent of the Sterling Gold Mining company's properties located in south-western Nevada, and of which Mr. Cannon is manager. Whether the shooting was accidental or felonious is not stated, nor is anything further known regarding the affair than that contained in the telegram.

Thomas P. Gillespie was a man of about sixty years and leaves a wife and family to mourn his sudden and untimely calling off. He assumed the duties of superintendent of the Sterling mining properties about the middle of last June, and prior to taking upon himself that responsibility, resided with his family at 51 Flower court, this city.

Mr. Cannon made arrangements this afternoon to have the body shipped from Manvel, the terminus of the Nevada Southern railroad, in this city, through the Wells-Fargo express company, which will bring the corpse here in about two days. The deceased was a faithful superintendent, and his demise will be deeply mourned by not only his family but by all his friends and acquaintances.

Eighteenth Ward Mutual Tonight.

The Young Men's and Young Ladies' Mutual Improvement Associations of the Eighteenth ward open for the year with a joint meeting at 7:30 tonight. An interesting program has been prepared, among other features being a opening address by Elder Heber J. Grant, of the general superintendency of the M. I. work, an explanation of the Australian ballot by Commissioner Jones and the association paper by Editors M. M. Babcock and several musical numbers in addition.

ROBERTSON ARRAIGNED.

Miss Little-Hold's Seducer in Court—Mother and Daughter Go Home.

Frank Robertson, the fellow who lured Miss Littlefield of Morgan City from under the paternal roof and cast her into a den of shame in this city, thus causing the girl's mother to become almost insane over the affair, was arraigned in the police court this morning for vagrancy, to which he pleaded not guilty. He asked for time to which to consult an attorney, and his hearing was set for tomorrow at 10 o'clock. In default of $200 bonds, he was cast into jail.

The exciting and pitiful scenes caused by Mrs. Littlefield's swinge at the police station yesterday only came to a halt when the devoted, but distracted mother, was put under the care of a physician. Dr. Richards was summoned and administered nothing drugs to the woman, which had the effect of pacifying her, after which, mother, way ward daughter and friends took the train for their homes in Weber county.

When the girl was found by the officers yesterday, she said she would return to her mother, preferring to continue on in leading a life of shame. The parent's mad revenge, however, soon had a different effect on the daughter, and it was upon that she consented to go home. It is likely that Robertson, her lover and the cause of her downfall, will receive that which he so richly deserves.

He'll Never Get Drunk Again.

Eph Kelly was in the police court today and pleaded guilty to drunkenness. Eph asked leave of the court to make a statement and upon permission being granted him, he stated that he had a job to go to—hauling rocks for a man living in Cottonwood—and his female desire was to secure his freedom, that he might have the privilege of going to work. He said if he was set at liberty this time he would never touch another drop, and upon this statement Judge Morgan suspended sentence and Eph started off to secure that job.

Surprised the Bishop.

The primary class of the Seventh ward Sunday school, under the chaperonage and direction of the teacher thereof, spread a surprise on Bishop William Harris yesterday, by breaking in upon him at his residence and greeting him on the arrival of his 81st birthday. The venerable Bishop heartily welcomed the little tots, and in a few minutes told them that eighty-one years ago he was not larger than them. The children joined together in three Sunday school songs and the Moses Kelly also rendered sleep a duet of their own selection. The News joins with the Sunday school children in congratulations to Elder Harris on his hale and hearty condition at such an advanced age, and trusts that he may be spared to spend several more years with us.
