HOT TIME IN THE PIT.

Stock Brokers Make Sales Amounting to Nearly 100,000 Shares.

DEMAND FOR HOMESTAKE AND SUNBEAM

Riches of the Challenge—Buffalo Hump Mines—Concerning the Alice—Miscellaneous.

Inching 750 shares, sales in the all, today passed the 100,000 mark, for which buyers shelled out the neat little sum of $19,918.46. The ball was a record-breaker, so to speak, in point of volume of business, and wherever there was any chance at all to create trading, it was done, and in some places with a vengeance.

Opening the call, Hatton-Rock opened with a board lot at $5.05, after which Centennial-Eureka sold at $2.50 in order to get a share, a total of 30 shares changed hands, while the price went up to $2.60 at noon. Dalton and Jack struck a somewhat sudden movement and made nearly sales enough to fill a whole, when Four Aces spoke up with considerable velocity, the stock being bandied at fancy prices, ranging from 30 to 40 cents. In Grand-Junction there were numerous transfers at a company figure, and when Gold Chain changed, sales were indulged in at 1 to 1.02 or more. Mercur dropped a number block of 2,000 at 16.05. Some Alice shares around fifty cents, and Bullion changed with the speed of spotted lightning at something in the neighborhood of 25 from 24 to 26 cents. To conclude, the number in these hard times was counted 100 of 4.75 cents.

Dealers in the industry for the week ended by selling with freedom at and close to 1 cent a share. Sunbeam sold at 1.06 and Homestake at $1.06 and $1.08, while Dalton figured in the trade, up at 1 cents and more, and Bullion, Centennial and Golden Gate Extension followed, these securities going at cents and upwards. Homestake was one of the leaders of the call, and sticking at nothing in the trading until the stock was selling at 1 cents with a big demand and a good, big, boiling amount of business. During afternoon on the sales aggregated more in the money, and at the close there were sales in the aggregate of 1,000 shares, and the stock was left in good shape. Joe Bowers kept up his good standing by selling in 1,000 shares, while Bowers Extension continued onward and upward and was the unknown to the above and beyond 10 cents when it closed. Go Hope made a sale at 30 cents, and this Little Pittsburg business is always a good one. The Bullion Beck and Champion Consolidated, South Swansea and Star Consolidated, as to expectation, quotations were quoted and unusual activity as one only Bowers, the Little Pittsburg, Dalton and Jack and Four Aces made the last dispatches.

The closing figures were as follows:
