That Alloged Holdup -Resented an insult and Then Paid His Fine -Ogden News Briefs.

The funeral services over the remains of Mrs," Mary Folkman, wife of C. O. Folkman, were held at the Plain City meeting house yesterday afternoon at 1 o'clock. Beautiful music was discoursed by the ward choir. Addresses were made by Elders John Carver, of Hunts. ville; L. F. Moench and Joseph Parry; of Ogden; P. C. Green and Bishop Bramwell of Plain City. Their remarks were impressive and consoling to the bereaved family, and highly eulogistic of the good deeds and noble virtues of the deceased as a wife, mother and Lat. ter-day Saint. A large concourse of friends attended the funeral, as the departed was held in high esteem in the mmunity. The remains were interred
