A Prospector Rescued from a Most Horrible Death.

AN EVANSTON LIVING CURIOSITY.

A Mysterious Disappearance.—Mexican Horse Thieves.—An Overdose of Opium.—Other Items.

There are a good many mild cases of la grippe in Petaluma, Cal., and vaccinity at the present time.

Ninety cases of Victoria opium have been seized in Chinatown, San Francisco, by internal revenue inspectors.

D. Munro, a well known insurance agent, has mysteriously disappeared from Los Angeles, Cal., under circumstances that lead to the belief that a moment of despondency he committed suicide.

Sicily oranges are being sent into Arizona just now in large quantities. The duty on this fruit is $75 a car, but that does not prevent its importation in the Chicago market. These oranges are two months earlier than the California crop.

Alfalfa seed raising in the vicinity of La Junta, Las Animas, Rocky Ford and other Arkansas valley towns, is said to be a profitable business. A crop from 400 acres under the Otero county ditch recently produced 1200 bushels of alfalfa seed, worth $6000.

The little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Giles accidentally swallowed a carpet tack the other day, says the Park City Record. Dr. LeCount went up to Cottonwood, where Mr. Giles resides, and succeeded in removing the tack from the child's stomach.

Potato shippers are urging the farmers not to hold their potatoes for a higher price than 75 cents per hundred, says the Denver News. They predict that the immense crop raised in Colorado this year will glut the market.

John Blair, one of Sweetwater county's oldest stockmen, realized a good price for his horses shipped to Denver and Omaha. On Tuesday he shipped from Bitter Creek station seven car loads of fat steers off the range for the eastern market. He expects to get the top price for his cattle.—Rock Springs Miner.

A company of state militia is in process of formation in this city, says the Cheyenne (Wyo.) County Journal, and it is expected that in two weeks more sufficient names can be secured to have the company mustered into the service of the state. It is designed to have the Sheridan company mustered in as artillery.

Ranchmen of the Platte valley country, from Saratoga north, say that nearly a third of the winter feed has already been used. Some of the sheepmen talked of moving their flocks up into the Big Horn basin last summer, but did not do it, consequently the range is badly crowded.—Laramie Boomerang.

Skeletons of a man and a horse have been found one mile west of Carlin, Nevada, by men working in a quarry. The clothing on the man had rotted, and $1.75 in American money was found in the pocket. There is no clew to the identity of the man. He probably has been dead a year or more. The saddle was cut to pieces.

Judge Lorigan, of San Jose, Cal., has given a decision declaring unconstitutional the law passed by the last legislature fixing the salaries of policemen in cities of from 10,000 to 20,000 population at $100 per month. San Jose's policemen get $75 a month, and one had brought suit to compel the council to pay him $100.

The Denver board of public works has sold to C. H. White & Co., of New York, $50,000 of per cent school district bonds at 99 and accrued interest from September 1. These bonds are a lien only on the property in the district against which they are taxed. The proceeds of the sale are used to pay for inspection and other supervisory work on the three new sewers.

Oscar S. Hills, a caller at the Crystal Palace dance hall in Colorado City, died Friday afternoon from an overdose of opium. He had been at a hop joint the night previous and complained of neuralgia. He remarked "I will get rid of this thing or kill myself trying." He went to bed about 5 a. m., and at noon could not be awakened. At 1:30 a doctor was called, but the man was beyond medical aid and died at 3:45.

A sad accident occurred on the Lead Mill tramway on Friday, says the Hingham Bulletin, in which Wm. McLaws got badly injured. He was letting down a train car over a rather steep grade when the brakes slipped or failed to work, with the result that he was crushed between the train car and an R. G. W. box-car. On examination it was found that McLaws' thigh was badly fractured.

They have produced many curiosities at Evanston, says the Lariamie Boomerang. One of them is in the shape of a horse-mule combination. It is a seven weeks old colt, owned by Mr. Harvey Beith, which has the head of a horse and the body of a mule. The mother of the colt is a dense white mule, which was raised by Messrs. Booth and Crocker, on their ranch near this place. The youngster will probably be one of the great attractions at the Midwinter Fair at San Francisco, as the owners are contemplating sending it there.

"Texas Jack" has been taken to the county jail at Alameda, Cal., to serve a sixteen-year sentence for an assault committed on Tom Indian, an Indian living near Pleasanton. The particulars of the incident go to show that the Texas nearly murdered the Indian. He clubbed him three times in the right breast. The entire trouble arose over a fine looking Indian girl named Mary Armijo. The Texas had been paying numerous attentions to her and around the Indian's journey. With the running the Indian to the "Texas Jack" to say with him. After the report he remonstrated with him about the way he was acting toward Mary. This led to the row and the Indian has decidedly the best of it until the Texas drew his knife and jabbed it three times into Indian's breast. The Indian's wounds are very painful but they are not dangerous.

Jim Lowe, Dolores Martinez and Francisco Garcia, three Mexicans have been bound over at Pueblo, Colorado, for horse stealing, a carload of horses and mules being found in their possession. Jim Lowe, one of the prisoners turned state's evidence and made a sensation by unveiling the existence of a well organized gang of horse and cattle thieves in this section of the state. A number of prominent Mexicans are implicated, among them Tony Archuleta, who has been considered a veritable king among the Mexicans of this section, and whose word was law and who held a responsible official position. He was captured while in the act of driving a stolen herd. Hundreds of cattle and horses have been stolen in this section in the past few years and never found of again. These crooks are the most important that have been active in this section for years, and more will follow. The stockmen who have lost immense droves by this gang, are greatly excited and determined that the guilty ones shall not escape justice this time.

News has been received from Hampton's flat, Cal., that an old German prospector has been murdered by Clark Masterson a terrible death by slow torturing. According to the account, the old prospector had been living alone in a cabin which belongs to a man named Crutchfield, in Hampton's flat, miles from any other human abode. Masterson, a well-known miner of Hampton's flat, happened to pass near the house, and from some cause was attracted to where he saw the prospector lying on a burning bed, tied to it by cords or strong thongs, although the fire in the mattress in a short time would have roasted him alive. Mr. Masterson untied him and extinguished the fire. The man was not burned, but seemed crazed by the terrible ordeal. He said that he had been lying helpless for two several days. The terrible mental strain, added to his sufferings, has made him a raving maniac. And he is now confined in Mr. Masterson, who has returned to his home.
