Cache Sunday School Conference.

LOGAN CITY, Utah, Sept. 20, 1894.

Editor Deseret News:

The Sunday School conference of the Cache Stake of Z. C. M. I. was held September 16 and 17 in the Logan Tabernacle. There were present of the General School Board: Joseph West, Superintendent; George Q. Cannon and General Secretary John M. Wallace. At Saturday's meeting the attendance was somewhat small, but a good and interesting program was rendered, assisted by the Spirit of the Lord. General instructions were given by our visiting authorities, and reports from various wards were heard and an enjoyable time was spent. Superintendent Winder, being first on the ground, asked if we had anything to do long with us, he came to Utah, and he has well improved his time at this conference in visiting. He has visited twenty-two Sunday school conferences this year, and been in attendance in the south and Utah on the north, and the Lord has bless his visit to every one he felt to rejoice for God's kindness to him, stated that in addressing children we should be very careful not say anything that would give a tendency to hurt their feelings and show them to be on confidence in each other. He gave much more valuable instruction pertaining to Sunday school work and closed his remarks by singing one of his good little songs.

Elder John M. Wallace occupied a short time in giving a good, concise and instructive address in Sunday school work, spoke of what an ideal Sunday school should be and what means should be adopted in order to make it so.

All schools that reported were in a flourishing condition; they were following up the graded system and the results had been good, and much had been done for the advancement of intellectual growth in the minds of the young.

Sunday's meetings were well attended; the tabernacle was filled to overflowing and the same Divine spirit was present. Meeting began promptly at 10 o'clock; after the opening exercises the secretary called the roll and seventeen wards responded. A very excellent program was arranged, which consisted of brief reports and papers (papers on different subjects) pertaining to Sunday school work.

Our visiting brethren spoke at some length upon the example that should be taught in our Sunday schools, that every teacher should make it a study as to how he should appear before the Sunday school, teach by example as well as by precept, and that all teachers should observe the Word of Wisdom. We had excellent instructions also from the Stake president and the Sunday school Stake superintendency, covering what had been advocating our conference. The results of our conference will doubtless have the desired effect, and a new resolve will be made to make our Sunday schools banner in every respect.

JOS. QUINNEY JR., Secretary.

Bannock Stake Conference.

The regular quarterly conference of the Bannock stake convened in Lava, Sunday and Monday, August 12th and 13th.

There were present Elders S. J. Grant, of the quorum of the Apostles, and T. C. Griggs, of the Deseret Sunday School Union board, the Stake presidency and most of the Bishops.

On Sunday at 10 a. m. Elder W. F. Rigby called the conference to order and reported the labors of the Stake presidency; they had visited all the wards since last conference and found a spirit of unity prevailing, with general temporal and spiritual prosperity. A number of Bishops reported their wards similarly.

Elder T. C. Griggs reported his past week's labors in the Stake. The S. S. Stake conference held at Rexburg a few weeks ago was a great success. He outlined the objects of the Sunday schools and some of the best methods of conducting the same. Elder Jos. E. Robins also addressed the Saints upon some important principles of the Gospel.

At 2 p. m. the Bishops continued their reports, which were satisfactory. Elder S. J. Grant spoke on the many ways pertaining the laws of God and the Word of Wisdom, he said, had become to some a dead letter; on those same are spoil breaking the Word of Wisdom and he wishes it were not so, but we don't try to overcome our appetites they will lead us to destruction. He advised home industry and urged the people to follow the counsel of the servants of God and they will prosper.

Elder T. C. Griggs corroborated the teachings of the former speaker. He also spoke of the evils that will result if Latter-day Saints allow themselves to be entrapped by secret societies and strongly advised the Saints to obey the counsels of the servants of God.

On Monday at 10 a. m. the general and stake authorities were presented and unanimously sustained.

Elder S. J. Grant addressed upon the duties of the saints. All Latter-day saints should at least be willing to give two days once in three months for conference—it simply pays. He related some of his experience in donating to the Lord, who how he was repaid. Sacrifice and tithing always produces opposite results. The Gospel enables us to share our wealth with our brethren.

Elder Jos. E. Robins had great satisfaction in hearing the words spoken and felt that the Latter-day Saints have much reason to rejoice. He wanted them to pay tithing because they ought to do so, this day is theirs.

At 2 p.m. S. J. Grant was the principal speaker and at the former meetings his instructions were full of interest to the people. Stake President T. E. Ricks was thankful for the attention of the Saints. He said we had made some progress in consecrating to the Lord by tithing and offerings. N. Jensen had been improved this year. He opened the Stake secretary's office and invited all sending our children to other conventions to let us know and report to us so we may keep with every spirit of justice.

After singing "The Spirit of God like a fire is burning," conference was dismissed by Patriarch A. F. Buckley. JAS. GILLESPIE, Stake Clerk.
