SPAIN PROTESTS

Against the Alleged Filibustering Expeditions

IN FAVOR OF CUBAN REBELS.

To Rumors Not Credited at the State Department—Will be Investigated Though.

WASHINGTON, June 6.—Mr. De Lome, the Spanish minister to the United States, has called the attention of the state department to the allegations that filibustering expeditions against Spanish authorities in Cuba are being fitted out in the bayous of the lower Mississippi river. The communication also asserts that armed officers of some of the Southern states often paraded with arms with a view to joining some of these pirating expeditions, or at least to give active encouragement to the Cuban insurrectionists.

Some of the statements made covered acts of which the United States government can take no official notice, and were too meager for political official action. It is believed at the state department that there is little truth in the reports which reach here from the south of the filling out of warlike expeditions against Cuba, but should it be shown that expeditions are being organized which come within the prohibitions of international law and our treaties with Spain, there will be no delay in bringing the parties concerned to justice.

It is learned that the Spanish officials are keeping a close watch on several suspected expeditionary movements for the purpose of furnishing information to which to request action by the United States government. One of the expeditions is believed to have sailed from Philadelphia. The southern one, it is said at the Spanish legation, are the George Chilcs and the Bridgeport. The Spanish officials consider the movement of these ships the most serious operations at Dauphin and Cat islands, off the mouth of the Mississippi. It is said these movements are mainly the result of the recent arrival in the United States of General Quesada from Venezuela, who brought a considerable sum of money and the Cubans, and shatter sympathizers who is said to have brought 1000 from Paris.

LONDON, June 6.—The Standard this morning in intimation to the effect that when the insurrection in Cuba ended Spain will refuse to pay 10-tenths of the cost of suppressing it, adding: "There is small pretense of concealment on the part of those going to Cuba from the United States, and the authorities need be cognizant of it. In country which claimed and obtained damages from England on account of the assistance given to the South by armed vessels which were allowed to leave this country, should it be last to allow armed men to leave its shores and insurrect against Spain."

AFRAID OF WHITE CAPPERS.

Statement of a Young Girl Who Had Been Their Victim.

RAINSVILLE, G., June 7.—A young Scotch girl stated to United States Commissioner Baker today that she intended to give the names of members of a band of white cappers who had made her one of their victims, for fear they would take her life. She is Miss Annie Phillips, the daughter of Jim Phillips, one of the best known women of this county. Phillips, his daughter and his son narrowly escaped death at the hands of a gang of ruffians in mountains, who visited their home last here on Monday night. The gang went to the house after the girl, Albert, who was suspected of "informing" to the "revenuers." They tied him out and when he saw the crowd he called for his father. John came to his son's assistance, and was killed by some one in the crowd. Then Miss Annie, who is just 16, ran out to assist her father, and was knocked down and stamped on until she was unconscious. The crowd took the son of a preacher of a mile and, stripping him, gave him a terrible beating. The daughter recovered and raised the alarm which brought neighbors to the scene. The father and the son are in a critical condition. Four of the gang have been apprehended. There were three in all.

Depew Invited to an Excursion.

NEW YORK, June 7.—Mr. Depew has been invited to go on an excursion from Buffalo to Duluth, over the great lakes, on the new steamer Northwest, of the Great Northern railway boat line," said Mr. D. B. Brown, of Duluth, now at the Hotel Metropole.

"J. J. Hill, president of the railway company, and the members of the business from company, are to give a reception in honor of the initial trip of the steamer," he continued, "and the citizens of Duluth are preparing to give Mr. Depew a royal western welcome."

COTTON CROP.

Average for 1894 and Estimate Issued by the "Financial Chronicle."

NEW YORK, June 7.—According to Bradstreet of the cotton average and the final estimate issued by the Financial Chronicle, the percentage of which increase has been as follows: North Carolina, 20; South Carolina, 14; Georgia, 16; Florida, 8; Alabama, 11; Mississippi, 10; Louisiana, 14; Texas, 11; Arkansas, 12; Tennessee, 9; other states and per cent, 12. The average yield per acre is 11.6 per cent. The acreage is 17,577,000, against 20,107,237. The small increase in Florida is due to larger planting of sea island cotton.

The condition of the crop was less satisfactory at the close of the month than at the same date last year. The states of low yields are the Carolinas and Georgia, but the plant is late all over the country, so far from work. The condition is not necessarily unfavorable, but more depends upon future development than has been the case in some other productive years.

Not Satisfied with the Attitude.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 6.—In spite of Texas Jim's statement that he can settle any and question that his father, the late state senator L. W. Buck, was in Oakland at the hour when Miss Nellie Harrington was murdered in her flat this morning, the relatives of the latter is not satisfied with the alibi. All was done to throw any light upon the movements of Mr. Buck on Saturday have been enjoined for the coroner's inquest, to be held next Saturday. The inquest will probably be the end of the case. At present there is no suspect that anyone will be arrested. The police have failed to discover any just implicating the murderer, except the suspicions they have expressed concerning Senator Buck, who is dead.

RACE QUESTION IN THE SOUTH.

A Preacher Dabbled for Practicing Social Equality.

ATLANTA, Ga., June 6.—A special from Tuskegee, Ala., says: About twenty of the best citizens of this town gave one Rev. Mr. Kelly, a white man of Ohio, a "surprise party" at 7 o'clock yesterday evening, by calling on him and informing him, through their spokesman, Mr. A. J. Shaffer, that his presence was obnoxious and displeasing to the white people in Macon county, and especially so to the citizens of Tuskegee, and that he must leave town and Macon county on the first train, which passed the railroad station at 8 a. m., or abide the consequences.

Kelly pretended to be a minister, claiming he was "called" to preach to the negroes of the South. He has been holding a protracted meeting here in the negro church for the past ten days, eating, sleeping and mingling with the negroes, making his headquarters with one Thomas Harris, where he was found by the committee that waited on him. He is teaching and practicing social equality, which will never be submitted to by the people of this section.

ORIENTAL COMMERCE.

Vicious Competition to Japan for Corea's Trade.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 6.—Colonel Conrad Seringen, at Shanghai, has sent to the state department his observations on the commerce between Japan and China and Corea, which, he says, will present new phases as a result of the termination of hostilities. He says the competition among Japanese merchants for Corean trade is vicious and has demoralized trade.

Mr. Seringen calls attention to the fact that there is not in China or Japan a banking institution conducted by American capital. Great Britain, France and Germany have banks in China and Japan, he says, and the merchants of these countries are supported by the banking institutions of their own countries, and they have been dividing the profits of American commerce. American merchants in Asia are compelled to transact their business through foreign banks.

Not many years ago the American interest was of first consideration at Shanghai, and American commerce whitened Asiatic seas. Now other nations are pushing ahead, although, geographically, the United States should dominate and supply, with the overproduction of their fertile fields, the markets of the swarming millions of Asia.

North Denies the Story.

TOPEKA, Kan., June 6.—Ex-United States senator Martin returned today from an extended tour in the Pacific coast. He denies the story published in a Washington dispatch that he was aspirating to the governorship of Arizona. He says there is no truth in it, that he is simply interested in a canal project in the territory.

WESTERN MINES.

Money Appropriated for Survey in Utah and surrounding States.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 6.—Secretary Hoke Smith has approved the plan of operations for the coming fiscal year submitted to him by Director Walcott of the geological survey.

Out of a total appropriation of $715,000 for the surveys, $118,700 is to be devoted to geological purposes.

In the Rocky Mountain region the Aspen mines of Colorado will be studied, and a preliminary survey made of the mining regions of New Mexico, Arizona, Colorado, Utah, Wyoming and Montana. This will cost $7,000.

In the Pacific coast region, J. S. Dofer will use $4,000 on the coal and gold mines of Oregon. Three parties will have $9,000 to use in California. Eighteen hundred dollars is allotted to keep up the petrographic laboratory, $5,000 for coal investigations in Washington and $5,000 for work in the gold fields of Alaska.

In the division of hydrography there will be two parties, one in the East and another in the West, having respectively $2,500 and $1,000 to expend. The work consists of gauging streams and examining the water resources of the country. In the mining resources district, a federal of all the mines in the country will be made, and the work of mapping the mineral deposits will be begun.

For topographical work the Atlantic region is allowed $37,000, and the central Rocky Mountain and the Pacific regions, $17,000 each. In the surveying department, preliminary triangulations will be made in Colorado, Oregon, Washington and Indian Territory.

PENSION RIGHTS OF SOLDIERS.

Another Decision Discovered by Assistant Secretary Reynolds.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 6.—Another decision has been rendered by Assistant Secretary Reynolds, bearing on the question of the date of the termination of the civil war and the pensionable rights of soldiers enlisting in 1894 and 1895. The conclusion reached by Mr. Reynolds is that in all cases where the question to be ascertained is whether the enlistment of the soldiers was for service in the war of the rebellion or for the regular army. If the former, he is pensionable, and if the latter, he is not.

Mr. Reynolds cites the various orders suspending enlistment for the war and those ordering the commencement of enlistments for the regular army. He says:

"As to those volunteer enlistments in the regular army after the cessation of armed hostilities, it cannot be truthfully said that their enlistment was for the war of the rebellion."

In reference to the opinion of the Supreme Court assigning August 20, 1866, as the end of the war, he says: "The reason, however, which moved a court of last resort, with the right of the parties to the case before it, might be different in the matter of a claim of this character, cause to be expected to establish the date of termination of the war of the rebellion, where the question involved is whether an enlistment was in aid of the war of the rebellion and the service performed contributed in furtherance of its suppression."

The secretary, therefore, holds the enlistments in the loyal states since April 12, 1861, when recruiting for them ceased, will not be deemed enlistments in or for the war of the rebellion.

In the other states, territories and the District of Columbia, June 1, 1866, will be taken as the final date, as enlistments then ceased in those parts of the country, and July 1, 1866, when the blockade of the Southern ports was raised, will be taken as the final date of war enlistments for the navy.

Survivors of the Colima.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 6.—Seventeen survivors of the ill-fated steamer Colima arrived in port today on the San Juan. When she docked hundreds of friends and relatives of those who went down in the Colima were assembled, awaiting the landing of the passengers.

The Colima survivors who landed today at this port are:

Passengers—A. J. Sutherland, C. H. Coening Jr., J. M. Thornton, H. H. Hogg, George Rowan, Bruno Cand, Jose Antonio Soto, Jose E. Martell, George D. Hoss, Louis Sangster, F. J. Otto, Juan A. Ramos. Crew—R. A. Villa, Alvert Carpenter, Arthur Richardson, Tom Flea.

The following landed at Mazatlan—Thomas Saratia, Domingo Allana, Angel Guthrez, Charles Rola.

The seventeen men saved from a watery grave when they had given up all hope of rescue were a sorry looking party when they arrived at the mail dock. Some had their arms in slings. The heads of others were swathed in bandages. They formed as they walked and their bruises were plainly in evidence. All looked thin and weary and showed only too plainly the effects of the terrible strain during the fearful hours when they awaited succor.

Death Rather than Disgrace.

DENVER, June 6.—A special to the News from Cheyenne, Wyo., says: A telegram was received from Omaha by Marshal Carr this morning, stating that a young lady giving her name as Miss Middleton, and her residence as Cheyenne, had committed suicide in one of the hospitals of that city. The young lady was suffering from the effects of a criminal operation, and killed herself to avoid disgrace.

An investigation shows the name given by the young lady to have been an assumed one. Her right name is Maud Veel, and her parents live in Sundance, Wyo. Miss Veel came to Cheyenne with the family of Attorney General Fowler a few months ago. She gave the name of her paramour as John Sharp, but the police have been unable to locate him, and believe that the name is an assumed one.

Valor Rewarded.

WASHINGTON, June 6.—The war department has granted a medal of honor to Captain Clinton A. Cilly of the Second Minnesota volunteer infantry, now a resident of Hickory, N. C. On September 29, 1862, on the field of Chickamauga, Captain Cilly saw a regiment, not his own, leaving the line of battle. He dashed after it, seized the colors, and rode back into the battle, followed by the regiment, which afterwards did effective work.

Sick and Tired of It.

ALBANY, N. J., June 6.—"Woman Suffrage" was the theme of the address delivered by Bishop Doane at the closing exercises of St. Agnes school today. The bishop said:

"One gets sick and tired of the way in which the talk of woman's vocation fills the air, not merely in the wild vagaries of its blatant assumptions, but in the parade and push of its claims for recognition of what is called its rights.

"I believe God will not save this state and nation from the aggravated miseries of an enlarged, ungraduated suffrage, which in its universality of male vote, is our most threatening danger today. But if we are to be visited with this other affliction as a well-earned punishment for many national sins, then I believe that when we have tasted its bitterness we shall be brought back, perhaps through anarchy, and revolution, to a democracy which shall demand for its exercise government by men whom education and actual American quality to govern."

Jerry Simpson on the Road.

TOPEKA, Kan., June 6.—Ex-Congressman Jerry Simpson, accompanied by his wife, will, according to a local newspaper, leave his Medicine Lodge farm with a wagon and mule team for Topeka next Saturday. It is said he intends to load his wagon with butter, eggs and provisions and pay his way with them by selling enough in the towns he passes through to furnish them money for expenses.

WHEN DEBS GOES TO JAIL.

Cassidy Must Pay Part of His Office Expenses.

TERRE HAUTE, Ind., June 6.—Eugene V. Debs is quietly waiting to be recommitted to jail. As yet the Supreme Court of the United States has not issued the mandate. Mr. Debs says: "I do not mind serving out the sentence as much as the delay on my work for the A. R. U. I will take my desk and all things necessary for my office work with me. I have a large trunk packed with these already. It will be necessary for me to have a stenographer with me also, to handle my correspondence. As far as I can figure it, I will reduce my sentence to about five and a half months, which will let me out about November 1st, so it is not such an awful thing after all. The only objection I have to it is the interference with the interests of the members."

AN OPINION GIVEN.

Recently Mr. J. D. Thomas, of North Dakota, visited the Shenandoah Valley, Virginia, and after carefully examining the country located in Winchester, he writes to Mr. V. Richards, Land and Immigration Agent, Baltimore & Ohio Railroad, Baltimore, Maryland, as follows: "I have been in every very state and territory in the United states, and am frank in my opinion that this valley surpasses all other sections in the Union. The lands are low in price, and produce profitable crops. I think you for advertising me here, and extol those seeking pleasant and profitable homes to locate in this country."
