Taking Chances

is all very well in some cases, but not in buying soda water. If there is a place you know that you will get reliable goods, that's the place to go. You are sure of getting pure wholesome "soda" if you buy the You'll find it generally at every stand, grocery, cafe, and bar. See that you get the genuine.

WILL BOYCOTT BROOMS.

Federated Trades Against a Convict Made Importation.

Brooms are to be boycotted! That is, the convict made kind are.

The Utah Federation of Labor held its regular meeting last night and a letter from Davenport, Ia., was read conveying the intelligence that the Lee Broom company of that place had shipped 60 dozen convict made brooms to this city, manufactured in the State prison at Nebraska.

In order to prevent the sale of the brooms, a committee was appointed, composed of John Hashbauer, John Osborn, M. Summerfield, Carl Oathy and Wm. Wigant.

The efforts of the Retail Clerks' association for Sunday closing was endorsed, and a resolution adopted asking the City Council to pass the ordinance now pending.

The Plumbers' union sent in a communication declaring that it intends to again unite with the Federation.

WAS A DAY OF SHUTOUTS.

Orphans, Reds, Colonels and Cast-offs Whitewashed—Grand Tie Game at St. Louis.

For the last few days the Short Lines and Salt Lakes have been talking baseball for Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. After daily alternate changes in the program, at last it is definitely announced that the game will not be played tomorrow.

* * *

It is also distinctly understood that Admiral Schley will not attend the Railroad-Woolhoppers game at the Fort tomorrow afternoon. The proceeds of the exhibition will be donated to the Salt Palace project.

* * *

The Y. M. C. A. after considering trouble, has secured the Fort grounds for the game with the R. S. W.'s on Tuesday next.

* * *

The feature of yesterday's play in the East was the battle of the pitchers at St. Louis between the home team and the Brooklyns. After twelve innings the game was declared a tie on account of darkness. With the other leading clubs it was essentially a day of shutouts when four of the National League clubs failed to improve the shining hour beyond a big oval goose egg. Chicago went down before the weak Senators to the tune of 2-0. Cincinnati suffered its first whitewash of the season when Boston scored a great big six. It was a foregone conclusion that Baltimore would defeat Cleveland, but their most sanguine supporters did not hope for 12-0. Louisville was the last on the list of shut-outs, New York wielding the sticks with bunched hits.

* * *

[illegible]

* * *

Two of the new umpires, Burns and Smith, had their first experience with a Pittsburg audience on Tuesday—and when the Smoky City patrons got after the indicator handler the umpires learn to appreciate the first stages of mob violence.

* * *

Catcher Bowerman, of the Pittsburg team, has received a letter from President Young ordering him to appear before the league directors. Umpire Smith charges him with improper conduct towards Umpire Burns in Pittsburg Tuesday, May 2nd.

* * *

According to an Albany dispatch Cy Seymour will risk no further humiliation from President Freedman, but will accept an offer of $400 a month from one of the summer resort teams up the State, which is backed by a number of rich New Yorkers.

* * *

The revival of interest in baseball in Chicago dates from Anson's retirement from the management of the club in that city, and the elimination of Von der Ahe from the control of the Browns resulted in the redemption of St. Louis. Neither kept pace with the progress of the national pastime, and each was a handicap not alone to the club which he was connected with, but to every club in the league.

PITTSBURG, 7; PHILADELPHIA, 5.

Pittsburg, May 26.—Gibson did not give a hit until the sixth inning, when one hit and an error brought in a run. In the seventh and eighth six hits and two runs were made off him, and Tannehill retired the visitors in one, two, three order in the ninth. Piatt was easy picking for the home team, but sharp fielding kept the score down. Attendance, 1,200.

Chicago, May 26.—The Senators made only two hits off Taylor today, but that proved sufficient, as Cassidy's double followed Chicago's only error and scored two runs. McFarland was hit, but with men on bases the hits invariably went straight into some of the fielders' hands. McFarland's fielding was very fast. Attendance, 900.

Batteries—Taylor and Chance; McFarland and McGuire.

Umpires—Swartwood and Warner.

TIE IN ST. LOUIS.

St. Louis, May 26.—Today's game was called at the end of the twelfth inning on account of darkness. It was a pitchers' battle from the outset. Powell pitched in magnificent form, but two bases on balls and a brace of singles allowed the Superbas to tie the game in the ninth inning. Up to that time only three hits had been secured off the St. Louisans. Dunn was also in magnificent form and kept the ten hits made off his delivery well scattered. Attendance, 4,500.

SCORE.

St. Louis	2	13	1
Brooklyn	2	10	3

Batteries—Powell and Criger; Dunn and Farrell.

TWO LEAGUES NEXT YEAR.

Cleveland, O., May 26.—In an interview here, J. Earl Wagner of the Washington Baseball club is quoted as saying:

"The twelve-club league will remain intact until the close of this season. In 1900 there will be an eight-club league, and an eight-club American association. The eight-club association will probably be Cleveland, Louisville, Detroit or Buffalo, and a second club in Chicago in the West. Washington, Baltimore, Providence and a second club in Philadelphia in the East. The eight-club league will be made up of Boston, New York, Brooklyn and Philadelphia, in the East, and Chicago, St. Louis, Cincinnati and Pittsburg, in the West."
