For Utah (forecast made at San Francisco): Local snow tonight and Thursday; stationary temperature.

For Salt Lake City and vicinity: Local snow tonight and Thursday; stationary temperature.

J. H. SMITH,
Observer Weather Bureau.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

There is a vacancy at the Deseret Telegraph office for L. S. Hooles.

The annual concession to transfer a large portion of the Ute to be made.

An old-time party will be given in the Fifth ward meeting house tomorrow evening.

Dr. E. T. Thorn is the new vice president of the Salt Lake County Medical society.

Lieut. N. W. Hall of the fire department is now tending around the house with a battery sore. It is a girl.

Unless delayed by stress of weather the party that left Chicago for Jackson Hole Parsons on December 21st, will arrive in Salt Lake City the latter part of this week.

Nine hundred and thirty-two dispensation twenty-year sets of whole were taken, left Utah last year in response to missionary calls, and were scattered over the surface of the globe preaching the Gospel.

The following interesting subject is to be debated by students of the Lincoln school, Fifth City: "Resolved, That the Mormon Pioneers deserve as much credit for the settling of Utah as did the Puritans for the settling of New England."

It is understood that by Friday next Gov. Wells will have decided whether or not he will be able to offer a reward for the arrest of George H. Wright, who is now accused of being the perpetrator of the Pelican Point murder in 1896.

Henry P. Richards has been appointed President of the Logan Agricultural and Stock company, whose name is mentioned in connection in Salt Valley Tribune county. L. John Nuttall is treasurer of the company and Thos. Brinley, life of the Fifth ward, Salt Lake, is secretary. The latter has left this city to reside on the Skull Valley property.

John Tiernan, a near-time resident of this city, died at 11 o'clock last night, from a complication of diseases, from which he has been a severe sufferer for several months. He has been engaged chiefly in mining, but was also president of the Constitution Mercantile company, and has been a successful and highly respected business man. He leaves a widow, two sons and one daughter.

Invitations have been received by several favored Salt Lakers to attend a social in the Pioneer opera house on Thursday evening, January 19, given in honor of the wedding of the two popular young Provo people, Mr. J. Wilford Knight and Miss Lucy J. Brimhall, who purpose to be united in the bonds of matrimony in the Salt Lake Temple on the 18th inst. The young couple are equally reversed from an extended mission to Great Britain.

Until nearly midnight last evening the districts south of east South Temple street connected with the Brigham street of the Bowling center. Pedestrians and street-car conductors generally had a lively time dodging the cargoes of juveniles that shot down the incline on the deadly sidewalk. Some of the heavier sleds made the trip from Fifth street in between blocks without disembarking, crossing no less than four sets of duplicate street-tracks on their rapid journey.

An entertainment will be given in the Deseret ward assembly room, Thursday evening, January 12, commencing at 8 o'clock, in honor of Brother Will Petersen, previous to his departure in the mission field. The program is as follows: Selection, by the choir; vocal solo, (Mr. H. Buhler); clarinet solo, (Gerhard Nelson); banjo solo, (Miss Emmett); violin solo, (Prof. W. C. Clive); recitation, (Prof. J. H. Paul); piano solo, (Spencer Clawson, Jr.); baritone solo, (Heber C. Sharp); comic song, (Will J. AMUSEMENTS.

[illegible] a element that pervades Mr. Hoyt, who is to be the city in the interests of the Bromide company, Harry Corson Clarke, another comedian of the future, includes and plane of his time. He will open at the Salt Lake theatre on next week, when Saturday evening.

It will be a happy day for Mr. Clarke when he leaves Chicago and gets here in Salt Lake. For he has the warm and kind of a place on his heart for the people of this city, who have so generously supported him in the past. He writes, by telegram, that he will be here about the 15th. The cast of the Bromide hotel for his Salt Lake engagement will be the same as the last time. In the Fourth Bromide hotel for his Salt Lake engagement of the Bromide company, which will open on the stage of the Grand during the two plays that he was seen at the theatre here. It is a fact that he is the only comedian who has ever been seen on earth, and about them were [illegible] between many of the most pleasant associations of his life, for Mr. Clarke is naturally of a most grateful and generous disposition, and he knows he owes the success of his career, could such the old trouble and take out the old curtain, finally, something out the scenes and troubles of the past. The Bromide hotel, which has been seen twice in this city, and twice at the Grand, and twice at the Grand, and twice at the Grand
