THE RAILWAY SOUTH.

Denver Capitalists Ready to Take up Grading at Once.

LAST NIGHT'S RAILWAY MEETING.

Build the Railway From Juab to St. George and on to Los Angeles—A Religious Discourse.

Special to the News, per Federal Telegraph.

BEATRIS, Utah, June 17, 1895.—Elder Abraham H. Cannon, delivered an interesting discourse in Academy hall here last evening on the work necessary to be done for the redemption of our dead, in baptisms, ordinances and sealings in Temples. He cited several instances where persons had been directed by inspiration to obtain the genealogy of their ancestors, and made an impressive point as to the perpetuity and eternal obligation and union of the marriage covenant.

After the close of his discourse the meeting was resolved into a railroad mass meeting, Messrs. White, Mumford, Shepherd and Murdock, with others, on the stand. The sentiment of the citizens present was ascertained and was unanimously in favor of the road coming from Juab through the old settlements to St. George, and on to Los Angeles.

Mr. Theo. F. Meyers, of St. Louis, main owner of calcular mines and with over Clove Creek left, made a short address followed by others, and Presley Denney, who voiced sentiments of the people as to the route of the road, and said all the people in this and other southern counties asked that the proposed town in Salt Lake and in the Territory skirt the road at Juab and Marshick and there here, men of means, are only too anxious to take hold of grading immediately.

A committee of four prominent citizens was appointed and meeting adjourned at 10 p. m.

Major Bradley Dead.

At 4 o'clock Sunday morning, June 16th, Major James F. Bradley died at his residence, No. 238 Third East. Major Bradley was born in New Haven, Conn., October 25, 1819, and moved to this city in 1857. The funeral service will take place at the First Congregational church, of which the deceased was an honored member, on Tuesday afternoon, at 3 o'clock.

UNPRECEDENTEDLY COLD.

The Lowest Temperature June in the History of the Utah Weather Bureau.

A representative of the News had himself shot up the elevator shaft of the Board of Trade building at three o'clock this afternoon for the purpose of interviewing Weather Observer Smith, and his assistant, Mr. Maxwell, on the present state of temperature breakdown.

A glance at the records disclosed the fact that the first seventeen days of June give a lower average of temperature for that month than any that have preceded it in the history of the Utah Weather Bureau. The exact average is 59 2-10. The next lowest average is that of the month of June, 1871, when the average was 62. The warmest June of which the office has record is that of 1881 when the thermometer reached 100 degrees on the first day of the month and remained very high for thirty days immediately following.

No reports were received during the day of the damage done by frost last night though it is certain that it was quite heavy. In this valley, especially in spots where the air was very still, vegetation was badly frost-bitten. There was also a considerable fall of large sized hailstones. The recorded temperature was 41 degrees above zero. The lowest during the month was 38, just one degree above the coldest June night of 1871.

Bicycle Rider Run Over.

Shortly before noon today what might have proved a serious accident occurred on Second South, between East Temple and State streets. A boy about twelve years of age, who was riding a bicycle, collided with a horse attached to a buggy and was thrown violently to the ground. The boy fell directly under the animal, but fortunately the driver stepped over without injuring him. The wheels of the buggy passed over the boy, and in his excitement the driver stopped the horse so abruptly that both the horse and the occupants, it might have backed over him. The boy was conveyed to his home in the eastern part of the city. While his injuries were painful, they were not serious.

SALT LAKERS GOING EAST.

A Large Number Left Today and Many More Will Go During the Next Week.

The indications are that more Salt Lakers will spend at least a part of the summer away from home than season has ever before. Of those who will do so not a few will cross the Atlantic or the purpose of visiting the most suitable places of Europe. The excursion rates put in for teachers are attracting a considerable number of Mormons from the Territory to points in various parts of the country. Among those who took the Union Pacific train for the East this morning were the following:

B. H. Henderson, Sarah Stephens, Mrs. James Mathews, W. C. Cherry, Mrs. E. J. Crosier, Mrs. Mabel S. Jaques, Miss Dunham, Mrs. Patrick Jr., R. Patrick Jr., Miss Hannah Patrick, Mrs. D. P. Street and child, Miss L. L. Stennard, Miss Anna S. Gerstnerg, Miss Blanche L. Stennard, Miss T. Shannon, Mrs. Zeigler, Florence Pettingill, Mrs. F. W. Pettingill, F. Pettingill, Miss L. C. Tall, W. E. Hotard, A. Woodruff, C. Jarnes, Mrs. D. L. Strang, J. R. Dorey, F. W. Tuxyer, James Mathews, George Mathews, Mrs. O. Simmons, Wm. Jr. & H. Kastner, Mrs. E. H. Justice, Miss M. L. Ogden, Miss G. Flanders, Mrs. M. M. Cole, Grace L. Rosenberg, Jessie A. Barnes, Mrs. Adams, Miss M. Griffith, Chas. A. D. Cole, Miss Hinckley, Mrs. William Needham, William Needham, William Hous, Miss M. L. Thompson, Mrs. H. Lewis, C. H. Moore, Mrs. Eva W. Carter, Elmer E. Jones, G. A. Duvall, Bessie L. Hume, L. S. Malleck, Miss Emma B. Keyes, Olive I. Coburn, Miss L. Williams, N. A. Rogers.

Personal Mention.

Governor McConnell, of Idaho, was among the passengers for Salt Lake who came in on the Union Pacific train from the north this morning. The object of the governor's visit to Utah at this time is not announced.

General Wade Hampton, United States commissioner of railroads, who has been major his annual tour throughout the West, is now in San Francisco, and will probably reach here within the next week or ten days. The information that Governor McKinley, of Ohio, will pay his compliments to Salt Lake, on a visit to the Pacific coast, is the near future, will create a city among local politicians.

Cheap Rates to Boston.

The Union Pacific today made a very cheap rate to Boston and return on account of the convention of the United Societies of Christian Endeavor. The rate is the lowest ever announced between Utah and that memorable city, and the prospects are that a good many Salt Lakers will take advantage of it. The rate for the round trip is $60.75. Tickets will be sold from July 3d to 6th and will be good to return until August 31st.

Police Court Items.

The following cases were disposed of at the morning session of the police court:

Henry Tennyson, arrested on the charge of using abusive language, was fined $5.

George Ford forfeited $5 for selling liquor on Sunday.

J. H. Kingsbury forfeited $2 for leaving his team untied.

Ezra Nelson forfeited $5.50 for prostitution.

Mrs. Rassebell's Death.

Mrs. Aurelia Rasseball, widow of the late Nicholas Rasseball, died in this city yesterday, June 16, at the age of sixty-two years, six months, and was buried this afternoon, the funeral services commencing at three o'clock. Mrs. Rasseball has lived here about thirty years, and during that time she made a host of friends who will miss her. She was a lady of most excellent christian characters, and as such will be affectionately remembered by a multitude of friends and acquaintances.

OPINIONS RENDERED.

The Supreme Court Handed Down Five of Them This Afternoon.

The following opinions were handed down by the Supreme Court this afternoon:

In the case of Lord Claude Hamilton and John Elliott, appellants, vs John Hatten et al, the judgment of the lower court was affirmed. The opinion was delivered by Judge King and concurred in by Chief Justice Merritt and Associate Justice Hatch.

In the case of M. C. Sullivan vs Northern Spy Mining company, the judgment of the lower court was affirmed.

In the case of the United States vs John W. Smith, appellant, the judgment of the lower court was affirmed, Associate Justice King rendering the decision, Chief Justice Merritt and Associate Justice Smith concurring.

Defendant was tried in the Third district court on the charge of taking from the post office at Salt Lake City a letter addressed to J. W. Smith and intended for one James W. Smith. Respondent demurred to the indictment, alleging that it failed to state facts sufficient to constitute a public offense, and the demurrer was sustained. The plaintiff appeared from the decision. The opinion of the Supreme Court holds that "the indictment must allege the taking to have been felonious or it is defective." The judgment of the lower court was therefore affirmed.

In the case of Roy D. Jones, appellant, vs the New York Life Insurance company, respondent, the judgment of the lower court was affirmed, Chief Justice Merritt rendering the decision, associate justices Hatch and King concurring.

In this case plaintiff sued the defendant company for $1,000 upon an insurance policy issued on the life of Lewis H. Jones. The defendant answered that Lewis H. Jones said H. M. Jones each claimed insurance money as administrator of Lewis H. Jones, and not knowing the respective rights of said claimants, asked to be permitted to pay the money into court and be dismissed. The court so ordered. The plaintiff appealed to the Supreme court, which court now orders the appeal dismissed.

In the case of the Northwestern Wheel and Foundry company, (bankrupt) and appellant, vs the Salt Lake City Copper Manufacturing company, defendant and respondent, the judgment of the lower court was reversed, Associate Justice Smith delivering the decision, Associate Justices Hatch and King concurring. Too lot as action Gr money due upon a contract. Writ of attachment issued and delivered to the sheriff of Salt Lake county, and he levied upon certain property of defendant company. The defendant moved the court to release the property on the grounds that it was dispersonal property, which motion was granted but plaintiff appealed. The Supreme court reversed that order and remanded the cause with directions to hold against the attachment.

A RUSHING BUSINESS.

Railroad Offices Crowded with Large Numbers of Ticket Purchasers.

Of all the busy places of a busy and growing city none were so busy today as the ticket offices of the Union Pacific and Rio Grande railroads. At both it was necessary to put on additional clerks, and such a three ring circus as he Jackson was all going on at the question.

It such a state of affairs were to continue for any considerable length of time the city would be depopulated. In fact it was in the history of Utah railway business has never seen such a rush, unless it was the rush to Ogden and other points, Tickets were sold to nearly all of the large cities of the Union and their aggregate face value will reach thousands of dollars. All inquiries as to the number of tickets sold met with the response that there was absolutely no way to tell that item up. One thing is certain and that is there will be no necessity for national conventions if tickets were sold as they have been for the last twenty-four hours, every day in the year.

LITERARY NOTE.

There is a good story full about a remarkable book of Bonaparte which appears in McClure's Magazine. Life of Napoleon. The man is a spy — the first practice case made for a figure of Napoleon, which appears in the pamphlet of the Parisians of Paris. It seems that in the reign of Napoleon III., the Archbishop of Paris persuaded the government to destroy the pedestal of the great image because Voltaire appears in it. The case was given to execute this piece of Vandalism when Baron Lamy, son of the chief surgeon to Napoleon I., and himself a military surgeon to Napoleon III., happening to be with the surgeon in the cabin at Chelsea, conceived the noble idea of trying to save the sculpture. At the suggestion of the Baron Lamy secretly turned the conversation to David, and informed the surveyor to his surprise, that the greatest effigy of Napoleon was to be sent to the pedestal. Disappointed, in fact, is represented as saying he himself the tree was the Hitchcock by the Schwandi, while the other persuaded remove them. On leaving the Napoleon III. was silent, but the next day the other surgeon was to repair the pedestal. We believe this is the first time that the case has been remembered.

The whole family of William Pearl were poisoned a few days ago by drinking milk from the family cow, which is supposed to have been bitten by a snake. The daughters, Hilliry Gertrude and Hyde and Miss Adelle Ortley, suffered the most, but only prompt medical attention saved their lives.

THE EVENT OF THE SEASON.

A Sight Never Before Witnessed in the Territory.

All fruit raisers are talking about the contemplated statewide exhibit of Utah grown fruit, (strictly native, not imported) to be held in Salt Lake City, 10 days commencing June 19th. The Salt Lake Horticultural society have already a big list of entries all on one fruit tree, which is capable of carrying all some of the heavy floral prize offered for the best exhibits of fruits, vegetables and flowers. Mr. A. C. Merrill, of Salt Lake City, has so far as a tree contest on hand to entertain the committee for the time that will signal that popular hostelry during the great week, and will be to be prepared to handle them and incidentally provide a liberal and enjoyable program consisting of music, dancing, horseback, etc., etc. Make up your long excursion tickets and inquire to find the exhibits. Another feature will be that each day the fruit will be sold and fresh substituted in its place, so all will of necessity be extra superfine. Ladies will have an opportunity of seeing the best grade obtainable for canning, and preserving. Come one, come all, and bring your friends to Calder's Park on June 19, 20, 21. Admission 25 cents, with a free call every evening.
