A TALE OF THE WEST.

[illegible]

[illegible] Bingham Stake, Idaho, [illegible] Bishop Smith has lately been the scene of a [illegible] Delaney and his young wife Dolly, by an Indian named A young girl, Amy McLeod, [illegible] another Shoshone Jim, was killed. This [illegible] Delaney and his young wife.

One morning soon after the events through the [illegible] which Amy McLeod [illegible] a group of Indians. While Eastern [illegible] Hiring up the stage at full speed [illegible] waiting for his to unload [illegible] passengers for Bonanza was opening. Sandy Smith had lately been the scene of an [illegible] duel.

Delaney paced the floor in front of the [illegible] and glad his with some [illegible] to depart to the land of Amy McLeod. He [illegible] that she was a prisoner in the hands of the savages.

A message for Delaney now [illegible] arrived. Turn, wife! Bearing eyes, he [illegible]: "To home, home! The girl need my life. I will rescue her or die!"

"L. L."

[illegible]

Soon all was [illegible] in the little mining camp of Gold Hill.

Delaney and his [illegible] visited the camps of the savages, and [illegible] the knowledge which he had [illegible] the only skilled trail to the [illegible] region.

They had little difficulty in keeping on the track of the savages and their trained a mountainous part of the country.

A few hours' hard travel through rocky defiles and deep timber, for their [illegible] upon where the band had halted. Delaney was kept in spirit up [illegible] company, but as he was anxious to effect the girl's rescue as soon as possible he urged his [illegible] onward. Calling to your [illegible] to proceed to advance to [illegible] the place, [illegible] had to begin when one of the party, who had been [illegible] along one of the trails, [illegible] to Delaney, announcing the find of a small white buckskin [illegible] with the initial letters "A. M." in one corner. This settled at once the needed question, for Delaney knew the delicately embroidered article to be the property of the captive girl.

Late in the afternoon they reached very wild and uneven ground, and the condition of the trail confined them to narrow [illegible] there it was beyond doubt that their enemies had sought to elude a hungry trailing posse to safety. Darkness [illegible] a [illegible] evidence with two or three [illegible].

A slight rain of smoke was discernible arising from a small open space about a half mile [illegible].

To the minds of them would be seen a band of [illegible] redskins [illegible] for mercy, on the [illegible] a considerable stream of water coursed placidly by, while the two [illegible] on opposite sides of the stream [illegible] on [illegible] to their [illegible] through a dense thicket.

Delaney [illegible] to his companions. Plans of [illegible] were discussed, and all were [illegible] to be in favor of [illegible] at once, while [illegible] had fight enough to guide their movements.

As soon as the decision was reached the band was divided, and orders were given for a simultaneous attack from the south and east.

When a sufficient time had elapsed to warrant Delaney in the belief that both bands were ready for the attack, the word was passed for a quick charge. Delaney's band approached from the north and was the first to break cover. The savages, surprised and taken aback, sought to escape in what seemed the only safe direction, [illegible].

After the first onslaught the fight has resolved itself into a hand to hand with knives. Delaney had already singled out the young girl's captor and was fighting hand to hand. Dugout, however, a giant in strength and dexterity, finalled with such bloody [illegible] that, [illegible] the young miner and would no doubt have [illegible] the importance youth had [illegible] of his own, using his danger, [illegible] to his assistance.

The renegade, seeing his disadvantage, turned and fled toward the [illegible] which was toward the river, he reached a rudely constructed wigwam. A moment [illegible] disappeared within. There was a cry of alarm, and he reappeared leading an Indian [illegible] form of the captive girl.

"I will escape you yet!" he [illegible] Delaney, as with a [illegible] of triumph he sprang with his burden from the [illegible] hanging back to the [illegible] home. There was a rush on the [illegible] and his captive struck the water, which was followed [illegible] by a second as Delaney followed his example.

Delaney was the better swimmer and had a decided advantage by being [illegible] unencumbered. He was fast leaving the renegade, who, seeing he could not escape, relied his knife and shouted defiantly: "Shoot! Shoot! Shoot!
