DESERET EVENING NEWS

TODAY'S WEATHER REPORT.

Forecast till 8 p. m. Sunday:

Utah—Fair Sunday; warmer; Monday fair; light to fresh northerly winds.

Salt Lake City—Temperature, maximum, 76.8; minimum, 47.2. No rain, measurable precipitation in last 24 hours. Weather clear.

Local forecast for Salt Lake City and vicinity:

Fair tonight and Sunday. Stationary temperature.

For Utah—Fair tonight and Sunday. Stationary temperature.

For Idaho—Fair tonight and Sunday. Stationary temperature.

WEATHER CONDITIONS.

A storm of considerable intensity is central over southwestern Nebraska, producing some scattered showers in the Lower Lakes, Northern Plains, Southern Rocky Mountains and the upper Mississippi Valley. The weather is cool in the vicinity of the Great Lakes. It is warmer over Southern Nevada and the Mississippi Valley and cooler over Southern Rocky Mountains and western Nebraska.

L. H. MCDONALD,
Station Director.

SEMI-WEEKLY NEWS

PUBLISHED TUESDAYS AND FRIDAYS.

The actual, bona fide circulation of the Semi-Weekly edition of the News, (separate and apart from the daily) was, on the last issue,

13,400 COPIES

The largest circulation of any paper between Denver and the coast. Books open to advertisers.

The following figures give the number of the Semi-Weekly News printed for the first of each month since the paper changed hands on January 1, 1899:

January 1, 1899	10,249
February 1, 1899	10,427
March 1, 1899	10,779
April 1, 1899	11,225
May 1, 1899	11,610
June 1, 1899	12,500
July 1, 1899	12,549
August 1, 1899	12,749
September 15, 1899	13,400

To-day's Metals.

SILVER, Bar, 59
LEAD, 3.40
CASTING COPPER 17 cents a lb.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

The Bible University will open on Monday, when will be repeated the instruction will be given on Tuesday.

Inquiry at the Holy Cross hospital this afternoon brought the reply that James M. H. Prendergast was not worse than he expected yesterday, in the big storm.

Rev. Heber Scott, pastor of the Westminster Presbyterian church, will preach morning and evening on the subjects, "The Society of Higher Education," in which 40 High school and colleges are represented, and "Ichabod."

The members of the Y. M. C. A. will resume their Saturday night "rope" beginning tonight. They will entertain their young guests, the Princes with music, etc., which, by the aid of a rope of sentiment.

Robert Proctor, filed in the Federal court today a writ against the Denver & Rio Grande Western Railroad company for the amount of $10,000 for injuries to employed, on a wreck, which occurred at Salt Lake, September 20th, 1897.

D. C. Hamilton of Lehi and E. T. Bullock of Kanosh are now and will be for some time, in the Kansas City, which they have been hauling in Nevada and Utah. The students were on the train with them from Salt Lake City, made going to Kansas City and Illinois to classes.

Thomas Hitchcock, an old southerner living at 1 Kearney street, brought a pecan tree to the Deseret Museum today. It is to be brought to life. It looked as nothing normal but he had it wrapped. It represents a pecan tree in Alabama and Mr. Hitchcock intends to have the flower opened.

The city clerk wants to now ascertain the number of people who have anything for a break, or damaging the bridges in and use or has been done by the city, and the city clerk will be glad to hear from the public. Publicity is also contained on the matter and returns in this institution will be appreciated by the city clerk.

Postmaster Thomas has forwarded a petition to the postmaster general at Washington from over one thousand of the rural delivery people, asking for a free mail delivery service. It is probable that the service will be established in Utah, and it will be a great convenience to many of people.

The report of the board of health for the week ending September 15, 1899, is as follows: Births, 9; males, 5; females, 4. Deaths, 8; males, 4; females, 4. Number of children born to mothers, 4. Contagious and infectious diseases reported, 3 cases of scarlet fever, 4 of typhoid fever.

Jesse Harlan, a young lawyer of 108 E. Fifth South street, was with a public spirited spirit, and with a public spirit of the Southern Pacific, taking with him one of the men who assisted a tramp off of the train at Ogden, and he was in the ending problem by throwing up the fresh offending a cut down from which he was thrown off the train. The tramp was not injured, but was shaken up considerably. The men who had assisted the tramp off the train, said passengers for the injuries.

Dorsey Jones of Wilson, one of the city's big farmers, was in the city today. He was issued the first permit of the Utah Wool Growers' association, of the Utah Livestock association in this city, having been appointed by the association to be the agent for Salt Lake and surrounding territory. Mr. Jones is a big sheep man, and was one of the subscribers to the association. He has been in the business for years, and is well and favorably known in the business.

Mrs. Wilson, the proprietor of the Wilson hotel, 1 Commercial, is the guest of the Wilson hotel, 1 Commercial, is the guest of the Wilson hotel, 1 Commercial, is the guest