District Court Matters.

Yesterday the Fourth district court was occupied mainly in hearing the damage suit placed against the Southern Pacific Railway company by A. H. Nelson as administrator of the estate of Charles Nelson, deceased. The suit is brought to recover damages to the sum of $25,000 for the death of said Charles Nelson, who was killed last January while in the act of performing his duty as brakeman. The case is being closely contested on both sides, and was not concluded yesterday evening when court adjourned for the day.

The jury, which had been out since 5 o'clock Monday, agreed upon a verdict in the Perry C. Westcott against the Norwich Union Fire Insurance company. The plaintiff was allowed $950 of the $2000 for which he sued. Decedents were given thirty days in which to prepare and serve statement on motion for a new trial.

On motion the case against Hale J. Rasmussen and John J. Jones were dismissed.

The grand jury came into court during the day and returned an indictment against Jesus Canono, a patriot, for larceny. Canono was arraigned and plead not guilty. Trial was set for November 27.

County Commissioners Convene.

The regular session of the county court met yesterday when the following business was transacted.

Thomas Hodge and thirty-seven others petitioned for an appropriation of $500 to improve the road from Pleasant View to the Hot Springs. Referred to committee. Monthly.

J. L. Foy and others asked that $1000 be appropriated for the repair of roads in Huntsville.

Two hundred dollars was appropriated to dig a drain on the north side of the Plain city road.

The county treasurer reported $20,818 in the treasury, and that there were outstanding warrants to the amount of $17,390.19.

The following resolution was introduced by Selectman Waggoner: Resolved, That the county collector is hereby instructed and required to designate upon county warrants by him received in payment of taxes the date upon which such warrants are presented to him and by him accepted for taxes. Carried.

After allowing a number of bills court adjourned for one week.

A Foundling.

A. L. White, the railroad conductor, was startled on Monday night by coming the cry of an infant at his front door. On opening the door there lay a child of three or four weeks old, carefully wrapped up. No one was near who could inform him as to how the babe came there. Mr. White modestly took up the little waif and bore it into the house, where it will no doubt receive good attention. Later on going to the door a bundle of clothing suitable for the little one was discovered. The mother had evidently seen the social reception tendered the babe and had returned with the clothing.

Inquest Held.

The coroner's jury met at Lindquist's undertaking parlors yesterday and investigated the cause of Hubert Hayes' sudden death. Nothing new developed in the inquiry and a verdict of accidental shooting by himself was rendered. A further examination of the papers and contents of the safe in the car occupied by Hayes brought out the fact that business was not in good condition.

The deceased is a nephew of Judge Hallett, of Denver, to whom his remains will be shipped for interment.

PROVO.

PROVO, UTAH. - NOV. 22, 1893.

District Court Matters.

The November term of the First district court is now in session.

George Davis and William Harris, two of the gang who robbed the Lehi coop, were arrested in Whitehall-Doer pleas of not guilty of grand larceny and plead guilty to petit larceny. They were sentenced to four months in the county jail.

Mary E. Webster took judgment by default against Mark Jones et al for $1,251.05, attorney fees, $250.

An injunction was granted restraining School District No. 5, Juab county, from collecting a school tax from the Bullion-Beck & Champion Mining company.

The case of the People vs J. M. Harrington was continued.

E. H. Brownell was tried on the charge of stealing a watch chain from a Mr. Anderson at Fort Duchesne on May 2d of the present year. The jury after entry into a short time returned a verdict of not guilty, and Brownell was the recipient of a hearty embrace from his wife.

The case of the People vs Albert Collins, assault upon the person of Hyrum Hyde, with intent to kill, which was tried at the last term of court, but in which the jury failed to agree, was the next for trial. The assault is alleged to have been committed in Eureka on April 1, 1893. A full report of the case was given in the NEWS at the time of the former trial.

After His "Pal."

At the time of the trial of young Wilkins, of Nephi, on the charge of robbing the mails, the evidence showed that he was an accomplice by Judge Smith and Judge Jacob, that Wilkins probably had an accomplice. He is now removed to officer claims that the accomplice has been apprehended, and it is expected he will be arrested within a few days.

Notes.

The tax receipts of Juneville for the present year, as reported by the collector, are $20,115.88. The city recorder's financial statement of the past year shows $27,[illegible] total receipts, and $21,[illegible] disbursements, with warrants outstanding to $1,[illegible] in circulation.

Two tramps are in the county jail awaiting trial in the charge of robbing the Marsh Creek.
