

PROVO.

PROVO, UTAH, MAY 18, 1906.

"INDUSTRIAL" HANGOVERS.

One Man who Says His Life was Tarnished—Other Items.

Wednesday afternoon a man who gave his name as Louis Smith came over from Springville with Deputy Sheriff Hall. He was placed under arrest by City Marshal Smith, of Springville, Utah, morning, on the charge of carrying concealed weapons. Smith was a member of the Industrial "army" and was pointed out by "Industrial" (theater) Miller in the Springville office as a man who carried concealed weapons and also as a man who "knew too much" and one whom the "army" would have to get rid of. The deputy who arrested him, upon his arrest he was taken to the city jail in Springville and after a short detention, he was taken to the city jail in Provo. He was held by the Industrial army and kept in the Industrial camp and kept in the Industrial camp and kept in the Industrial camp. He was held by the Industrial army and kept in the Industrial camp and kept in the Industrial camp. He was held by the Industrial army and kept in the Industrial camp and kept in the Industrial camp.

Two young men left Provo last evening on a R. G. W. freight, out intending to join the army. It is understood that Callahan the officer called, is organizing the men who have left in squads over the R. G. W. for Colorado, where Callahan now is. It is said that Callahan's plan was to send the "army" out in squads, and giving the name of each squad some money so the men might be able to eat in case of need. He failed to maintain it at any point. His intention was to gather the men at one point and go on, and if necessary, again attempt to meet at another point along the line of march. Callahan wanted to handle all the funds.

MORE DAMAGE SUITS.

Proceedings to Secure Cash from Salt Lake Canal Company.

J. C. Leatham, for himself and four other residents of Lake Shore, Utah county, whose claims have been assigned to Mr. Leatham, has filed a suit in the First district court, against the Salt Lake City and the several canal companies of that lake county taking water from the Utah lake. The plaintiff alleges that he has been damaged in amount of over $100,000 through the filing of the water in Utah lake by defendants. Mr. Leatham also alleges that he has been damaged in amount of over $100,000 through the filing of the water in Utah lake by defendants. Mr. Leatham also alleges that he has been damaged in amount of over $100,000 through the filing of the water in Utah lake by defendants.

The Provo Lake Reclamation company has commenced suit against the same defendants for damages in the hands of the company from the same cause and ask for $2,437.50 damages and costs. Mr. Leatham also has this case.

Price Bros., of Juarez county, have filed a suit against the Utah Water Reclamation Co. for $2,000, claimed to be due them for work. Williams, Van Cleft & Holladay are attorneys for plaintiffs.

Notes.

Jeffery Lewis plays at the opera house this evening and tomorrow evening.

The railroad eating house caught fire yesterday morning through a defective fuse. The fire was put out before the fire department appeared on the ground, although they made quick time.

A number of Texans have been in town lately. They came to select a suitable place in Utah for establishing a number of their friends from Texas. The southern portion of the Territory was finally decided upon as the most suitable place, and they have departed for that section.

Wm. A. Holladay, a former resident of Provo, now living near Highland, Juarez county, is said to be very ill and not expected to live. His father, J. C. Leatham, is attorney for plaintiffs.

THE PRICE OF IT.

Oh, there is the rub in these hard times. But consider what you save in so many ways. How you expedite your business, do quickly an errand or attend to some duty with little loss of time that might otherwise be required. Think of the cases you have gone home and been torn by the wear of your boots with the double sole. How you save your feet and your health by the use of the double sole. How you save your feet and your health by the use of the double sole.

"Stearns" "Yellow Fellow" 15 lbs.—A Racer.

The racer. The only racer. The only to arrive at it in it. The only racer that is in it and has it as—fourteen—14—miles' records. Tallest that you have seen a racer that has not got in the front.

As a whole. A splendid machine for high-weights or heavy weights. Backs don't have to get on their feet.
