Estate of Sarah A. Easton, deceased. R. H. Easton appointed administrator on filing a bond of $600. Order made appointing appraisers.

AMUSEMENTS.

ROBERT DOWNING drew another fine audience at the Theater last evening and the applause and appreciation were as marked as ever. Added zest was given the attraction through the fact that a local wrestler entered the lists, and was only mastered by the professional after a very severe bouts. There is talk of Mr. Downing's stopping here on his return and personating Richard the Lion Hearted.

ELIMIN is the next attraction at the Theater. He appears for two nights preparatory to going on a tour, and without doubt he will be given a handsome "send off."

OGDEN.

OGDEN, UTAH, - OCT. 18, 1894.

After the Forger.

W. B. Brown, sheriff of Kingfisher county, Oklahoma, who arrived in Ogden with requisition papers to take back Ernest M. Coleman, on a charge of embezzlement, has departed. Coleman is known in Ogden as Edward Chase. In June last he forged a check on Richard J. Ross, and also tried to cash a worthless check at another place. He was arrested, and not being able to give bail, was sent to the penitentiary. A letter found upon his person advising him to go to a more populous town, detectives were upon his track, was the clue that led to connecting him with the embezzlement of $1,000 while book keeper for the Foster Lumber company of Pawnee City, Oklahoma. Sheriff Brown left with his prisoner last night.

Notes.

In the case of John L. Farrel, tried on the charge of cattle stealing, the jury brought in a verdict of not guilty.

Taxes become delinquent on October 15th. Up to the present only about ten per cent has been paid in this county.

A marriage license was issued to Kile J. Amstead, 27, of Ogden, and Mary A. Guinn, 25, of Harrisville.

A boy about 11 years old was brought in from Evanston on last night's train to the U. P. hospital, having been run over by the switch engine. Both feet probably will be lost.

PROVO.

PROVO, UTAH, - OCT. 18, 1894.

First District Court.

The following business was transacted in the First district court yesterday.

Dr. Julius Hamberg was fined $25 in Judge King's court, for selling liquor at his drug store without a license. He was found guilty in the justice's court and appealed the case. Defendant did not deny selling the liquor, but said he sold it for medicine, and all the evidence was to that effect. He believes he had a right to do this. The case will be appealed.

The case of the People vs Larry King et al was called. Defendants were not present, nor represented, and a jury was called and instructed to give a verdict for the plaintiffs, which they did. The case grew out of the once famous Wilmore gold brick swindle, and was a suit for the recovery of $1,000, on a bond given for the appearance of Larry, who was indicted for obtaining money under false pretenses. Larry failed to appear and the bond was declared forfeited. The judgment obtained yesterday was against Lawrence King, Lettie A. Kelly and Henry W. Hoxsie.

Gilbert Leach, a ten-year-old boy from Springville, was ordered committed to the reform school, there to remain until he arrives at the age of 21 years unless sooner discharged in due form of law. The complaint was made by George A. Slater, city marshal of Springville, who charges incorrigibility and general vicious conduct. One peculiar form his viciousness takes is a desire to wreck trains and he has been caught in the act of throwing switches several times on the R. G. W. railway. His excuse was that he wanted to see the engine jump off the track. The boy is very small for his age. His mother was in court and declared that she could not control the child.

This morning the case of John B. Hilmer vs George W. Jacques came up for trial. Plaintiff sues for $1,100 and interest on a promissory note given on the 16th of July, 1892. The note is not in the possession of plaintiff, but it is admitted that the note was given. Defendant, however, claims that the note was given with the understanding that he should not be an maker, but simply sign a mortgage on certain real estate to secure the note, and if it was found to be illegal then the note was to be returned to defendant and the contract between the parties, which the note was given to settle, should remain as annul for plaintiff.

The case of R. Buchmer vs Jos. Woolhamer was continued for the term.

James D. Powers vs Thos J. Caldwell, continued till October 25th, upon defendant paying plaintiff $15.

W. W. Evans vs H. F. Johnson et al, continued for the term.

Jesse G. W. Clopper, of Deseret, was excused for the term on account of the illness of his wife.

An order was made for four witnesses to be subpoenaed at the expense of the Territory in the case of the People vs Mahlon Dun and Tom Morgan, charged with assault with intent to commit murder.

The case of Dennis Sullivan vs H. Kohl was dismissed at plaintiff's costs.

The case of Mr. Elmer, of Pleasant Grove, bound over to await the action of the grand jury on a charge of assault with a deadly weapon was dismissed.

Notes and Personal.

Will Caine, of Springville, will have a hearing before U. S. Commissioner Dunding this afternoon on a charge of larceny, claimed to have been committed with Kate Anderson of the same town.

Chris Jensen and Sidney Bird paid a fine of $10 each yesterday for unlawful setting to Utah Lake.

The following marriage licenses have been issued: Thomas N. Kirkwood and Sarah J. Whitehead, J. Durant and Josephine J. Peay, all of Provo; William L. Wersendorf, of Payson, and Elizabeth John, of Provo.

The following justices of the peace and constables were nominated at the Democratic precinct primaries last evening: Justices of the peace, Jacob Evans and Henry Kruger; constables, John R. Stubbs and A. C. Johnson.

SUPPORT HOME INDUSTRY.

THESE ARE THE PEOPLE WHO SELL HOME MADE GOODS

THEY BUILD UP UTAH and are entitled to the support of the people. By dealing with the merchants who give preference in the sale of Home Made goods, you help the Home Industry cause. You help to give employment to worthy people; you help to keep money at home, which circulates in our midst and you get back a part of that money again in your business or profession. Keep this in mind, every dollar expended for Utah made goods, means more employment for home labor; every dollar expended for goods manufactured elsewhere, means employment for somebody living elsewhere, and whose interests are generally not with us. "Charity begins at home." This is a time for both common sense and patriotism.
