Then in the evening, came the theaters. Following the usual custom, there were no matinees held on Deco-ration day. Only the various moving ration day. Only the various moving picture shows held open house during the day time. In the evening, how-ever, the attendance at the play-houses was heavy, and was com-prised in the greater part of that por-tion of the population who did not visit the resorts. No accident of any seri-ousness marred the pleasure of the day, present even being observed on all pubespecial care being observed on all pub-lic carriers to provide for the safety and comfort of the traveling public. The crowd at Saltah was perhaps the largest for the resorts. All the 311 Hooper Blk. attractions of the lake were in opera-tion, except the big ship cafe, which was not entirely completed for yester-day's opening. However, the lower deck of the ship cafe was in running order, and accommodated thousands of guests. CROWDS BIG AND ORDERLY.

At Wandamere the attendance was doubel that of the opening day last year. Five thousand people disported themselves in the various amusement places of this pretty resort, most of them taking advantage of the opening of the new "scenic" line, said to be the to the new scence line, said to be the longest in the world, and covering half a mile of country. Dancing was also indulged in during the evening. The crowds at Lagoon were big and orderly. Not the slightest thing oc-the cool, breeze swept mountain road leading down to the resort.

The cars were kept busy hauling peo ple to the races. The attendance and the events at the race track were up to the standard, and are fully described elsewhere in this paper. Liberty park was crowded with picnic parties, and with children. The music parties, and with children. The music was enjoyable and those seeking a quiet day were found on the green lawris urlyer the grateful shade of the trees in Liberty park. The Country club was the center of attraction for hundreds of people. The tennis courts were occupied for the greater part of the day and many an auto party made the Country club its meeca for the afternoon of Decora-tion day.

In fact, it was a day, the like of which there are few in the record of the year. It was a day of hillowed
