MUCH LAND LEFT.

Fifty Thousand Acres of the Uncompahgre Reservation To Open for Entry.

The Indian division of the interior department, says the Denver Times in a Washington special, has for some time been wrestling with various problems in connection with the allotment of lands to the Uncompahgre Ute Indians in Utah. It was soon discovered that after all these Indians had been settled upon the territory set apart for them in Utah, there would still be a large tract of land remaining unoccupied. A great many people in western Colorado and in Utah wished this land opened to settlement or entry, but the officials of the department at first did not desire to do this.

After considering the matter, however, they have come to the conclusion that as this land cannot be allotted to the Indians, as the Uncompahgres have already received their full allotment of land, and the land is also not agricultural, that certain portions of it might just as well be thrown open to entry. Several large tracts of the reservation are known to be rich in deposits of asphalt, which has come to be such an important factor in street paving, and it is also believed that there are deposits of minerals of different kinds.

The secretary of the interior has decided to recommend to the President that a proclamation be issued opening about 60,000 acres of their reservation to settlement, or rather to entry, as the land is said to be valueless except for its asphalt and mineral products.

No date has yet been fixed on for opening this land to entry and the matter has not been brought to the attention of the President at all. Some action will be taken, however, to a very short time. The land to be thus thrown open lies in the north-eastern corner of the reservation.

Failed to Spray Fruit Trees.

Fred C. Pike, fruit tree inspector, had before Justice Harvey late yesterday afternoon Chas. N. Peterson and Ed. Hughes, for failing to disinfect their fruit trees. They were assessed, including costs, $5 each.

Chamber of Commerce Reception.

A reception night at the Chamber of Commerce last night and the management of the institution is congratulating itself that it was a very pleasant occasion. The board of directors, President Bacon and Secretary Cutcum were kept busy in receiving their guests. There was more room for visitors last night than at any other time in the history of the chamber, and besides there had been a general renovation. The various departments were artistically decorated with flowers. There was stirring music by Hall's First Regiment band and refreshments served by a bevy of prominent young ladies.

PATRIOTIC OBSERVANCE.

Anniversary of the Battle of Bunker Hill Celebrated at the Knutsford Last Night.

There was a patriotic and pleasant observance of the one hundred and twentieth anniversary of the battle of Bunker Hill at the Knutsford last night under the auspices of the Utah society of the Sons of the American Revolution.

The society was organized early in the present year. Its officers are as follows: President, General W. H. Penrose; vice president, Judge S. A. Merritt; secretary, Ledyard M. Bailey; treasurer, Hoyt Sherman Jr.; chaplain, Rev. D. R. Lowell; historian, Charles C. Goodwin; board of managers, Nat M. Brigham, General A. J. Weisbury, Dr. William W. Betts, Dr. George H. Penrose, Lieutenant W. K. Wright. The other members of the society are Dr. S. Ewing, W. S. Ferris, Dr. J. C. Elliott King, M. L. Ritchie, Dr. E. S. Wright, George R. Matthews, E. D. Lewis, Lieutenant J. F. Proctor, J. P. Rooks, E. H. Scott, F. A. Beacham, Dan N. Swan.

Those who were present at last night's affair were, General and Mrs. W. H. Penrose, Governor West, George M. Scott, Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Salisbury, Judge and Mrs. C. C. Goodwin, Chaplain and Mrs. D. R. Lowell, Dr. David Utley, Dr. and Mrs. S. Ewing, Mrs. Andrews, Dr. and Mrs. Ridgeway, Mr. and Mrs. Merrill, Mr. Eugene Lewis, Mr. William D. Neal, Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Bailey, Lieutenant and Mrs. W. K. Wright, Dr. George H. Penrose, Dr. William Winthrop Betts.

The Nineteenth Infantry band discoursed patriotic airs in the rotunda of the hotel while the guests were gathering. At the banqueting board speeches were made by General Penrose, Judge Goodwin, Dr. Utley, Dr. Ewing, Governor West and Chaplain Lowell.

Persons eligible to membership in the society must either be descendants of the patriots who upheld their country's cause in the tumultuous times of revolutionary days, or who signed the Declaration of Independence, who were members of the continental congress, colonial legislature or civil officers of the colonies or of the national government.

The highest character of Dr. Price's Baking Powder is the fruit of forty years' growth.

Sunday School Meeting.

The monthly meeting of Sunday school officers and teachers of the Salt Lake Stake was held as usual at the Fourteenth ward assembly hall, on Monday evening, the 17th inst.

Assistant Supt. H. S. Horne presided at the meeting. The musical exercises were rendered by the Taylorville choir, led by Bro. Arthur Evans Jr.

Representatives were present from eighteen of the city and five of the country schools.

The superintendency of the Nineteenth ward Sabbath school, according to previous invitation, furnished the evening's program.

The superintendent of the school, John N. Pike, stated that as a special subject for the anniversary of the birth of President Brigham Young the officers of his school had decided to review the most prominent events in the life of this great man. But as the quarterly conference of the Stake was held on the Sabbath appointed for this review it was postponed; and the officers of the school decided to present the exercises prepared for that occasion this evening. The Nineteenth ward school, Supt. Pike stated, was a new one, as it was only three years since the ward was divided, and since that time many changes had taken place with the teachers.

The first intermediate class of the Nineteenth ward school, under the direction of one of the teachers, Sister Elizabeth Farnes, related a number of incidents in the boyhood of President Young.

The second intermediate department in charge of Brother George W. Willes followed with a continuation of the subject, relating further incidents in the early life of President Young. The teacher explained that a number of the incidents the classes related were not recorded in history; that the teachers had obtained them from Elder Lorenzo D. Young, a brother to the late President.

The choir sang an anthem, following which the theological class of the Nineteenth ward school, under the direction of Brother Joseph H. Dean, presented the leading incidents in the life of Brigham Young from the time of his embracing the Gospel to the date of his death. Miss Ethel Pike related the prominent events of his life from the time of his first hearing the Gospel to the time he was ordained an Apostle. Miss Nellie Reynolds related an account of his first mission to England. Brother Fred Dorbidge followed with a brief account of the actions of the Utah Pioneers immediately after arriving in the valley. Brother Eddie Pike gave a few of the incidents during the Buchanan war. William T. Edward concluded with incidents in the latter part of President Young's life, and an account of his death.

Superintendent John Alford, of the Nineteenth ward, related a dream which Brother Lorenzo D. Young had in his youth concerning his brother Brigham and the reminder of his father's family, and added another incident to those already related concerning the early life of the Prophet Brigham Young.

The exercises presented by the three classes gave a good practical illustration of how a subject might be made interesting to the several grades of students, as the incidents related and the questions answered by the several classes were such as could be comprehended by the members of those classes, and were also of such a character as would attract interest in the minds of the people.

The Twenty-first Ward school was invited to supply a program for the next meeting, to be held on the third Monday in July.

The Eleventh ward choir was also requested to furnish the musical exercises on that occasion.

The choir sang an anthem and the meeting adjourned. Benediction by Supt. Richard Horne.

E. F. PARRY, Assistant Secretary.

THE EVENT OF THE SEASON.

A Sight Never Before Witnessed in the Territory.

All fruit raisers are talking about the contemplated mammoth exhibit of Utah grown fruits, principally berries, to be held at Calder's Park for three days commencing June 19th. The Salt Lake Horticultural society have already a big list of entries all on one intent best, namely, that of carrying off some of the many liberal prizes offered for the best exhibits of fruits, vegetables and flowers. Mr. C. C. Merrill, of Calder's Park, realizes he has a large contract on hand to entertain the numerous throngs that will crowd that popular resort daily during the great show, nevertheless he is prepared to handle them and incidentally provide a liberal and entertaining program consisting of music, dancing, horseriding, etc., etc. Men are now busy erecting booths and marquees to hold the exhibits. Another feature will be that each day the fruit will be sold and fresh substituted in its place, as all will of necessity be extra superfine. Ladies will have an opportunity of securing the best grade obtainable for bottling and preserving. Come one, come all, and bring your friends to Calder's Park on June 19, 20, 21. Admission 25 cents, with a free ball every evening.

Agreeably Surprised.

"I had a very severe cold on my lungs that caused much soreness and gave me considerable uneasiness in regard to the result," says Mr. F. E. Smith, of Hillsdale, Mich. "A local druggist called my attention to Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and on his recommendation I gave the remedy a careful trial. The result surprised me; I recovered entirely in three days." 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by druggists.
