DIED THIS MORNING.

Hon. Clarence W. Hall Surrenders the Reins of Life

AFTER A MONTH'S ILLNESS.

A Special Election Will Probably Have to Be Called to Fill His Vacancy in the Legislature.

After an illness extending over a period of one month, Justice of the Peace Clarence W. Hall breathed his last shortly before 7 o'clock this morning at the family residence, 451 south second West street, the immediate cause of death being typhoid fever. For the last two days the attending physicians, Drs. Fowler and Markham, had given no hope of recovery, though his relatives did not seem to realize that the end was so near. From the time of the attack the fever abated but slightly, and during the second week of his sickness Mr. Hall suffered a relapse, consequent upon a cold, and pneumonia was feared, but the doctors succeeded in warding off. Last evening the patient appeared to be a little brighter, but during the night the wanderer on the bourne saw increased cause for anxiety. He gradually sank and passed peacefully away at the time above mentioned. He was about twenty-five years of age and leaves a widow and three children, two boys and a girl, the eldest of whom will also be—is in his fourth year.

General regret is felt among a wide circle of friends of the deceased at his early death. In legal circles he had a host of warm sympathizers, and by them all he was highly esteemed. The general sympathy is expressed for the surviving wife and other relatives.

The date of the funeral has not yet been quite settled.

Mr. Hall was a Democrat in national politics but affiliated with the Liberals in local affairs and was recently chosen by them as representative from the Fifth Representative district, to sit in the Territorial Legislature which convenes in this city next month. He should leave a vacancy that will have to be filled either by appointment or by a special election. It is probable that the latter method will be resorted to as the law seems to be pretty clear on that point.

Surveyor Hall was spoken to by a NEWS representative this afternoon in regard to the matter, and said: "My present impression is that I will, under the law, have to call a special election in section 220, page 327 of the Compiled Laws of Utah provides. The section reads as follows:

"In case of the death, resignation, or other disability of any Territorial officer once elective in this Territory it shall be the duty of the Governor, within ten days after receiving notice of the death, resignation or other disability of such officer to call a special election in the territory or district where such vacancy shall have occurred, for the purpose of filling the same.

Land Office.

D. E. Dorley, the Union Pacific passenger agent in this city, had business with the land office today. He is proposed to figure as the owner of 320 acres of land near Deseret, Millard county. He will reclaim it from the present desert condition with irrigating water from the Great Lake Deseret canals. The filing made by him is on the west half of section 35, township 26 south, range 9 west.

Prescott T. Moss, of Salt Lake City, made homestead entry of the west half of the northwest quarter and the southwest quarter of the northwest quarter of section 32, township 1 north, range 2 east, subject to right of way for the Utah & Wyoming railway.

Emil B. Zachrison, of Salt Lake City, made homestead entry of the east half of the southwest quarter and the west half of the southeast quarter of section 29, township 2 south, range 4 west.

ANOTHER BIG RABBIT HUNT.

Arrangements for a Party of 100 to go out to Cedar Fort.—The Game Will Go to the Fair.

Arrangements are now being made for a party of 100 sportsmen to leave this city on a Union Pacific special over the Salt Lake Western about the 15th inst. for a day's rabbit hunt near Cedar Fort.

Those wishing to go will call at Browning Bros. gun store and leave their names. The main object of the excursion is to kill rabbits for distribution among the poor. The latter work will be undertaken by the Relief Society who are requested to have bags and coupons at the depot to hand away the trophies of their guns. It is estimated that at least 2000 rabbits will be bagged.

Social Gathering.

A merry gathering took place last evening at the Manitou, the occasion being a party in honor of the Cannon girls, who are made up of young ladies of the City High school. The invitations were issued by Professors Anderson and Allen, at the school to return for a party given those gentlemen several weeks ago. Those present last evening were the members of the Cannon club, the high school corps of teachers, students of the third and fourth years, and all pupils of the Bee hive second year who are members of the dancing under the direction of the two named gentlemen. The music was quite elaborate, and after the exercises were over, dancing was resumed to the following program: The Cannon Club, Ray Hemingway, The Bee Hives, Addie Zeller, The Fifth Ward Committee, Rosie Parsons, Outlaws, Fred Sayer, The Faculty, Addie Remington, Class reminiscences, Lee Judd. The toasts were proposed by President W. H. Maloney, who was responded to by Prof. Anderson, as toastmaster for the occasion.

Before closing, Prof. Stubbs was called upon and made some happy little speeches of the sort, which were heartily enjoyed. President Maloney also added much to the success of the occasion by distributing candy to his pupils. About seventy-five persons were present, and the gathering was a most enjoyable one.

Methodist Sunday Schools.

Eighth annual territorial Sunday school convention of the Methodist church was held in Ogden last night. There was a very good attendance in spite of the miserable weather. The Union Pacific train was late, and several of those billed to take part in the exercises could not be present. The opening song and prayer service was led by Rev. Jos. M. Reese, of Kaysville. Prof. J. Ja Rees, of Ogden, made any appointed and enjoyed address of welcome to which Prof. L. N. Smith, of Springville, also responded. Dr. S. P. Widtsoe, of Ogden, delivered an excellent address of "Bible Study." Prof. John A. Bright made a brief address which was highly appreciated. The address during was delivered by Rev. Ewing, of Ogden, after which a general handshaking and social good time ended the session.

Elders' Meeting.

The regular monthly meeting of the Second Quorum of Elders will take place next Monday evening at the church in the Tenth Ward meeting house.

Wayne Stake.

Minutes of the Wayne Stake conference, held at Lot, Wayne county, Nov. 25 and 26, 1891, Elder W. L. Robinson, President of the Stake, presiding. There were present on the stand Elders F. M. Lyman, of the Council of Apostles; H. H. Roberts, of the First Council of Seventies; W. H. Cluff and Thomas A. Humphrey, of the Stake Presidency; also Patriarchs, High Councilors and Bishops.

After the usual opening exercises, President W. L. Robinson reported that the local ministry had held ward conferences throughout the Stake during the past three months. Teachers in the various wards were actively engaged visiting among the people, all organizations in good working order, and the Stake is a flourishing condition.

Elder F. M. Lyman said he was very pleased with the report. He gave some timely instructions to the Presidency of the Stake and Bishops of wards relative to their duties.

Elder H. H. Roberts addressed the congregation upon the present organization of the Church of Christ. He also spoke at length upon the power of home to if order.

At 2 p. m. the general and Stake authorities were sustained by the people.

Elder W. D. Cluff spoke interestingly upon the necessity of religious culture, and manifestly exploited their meetings. He showed the object to be the education of Saints in morals, manners and the principles of the Gospel.

Elder Thomas A. Humphrey spoke upon the necessity of executing both to the laws of God, and bore testimony to the divine mission of the Prophet Joseph Smith.

Patriarch Banks reported his labors and promised the people if they would follow the counsel of the Priesthood and Twelve Apostles they would never want for bread.

Patriarch Elias H. Blanchard also made a repetition to invoke the blessings of God on all assembled.

Councilor Hans M. Hansen said he came to this valley when there was little else than sagebrush and unoccupied land. He had lived to see the fulfilment of the promises of the servants of God relative to the development of the valley. He exhorted the Saints to continue in the way of peace and truth.

Counsel Gustave B. Eastes emphasized the report given by President Robinson, and encouraged the Saints to live pure lives.

The following wards were reported as being in good condition: Calmeville, by Bishop Walter Banks; Lot, by Bishop D. F. Brown, Fremont, by Bishop H. E. Mayfield, Thurber, by Bishop Wm. Meeks, and Blue Valley, by Bishop H. J. Wilson.

A Priesthood meeting was held in the evening. Elder F. M. Lyman occupied the time discoursing upon the Priesthood. A great many questions were propounded by the counsel, all of which were answered satisfactorily by Elder Lyman.

On Sunday morning F. W. Young reported that the home missionaries were very zealous and were doing a good work. He was anxious to get the High Priests' quorum in good working order.

Elder C. W. Lee reported Teasdale ward in good condition. East Loa ward was reported by Bishop Peter J. Christensen to be in a flourishing condition.

The remainder of the morning was occupied by Elder B. H. Roberts in a discourse upon the fundamentals of the gospel. In the course of his remarks the speaker very forcibly demonstrated that the end of all preaching is to increase faith, and that the science of religion is right-living.

During the interval between morning and afternoon meetings, a Sunday School meeting was held at which the portion of the Priesthood were instructed in their duties by Elder H. H. Roberts, and a number of Elders were ordained Seventies.

In the afternoon sacrament was administered by Bishops Wm. Meeks and Walter Banks. The time was occupied by Elder F. M. Lyman, who discoursed with power upon the subjects of Priesthood, latter-day Saints and tithing. His remarks were full of instruction. He promised the people if they would serve God by paying an honest tithing, the Lord would be bound for their sake and the earth would yield its abundance for the benefit of all. The people endeavored by uplifted hands that they would be the children of Elder Lyman. The speaker closed by invoking God's blessing upon the Wayne Stake of Zion.

Conference adjourned for three months.

A meeting was held in the evening under the auspices of the Y. M. M. I. A., which a crowded audience was addressed by Elder H. H. Roberts to the young, urging upon the responsibility resting on each man and woman, and encouraging the youth with a view to improve in the Father's short spiling. The speaker dwelt upon the Word of Wisdom, and showed that the voice of science is in accordance with the voice of God in saying that narcotics are not good for the body.

All meetings were fully attended.

JOSEPH E. TAYLOR,
Stake Clerk.

ALL READY IN WASHINGTON.

The "Small" Congressional Notes Preparations and Makes a Forecast.

Special Correspondence of the News.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 2.—Preparations about the capital for the few weeks of Congress have been completed. The great building has been thoroughly swept and garnished, and furniture repaired and varnished, new carpets laid here and there, paint applied where needed and everything is now ready for the opening next Monday.

The President's message is completed and is guarded with unusual caution not some prying newspaper should anticipate its delivery. It will be given out to the morning papers Monday.

Members are slow in getting in, not nearly so numerous as by the roll call on Monday.

Great interest is felt as to the forthcoming announcement of the administration's policy on Hawaiian affairs.

There is a widely prevalent feeling that the condition of the country makes the present session one of extreme importance and stamed not of party prospects all round. C. H.

The Sequel to an Accident.

Readers of the NEWS will remember the account of an accident which happened to this paper about three months ago, in which Mr. and Mrs. Nott of the Eleventh Ward at the time, figured as victims. The accident occurred to Mutchfield carpenter and was the result of Mr. and Mrs. Nott being attacked by hornets while berry picking. The lady had the misfortune to break one of her legs and was taken to Mutchfield in the wagon as part of the money for treatment. The fracture seems to entirely heal, and tomorrow Dr. Pinkerton and Meeks will operate again in the removal of a piece of bone.

The lady's many friends sympathize with her, and trust that her recovery may be speedy and permanent.

HOW CROMIN WAS KILLED.

A Sensation Promised When the Testimony Begins.

The Wife of One of the Participants Promises to Give Her Husband's Full Confession.

CHICAGO, Dec. 2.—An afternoon paper publishes a sensational story to the effect that when the stage of taking testimony in the Coughlin case for the murder of Dr. Cronin arrives, Mrs. Andrew Fog of whose husband's house the plot was alleged to have been perfected, will go on the stand and make a circumstantial statement of the to be so confessed to her by her husband concerning to the motive. It is alleged her story will be to the effect that Coughlin was the prime mover in the assassination and Alfred Dinkin's office house which drew Cronin to his death; that Burke rented the Carlson cottage in which the murder was committed and had Conlon write the notes which lured Cronin to the cottage; that Patrick O'Sullivan, the hackman, at his part, made arrangements for Dr. Cronin's reception whenever he reported one of O'Sullivan's cards; that James Cannon rented the place at 117 Clark street, where the furniture afterwards taken to the Carlson cottage was first taken; that Patrick Cronin, a cousin-layer, is the man who did the actual killing, beating out Cronin's life with a carpenter's chisel; that Martin Dorsey, of Hackmen, Mich., drove Cronin with Joe Wade home to the Carlson cottage where the murder was committed; that Jas. McKerna drew the wagon which hauled Cronin's body away from the cottage; that a man, name not given, now a city policeman, held the door while the murder was committed and that two others were connected with the plot.

Want to Settle the Strike.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., Dec. 2.—It is reported that a number of the stockholders of the Lehigh Valley road will go to Bethlehem to confer with President Wilbur, with a view to issuing an order for the desirability of settling the strike, feeling if the weeks continue the company will be forced into bankruptcy. The settlers show no signs of weakening.

Fate Unknown.

RIO JANEIRO, Dec. 2.—The rebel fort Villegagnon has been almost entirely destroyed by the fire of the government fort. It is reported the government are gaining ground in the province of Rio Pan.

Two More Anarchists.

MILAN, Dec. 2.—It now transpires that the two men killed in the railroad accident between Sesto and Venice were young Italians returning from the United States.

A sailing filled entered the Fulton restaurant at San Francisco on Wednesday, while the proprietor was in the kitchen, and decking behind the counter, made off with ten money drawer and 30 minutes. The theft was reported to the police, but the sin checked the thief sufficiently enough to give a good start of 24 hours.

Near La Jara, in the San Luis valley, Colo., a farmer named John Blackwell, this year raised 3,000 bushels of Lawson flax and chilli wheat, averaging fifty bushels to the acre. He commenced raising in the San Luis valley 7 years ago on a few hundred dollars capital, now he is worth $15,000, the result of wheat raising.
