
The season of fasting and penance and social sacrifice is well under way and the result is a still greater depletion of the social record. Among those who do not observe the Lenten season have been a few delightful affairs, but even here there has been an appreciable diminution, the list being smaller than any previous week for months past.

An announcement which will come in the nature of a surprise to their many friends is that of the marriage of Miss Clara Hawkins of this city and Mr. Lewis Hobart Sweetser of Idaho, which was quietly solemnized on Saturday, Feb. 16. The bride is well and popularly known in Salt Lake, and has for several years held a position of trust in the United States surveyor general's office, where her services have been most efficient. She was educated at the Salt Lake academy, and has many relatives among the prominent families of Utah. Her father, now in Idaho, was one of the Utah pioneers. The groom, a well known stockman of Idaho, was born in San Francisco. He attended the University of California, and graduated from Yale in 1889. While in college he took a prominent part in athletics, winning many championships. He went into the cattle business with H. S. and George Burroughs in 1890, and is still associated with them in the livestock business and in dredging for gold on Snake river. The company they are interested in is operating two of the best equipped and most successful dredging plants in the county. In 1900 he was elected to the Idaho legislature on the Republican ticket. He is a man of sterling qualities and highly esteemed in the community where he lives. Mr. and Mrs. Sweetser leave shortly to make their home in Yale, Ida., where the congratulations and best wishes of their many friends will follow them.

CLUB CHAT.

The Cleofan met on Tuesday with Mrs. H. L. A. Culmer and the afternoon was occupied by Mrs. Elmer B. Jones with a most interesting and important talk on the Consumers' league. Her paper dealt with the phases of the "sweatshop" evil, the hardships endured by employes in many of the great manufacturing and mercantile firms of the large cities, and gave sensational disclosures of some of the evils resulting from the present inhuman system prevailing in many places. The Consumers' league aims to establish a juster and more humane condition of affairs, and it is Mrs. Elmer's hope to establish a branch of the league in this city. Three clubs have already joined the league and the Cleofan will probably add its name to the list. The object is most worthy and commendable, and should receive the hearty support of not only the clubs but the entire community.

The regular meeting of the Woman's club on Tuesday was well attended. The meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. Cook, and minutes of the last meeting were read and approved. Miss Buckbee, gave the paper which was entitled, "Today," the topic being handled with clearness and force. What the world is today; what we have gained in the course of ages by the passing away of generations, in the arts, science, commerce, in the army, navy and engineering," was contrasted with the past. At its close the ladies expressed their appreciation of Miss Buckbee's efforts. The program for the

WHITE STRAW TURBAN.

This pretty turban has the brim faced with chiffon, over which is laid a pearl and silk passementerie. Strings of pearls are around the crown. Crush roses are set toward the back.
