THE MILL CREEK CONVENTION.

Account of Proceedings at the Morning Session.

A Farmers' convention called and conducted by the Salt Lake County Horticultural society, was held in Mill Creek ward since Jan. 11th and 12th, 1895. Commenced Jan. 11th, at 2 p. m.

Mr. A. P. Rix, of Sugar House, stated the object of the convention and introduced Mr. Hyrum Bateman, of Taylorville, chairman.

Mr. J. M. Faust, of East Mill Creek, and Mr. Don Jones, of Mill Creek, were chosen secretaries. Mr. Geo. H. Bailey, of Mill Creek, was called every-man, and called upon first.

Prof. J. E. Talmage, from the Agricultural college of Logan, was introduced and gave some interesting information in regard to aging on and planting an orchard. He gave also valuable information how to prune and cultivate the soil. He gave also valuable information how to prune and cultivate the soil. He gave also valuable information how to prune and cultivate the soil