NOT YET FALLING.

Reports From the District Flooded by the Fraser River.

EXCURSIONISTS ALSO BOUND.

Coolies and Thieves Go to Work—A Sailor Safe and a Capsized Boat.

VANCOUVER, B. C., June 9.—Reports received here from the interior state that the Fraser river is still slowly rising. The rises reported range from one inch at the lower river to twelve inches at Lytton. The steamship Queen, bound for Alaska, called here yesterday to take on board the Raymond excursion party from Boston, who were originally reported to have been wrecked. The excursionists are all fine and, and as there was no chance for their getting through from Yale for a week at least, the Queen sailed for Alaska without them.

Coolies and thieves have begun to invade the flooded districts. Yesterday a safe was stolen from the offices of the Moodyville Mill company. The coolies evidently intended to carry the safe to the woods and blow it open, but had capsized, however, and the contents were found on the flooded area.

FIFTEEN THOUSAND PEOPLE HOMELESS.

The Dominion government is having a careful estimate made of the losses by floods. In the affected municipalities, corresponding to American counties, it is found that fully 15,000 people are homeless.

The Sealers Captured.

PORT TOWNSEND, Wash., June 9.—The U. S. revenue cutter arrived here last night. He had started for Alaska, but off Cape Flattery captured two schooners, viz., C. Perkins and the Pathfinder, with seal skins. Ten Indians are on the cutter in custody. They refuse to give any account of the owners of their sealing vessels.

Not Religious Suicide.

OAKLAND, Cal., June 8.—Nat Salinger, a well-known money broker and stock speculator, killed himself at his office on Broadway today by shooting himself through the heart. The young suicide is said to have a serious loss recently incurred in money speculation.

BOARD OF TRADE RULING.

Chicago Merchant is Suspended and Appeals to the Courts.

CHICAGO, Ills., June 8.—By a ruling of Judge Tuthill, a new way has apparently been found by which a member of the board of trade can secure reinstatement after suspension. E. E. Dodson, who was admitted to membership in 1892 and suspended December 28 last for ten years, appealed to the circuit court through Attorney Lewis Boden. He petitioned a writ of certiorari to command the State of the board to appear in court with the record of their proceedings in the court was asked to set aside the order of suspension on the grounds that the board could not discipline one of its members for a deal in a business transaction with a person not a member of the board. Mr. Dodson had had no transactions with persons who did not hold a membership in the board of trade. These outsiders, believing that Dodson had not lived up to certain of his business agreements, complained to the board and as a result of the inquiry which followed, Mr. Dodson was disciplined. A motion to quash the petition was made by counsel of the board of trade. In overruling this the court rendered an opinion which is somewhat severe on the merits of the case. The board will now make a formal answer and the books will be brought into court. Then a full hearing will be had and a final decision made.

A Niece of Andrew Jackson Dead.

PROSPECT, ALTURAS, June 9.—Mrs. Alice Hensley died today of acute pneumonia. She was the niece of Andrew Jackson, being the eldest daughter of Rose Jackson. She was born in Algiers, Louisiana, 59 years ago.

The Doctors Adjourn.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 8.—The American Medical association today elected the following officers: President, Dunan Malaney, Michigan; vice president, J. C. Lovelong, Ohio; treasurer, Dr. Newman, Illinois; secretary, William A. Atkinson, Pennsylvania; assistant secretary, D. R. Rohr, Maryland; chairman, G. E. Wetzler, Illinois; adjunct, A. G. Hawkins, Illinois.

The American Medical College association elected Dr. E. Fletcher Ingalls of Chicago, president; Dr. Perry H. Millard of St. Paul, secretary and treasurer.

The American Medical Temperance association awarded a prize of $100 to Dr. Tait of Chicago for the best essay, the subject being the "Affinity of Alcohol for the Oxygen of the Blood." The officers were elected as follows: President, D. C. Davis, of Chicago; vice president, L. C. Quinby, of Illinois; secretary, T. D. Carruthers, Harrison County; treasurer, Dr. Webster, of Chicago.

After Baltimore had been named as the place for holding the next year's convention, Dr. W. E. Quinn, of Illinois, was called to deliver the address in medicine, Dr. C. A. Wheaton, of Minnesota, on surgery, and Dr. H. F. Helms, of Vermont, on state surgery.

The convention adjourned sine die.

Newport Racers.

CHICAGO, June 8.—It was reported in this city today that Treasurer Blossom of the Mutual Benefit Mutual Benefit Association, who disappeared several weeks ago, and returned to Chicago, was very sick at his home in Newport. The report could be found this afternoon who said seen him, however.

The Columbia Damaged.

PHILADELPHIA, June 8.—The board of the official court of inquiry investigating the injury to the cruiser Columbia, held at Lange Island, found testimony approximately fixing the time and place of the collision. The substance was that although the vessel might have been injured before she passed into the hands of the government, the conditions of the dock led to the conclusion that the collision occurred at Hubbard shoals on May 16th, while the vessel was traversing upon the bay on her official inspection trip.

Fired Up from Ambush.

BRANDENBURG, Ky., June 8.—A tragedy occurred just across the river from here about 1:30 last night. Frank Redmond and Charles Nesley were returning home, after having escorted Misses Birdie and Laura Lett from church to their home. When one and a half miles from Lookport, Ind., they were fired upon by a person or persons in ambush. Two ball shot went through the top of Nesley's hat, and the second carried away Redmond's tie on the neck, inflicting a fatal wound. There is much excitement in the neighborhood, as both young men belong to excellent families.

THE ARMOR PLATE FRAUDS.

Lieutenant Ackerman's Testimony before the Committee.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 8.—Lieutenant Albert Ackerman of the navy was heard today by the House committee on the armor plate frauds. He was one of the naval board which investigated the first charge of fraud. His evidence covered in detail the irregularities in treating specific armor plates. He had found that superintendent Schwab and other officials and employes had had an interest in the Carnegie company, and had therefore a motive in passing plates not up to standard. He told of the manner in which his suspicions had been aroused as to the irregularities of the work. He found that certain lines of work would be stopped when he entered a shop. One of the superintendents, Mr. Kyne, had misled him as various details of the work. His own experiments and the affidavits of informants had corroborated his suspicions, and he had assessed damages against the company as a result of his own knowledge and suspicions.

Ackerman told of the investigation of the second or supplemental charges. This testimony developed a new branch of irregularity as to the manipulation of a testing machine used by the Carnegie Company. The machine was operated so as to give false figures. Disclosures were also made as to serious defects in two plates of the "Monterey" and one in the "Wisconsin."

Lieutenant Ackerman said blow-holes were a positive defect and could be avoided. In his opinion his statement differed from that of other naval officers. The witness described a serious blow-hole in the thirteen-inch armor of the Monterey. A wire foot fast long had been inserted in the hole.

Chairman Cummings read from the testimony of the second investigation to the effect that one of the workmen had been discharged at the suggestion of one of the government inspectors. The committee commented on this testimony, stating that it vindicated the confidential relations between the Carnegie company and the naval inspectors.

The Tariff Debate.

WASHINGTON, June 8.—When the tariff bill was laid before the Senate, the consideration of the pending paragraph, imposing 20 per cent on buckwheat, corn, wheat, corn meal, flour, rye, etc., was resumed, and Pettigrew (Rep.), of South Dakota, moved as a substitute the McKinley specifications. Lost—24 to 35.

In the next paragraph the House placed a duty of 25 per cent on the barley malt. Jones offered the finance committee amendment, to make the rates 30 and 40 per cent respectively. The finance committee amendment was adopted unanimously.

The finance committee amendment was adopted making the duty on macaroni 30 instead of 25 per cent. The next paragraph fixed the duty on hops, cleaned 8 cents a cent per pound; uncleaned, 1 per cent; pelts, three-fourths of a cent; rice flour, ½ per cent.

Amendments looking to the restoration of the present rates on dairy products were lost, and the following rates were fixed: Butter, 4 cents per pound; cheese 4 cents per pound; fresh milk, 2 cents per gallon; condensed milk, 3 cents; sugar of milk, 5 cents per pound.

The rate on beans was fixed at 20 per cent; canned or prepared beans, peas and other vegetables, 3 per cent.

At 6:20 the Senate, on motion of Harris, went into executive session and shortly afterwards adjourned.

With the assignment of the trust came the news of the failure of E. B. Bartlett & Co., who are practically members of the trust.

BILL DALTON SHOT DEAD.

The Career of the Long Hunted Train Robber Ended.

The Circumstances Said to be Complete—The Details of the Tragedy.

ASHDOWN, I. T., June 8.—By the death of Will Dalton at the hands of Deputy United States Marshal Hartfelty, it is believed that the long-hunted and scarred for train robber has been laid low.

The identification is complete. His widow is here under arrest, and for her attorney your correspondent has sent the telegrams. The first went to C. H. Silvers, 161 Van Ness avenue, San Francisco, and read:

"My husband, Bill Dalton, is dead. Come at once. I want no remains sent home."

The other one was addressed to Mrs. A. L. Dalton, Coughlinet, and read:

"Bill Dalton is here dead; come at once if you want to see him.

(Signed) JENNIE DALTON."

The story of how he was killed is as follows: Yesterday afternoon a desperado character named Wallace, accompanied by two women, came to Atoka, and after purchasing over $200 worth of goods the man went to the express office and called for a package, which was given him. He was armed to exclusion. The package was broken into and found to contain several gallons of whisky. From these parties it was learned that the whisky was for old pecos man to be living near Silt, and from these identities remarks by the women the officers concluded it belonged to the Daltons, the Long View train robbers, who are known to be in the neighborhood of Silt.

The man was locked up and a posse of United States deputy marshals started for the robbers' rendezvous. The place where they had reason to believe their game was hiding was surrounded by the posse about 8 a. m. today. While the men were taking their positions, Dalton was seen to come out, look around and immediately return. The officers on the east side were discovered by him through a window and pistol in hand he jumped through the window on the north and started to run east. Sheriff Hart was less than thirty yards from the house and called to him to halt. For reply he turned around, tried to take aim while running, and just then the 44-caliber Winchester of the officer spoke. Two jumps in the air was the only motion after this by fleeing man. With a groan he sank to the ground. Mr. Hart ran up to ask him what he was doing there, but he was too near dead to reply and expired without a word. The house was searched and over 100 letters, besides numerous rolls of crisp bank bills, were found, proving him to be Bill Dalton and the money proved him to be the leader of the Long View bank robbers.

The remains were brought in this city, and when his wife was told he was dead she became hysterical and almost succumbed to the shock. There was a reward of several thousand dollars on Dalton's head. The deputy who killed him has wired to Long View that he has positive proof that it is Bill Dalton who was killed, and that he committed the robbery.

Mrs. Dalton says she was born in Merced county, California, where she married Dalton in 1884. Her maiden name was Nellie Van Ness. They came to the territory in 1891, and have two children. Mrs. Dalton is 27 years old, and her husband was 28. She is well educated and appears to be very intelligent.

Saved from St. Vitus Dance.

"Our daughter, Blanche, now fifteen years of age, had been terribly afflicted with nervousness, and had lost the entire use of her right arm. We feared St. Vitus dance, and tried the best physicians with no benefit. She has taken three bottles of Dr. Miles' Nervine and has gained 31 pounds. Her nervousness and symptoms of St. Vitus dance are entirely gone, she sleeps sound regularly, and has recovered complete use of her arm, her appetite is splendid."

HAVE YOU A DOUBT

AS TO WHO ARE SALT LAKE'S LEADING SPECIALISTS, IF YOU HAVE READ THE EVIDENCE OF YOUR FRIENDS AND NEIGHBORS.

If you have been a constant reader of this paper for the past few months and have noticed the evidence published by Shores & Shores and the other specialists, you will see that Drs. Shores & Shores have each week given the public one or more new testimonials of patients who have been cured by their new treatment, while our would-be competitors have given you not, in spite of statements of people who have endorsed their various wildcrazes; but these small doctors can't pass a patent in six months with their treatment, as the records of the patent office will prove, so they resort to all kinds of schemes to deceive the public.

Drs. Shores & Shores live on their own reputation. They use their own system of treatment. They do not advertise one man's opinion and use another. Drs. Shores & Shores' reputation for the past six years in the Territory of Utah is a guarantee of honest and skillful treatment.

Drs. Shores & Shores are having the patients made of patients who have been "spoiled" by these small doctors, and as soon as they are ready for publication you will receive some inside history as to the leeching and methods of treatment used by these would-be specialists.

This week Drs. Shores & Shores present the testimony of one of the oldest residents of the territory. Here what they say, go interview them, and they will tell you the difference between the real and the imitation.

MRS. BERTHA CHRISTIANSEN, Residence 151 Second South and Fourth East Streets, City.

COULD NOT SWALLOW.

The Alarming Condition of Mrs. Christiansen—She is Cured in One Month by Drs. Shores & Shores' New Treatment.

To say Mrs. Christiansen was a sufferer is putting it mild. When she placed herself under the care of Drs. Shores & Shores, it was doubtful if she could ever be made well; her case had run so long that the search had thoroughly undermined her entire system; her throat was so raw and irritable that it was with the greatest difficulty that she could eat enough to keep her alive. Here is her signed statement word for word:

SALT LAKE CITY, UTAH, May 31, '94.

To Whom It May Concern:

This is to certify that I came to Drs. Shores & Shores a wreck in the hands with pearls of the bed and a stomach. I was so very bad that I could not even take a drink of water or food in any shape without the greatest pain, and I can now truthfully state that after one month's treatment I am a well woman.

These are the cases of troubles Drs. Shores & Shores are doing daily. This is the class of troubles that have made them famous over the country, and this is the class of trouble that the small doctors try to treat, fail, and then advertise they are doctors.
