UTAH WEATHER AND CROPS.

Heavy Damaging Rains, Average Grain Crop and Fine Hay, Corn and Potato Yield.

The weather during the week ending July 20th, has been characterized by heavy rains which have done an immense amount of damage to the hay and grain crops throughout the State. The principal damage was done in the southern portion of the State where the rainfall was the heaviest. The following are some of the measured amounts of rainfall received during the week: Salt Lake City, .60 of an inch; Beaverville, .32 of an inch; Keetsbarom, 2.35 inches; Heber, .30 of an inch; Scipio, 1.50 inches; Richfield, 1.25 inches; Sevier, .75 of an inch; Brigham City, 1.50 inches; Lehi, 1.75 inches; Huntsville, .50 of an inch; Lucern, by cut and measure, the rain seems entirely spoiled in some localities, and considerable grain lodged by wind and rain. While the storms of the week have been very destructive in some sections, the good, soaking rains have been of great benefit to late grain, vegetables, ranges and meadows. Grain is looking well and promises fairly average yield. Potatoes, corn and beets are reported in fine condition, and the ranges are looking much better than for some time past. Harvesting operations were retarded during the week by showers except in a few districts where they were not heavy enough to interfere with the work. The second crop of lucern is in bloom, and in some sections it has been cut and stacked.

REMARKS OF CORRESPONDENTS.

Bluffdale—On 15th and 11th, we had heavy rains and floods, but damages were slight to crops. Lucern lately cut was entirely spoiled; the rains will, no doubt, be valuable to the range, meadows and grain fields. No damage of any consequence to late sections.

Tooele—Rain on the 13th, 14th and 15th that brought the flood down the mountains. The weather has cooled down a little, and we now have the hazy September weather of old times. The rain damaged some hay but all more good than harm. Spring crops begin to get white for harvest. Now is the heavy harvest.

Cedarview—Heavy rain on 14th and 15th did a great deal of good to crops; no damage except to lucern that was cut and lying in the field. Towns below us were damaged very much.

Payson—Heavy rains did much damage to heavy grain, also to hay on the ground as stacked.

Provo—The first part of the week has been cloudy with sectional showers mostly on the hills. Crops of all kinds are doing nicely.

Heber—Another week of bad hay weather. Lucern hay badly damaged; hundreds of loads barely worth hauling. Heavy thunderstorm; much damage at Coalville and Hoytsville by floods. Heber was visited by a severe thunderstorm on Friday and for fifteen minutes rain and some hail poured down, and the street were one vast sheet of water. The soil got a thorough soaking; good for vegetation; grain looking well and heavy.

Moroni—Week has been warm and cloudy. Rain on the 13th, 14th and 15th, amounting to 1½ of an inch. The rain on the mountains has caused the river to go over its banks and damage some hay on the low lands. A great deal of cut lucern has been spoiled by the rain. Grain looks very good after the rain; some heavy grain knocked down.

Lewiston—Past week very favorable for crops. Commenced to rain night of 12th and continued until noon of 13th doing a great deal of good and some damage to cut lucern; crops looking fine; wheat commencing to ripen; weather smoky.

Fairfield—The heavy rain and flood on 14th did a great deal of damage to hay; most of the first crop of lucern is injured; grain, corn and potatoes are doing well.

Hatrsville—Seven showers through the week retarding haying with a slow damage to cut hay otherwise the prospects was fine; harvesting commenced.

Lake Shore—The grain is ripening fast; irrigating potatoes, corn and squash; second crop of lucern is coming in bloom; sugar beets doing well.

Newton—Light rain on 13th; grain filling out well; fall wheat ripening fast; first crop of lucern about half good average crop; potatoes backward; beets are doing well.

Signal—We have had no moisture since spring until last Monday and Tuesday, when it let go all holes and fell down; heavy floods came out of Cedar Ridge canyon, bringing out hundreds of loads of wood, filling up canals with debris and covering up much hay and grain. Some grain and second crop of lucern will be lost. Still, perhaps enough is offset the losses.

Sacredville—Grain all headed out; lucern being put in stacks, but on account of the rain on the 13th it is somewhat damaged.

Kanosh—Big flood again on the 13th, and a smaller one on 14th and 17th. The rain on 17th was the heaviest we know of in town, the other days it came mostly in the mountains. Over Deseret it the first lucern crop spoiled, much of it entirely destroyed by the water; part not cut yet promises good; potatoes and grain doing well.

Portage—Spitfires, hailstorm and showers of 14th. A good part of the lucern that was cut before the storm is spoiled.

Layton—The weather during the past two weeks has been extremely warm. The two or three showers which we have had did more damage than good. Heading is the principal labor; hay has all up yet.

Lovan—The storms of first part of week has lodged heavy grain some, but not enough to prevent its being harvested. South of here much damage to hay and grain.

Bothwell—On the 13th, heaviest storm for years; heavy flood down Cache valley on the 15th; four separate floods in two days. Much grain and hay destroyed. The rain good on crops and flowers.

Meadow—A week of thunder, lightning, hail, rains and floods. Much of the crops destroyed by river and water; crops not injured by floods in good condition; plenty should struggle.

St. George—Nature looks refreshed by rains of past two days. Much lucern, however, cut in the field and stacked and will not be in good milling weather shape. Threatening and lightning very frequent the past week.

Moab—Barley cut and stacked.

Peter—Rain most of the week and the sun has received a good soaking; no damage except to lucern. Wheat was cut and had not been broken. The storm has been just what was wanted for the crops and the range.

Rockport—Summer showers every day. First crop of lucern ready to cut; some cut and stacked in the field; crops all looking growing very fast.

Beaverville—Warm weather during week. We had a slow rain on 13th, and again on 15th. First crop of lucern is in and wheat harvest commenced.

Moroni—Hail and rain storm on Monday and much damage to grain. Wednesday thunder, lightning and hailstorm on Thursday and Friday the universal cloud burst left on the east bench, filling up canals and flooding many acres of grain; saves of lucern.

Hinckley—Several rains have greatly benefited all kinds of crops, especially on late fields. Corn never looked better. No disturbance with us, but heard of heavy showers on all sides; wind mostly all over the grain belt.

Conrad—It is a change from heat to rain. Rained on the 13th, 14th and every day and one midnight on the 14th which done considerable damage to hay and grain.

Bear Lake—Harvesting—The week ending 17th, has been very rainy. There has been a heavy shower every day and some days several. Rather hay has been destructive to stack, as the grain is good, making rains have been a great benefit to late grain, vegetables, ranges and meadows. Grain is looking well and promises about an average yield. Potatoes, corn and beets are reported in fine condition, and the ranges are looking much better than for some time past. Harvesting operations were retarded during the week by showers except in a few districts where they were not heavy enough to interfere with the work. The second crop of lucern is in bloom, and in some sections it has been cut and stacked.
