The Evening paper is the paper of Today, the morning paper is the paper of Yesterday.

DESERET EVENING NEWS.

5 O'clock -EDITION.-

TRUTH AND LIBERTY.

NO. 103 MONDAY, APRIL 30, 1894, SALT LAKE CITY, UTAH. VOL. XXVII.

WHAT COXEYISM IS.

An Attempt to Overthrow the Will of the Whole People.

ON SATE CONGRESSMAN MAGUIRE.

The Cause of the Trouble—Latest Advice from the Various Industrial Camps.

NEW YORK, April 30.—In a letter given by Congressman James L. Maguire, of California, last evening, in criticising bill, before the Maguire-Pettigrew single tax case, Congressman Maguire said that Coxey is making an attempt to overthrow the will of the people and meet the wishes of the

It has, to say, the deepest sympathy of the "armies" but if their cause was based in whole cause in the overthrow of popular government. It was not the intention of the government to employ force with such people. The government, however, is to assist the present men for protection of civil life. As a matter, the government is bound to protect the property owned the people, if despite attempt take away the property rights of the citizens and have the property to compensation. It was responsible for original conditions that would accept.

Mr. Coxey maintained war also a civilized war and the death of affairs war between civilized.

ROBERT COMMONWEAL IN ADVANCES.

ADA, April 30.—At a meeting of Coxey to organize an army to join Coxey, resolutions were adopted condemning Senator Wolcott for his action and the Allen resolution. The resolution set forth that Senator Wolcott was carried to the "American House of Lords" and "Millionaires Club," by corrupt methods, and contained an address.

Eastward, Tom was, alliance of Aspen is quite exciting condition, contains the ex-soldier and a Mr. Coxey, young man whose Julius Dunlap was in angst and Benedict Arnold a Jew."

THE CHICAGO POLICE READY.

CHICAGO, April 30.—With a view of suppressing any premeditated or attempt at the outbreak of the industrial army in this city, a police reserve of 300 men is being held at the station in the neighborhood of the lumberyards. When the city men retired last night police going off duty, they were men on reserve. This will be continued until General Brooke's detachment marches and the army will probably be given a public send to the city limits.

THE CAPTURED ARMY.

HELENA, Mont., April 30.—Hogan's army, numbering three hundred and fifty men, was brought here on a special train in now guarded by the soldiers from Fort Keogh. The prisoners will be taken to the fair grounds, two miles from the city, where they and the soldiers make a camp.

COXEY'S MEN WANT MONEY.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, April 30.—The Hallowell will not leave Columbus today, the order of Coxey's men, the spa colonists. It has been set in the airport. There are 150 in camp. These men want to travel by rail.

DISTURBANCES IN THE CAPITOL.

Evidence of preparation for the Coxeyites were seen about the halls of the capitol of Washington today. A mobile force of officers was on duty. Officers were stationed in all of the offices of the Capitol. The officers were provided with the helmets of the officers in the municipal galleries. The officers were in the sightseers. People came and went with the same freedom as there was yesterday. The large bronze gates were swung on either side of the main rotunda. Sergeant-at-arms Bean explained that the gates were the same as usual at inauguration and were used when the annual crowds were expected to prevent a congestion of people in the rotunda. When closed, people will go in and out of the side doors each door in the basement below. The doorkeepers in the galleries gave no reason for closure, but allowed no smoking in the galleries and doorways.

NO BILL AND HONEY.

CANTON, Ohio, Washington, Bright-Wood Ohio, Coxey's men, Hogan's men, joined forces in the ranks in the procession and of the commonwealers' Coxey, they have not found a Rowing Free Money. Mr. Mike Donovan, Coxey and Marshal Browne stopped to a and the shabby main provision for the accommodation of the prominent leaders of Coxey's army. Although there is no primary engine, many sleeping without blankets. There was a scramble for sleeping in the hotel. There is a switch at Coxey's hotel, in which Coxey's men in private stations were stationed. In private stations were stationed. In the hotel hall a number private sleeping in the floor the sanitarium in Hotel. For others camp George Washington night better have been settled Valley Forge. The little contingent of troops were under the command of Lieutenant Lee in the woods on the edge of Canton, half a mile distant, South Stream slept in a hotel. The Toledo prisoners led the men to make an and they calmly took away. At 10 o'clock neither Coxey nor Browne had arrived in camp. The lower people were panting to see Coxey in the primary call. Three prisoners dined with the army on the tent in jerseys. Coxey's officers inspected the camp. The men were based, William Tuggarts being threatened with pneumonia, and John Smith, leader of the body, suffering from chills. Tuggarts is threatened for the men. The sanitarium of those present were Coxey and Carl Browne was threatened with typhoid.

NO ONE WANT THE LADIES.

DES MOINES, April 30.—Business at a general meeting of all the railroads running into Des Moines are ridiculous. The blind leaders said today that if Kelly was not furnished with transportation inside of four days, the men would be required by the leaders of the American Railway Union, and all the men would be required to be carried in Chicago. A committee consisting of Kelly, Wm. Pullman, Mr. Debs and a Mr. Hunter and Mr. Howe, the leaders of the Coxey movement, have been in the city for the purpose of making a special train for Coxey's men. The committee was approached. Committee of labor organizations were busy all day getting food and money. It is stated that the City of Washington will furnish a work train for $2,000 and according committee were explicit that the money must be in hand. Thursday at Chicago, could not be found information, was uncertain. E. J. Smith said he thought Coxey men would not go to Chicago.

Major Hillstead, word that Kelly's army is said to expected to move to morrow.

At Des Moines and Kina Regel who have been with the army all week were sent by Kelly today that they could march with the committee to Chicago.

The camps of the suburban towns are sympathetic to Kelly today and are convinced that they will participate in tonight's mass meeting.

DETAINING THE SOUTHERN PEOPLE.

NEW YORK, Mexico, April 30.—Colonel Dick, president of the Mexican Central, says today: "I will be glad if they the common employed and the people in Mexico. I have the people, three quarter of and to the government employed Mexico with work the Dec at Indian. The Mexican people are not hilltop, people of Mexico or the A. R. U. only there. They do not trouble the people. They do not trouble the people. They do not attempt take away the property rights of the citizens and have the property to compensation. It was responsible for original conditions that would accept.

Mr. Coxey maintained war also a civilized war and the death of affairs war between civilized.

ROBERT COMMONWEAL IN ADVANCES.

ADA, April 30.—At a meeting of Coxey to organize an army to join Coxey, resolutions were adopted condemning Senator Wolcott for his action and the Allen resolution. The resolution set forth that Senator Wolcott was carried to the "American House of Lords" and "Millionaires Club," by corrupt methods, and contained an address.

Eastward, Tom was, alliance of Aspen is quite exciting condition, contains the ex-soldier and a Mr. Coxey, young man whose Julius Dunlap was in angst and Benedict Arnold a Jew."

THE CHICAGO POLICE READY.

CHICAGO, April 30.—With a view of suppressing any premeditated or attempt at the outbreak of the industrial army in this city, a police reserve of 300 men is being held at the station in the neighborhood of the lumberyards. When the city men retired last night police going off duty, they were men on reserve. This will be continued until General Brooke's detachment marches and the army will probably be given a public send to the city limits.

THE CAPTURED ARMY.

HELENA, Mont., April 30.—Hogan's army, numbering three hundred and fifty men, was brought here on a special train in now guarded by the soldiers from Fort Keogh. The prisoners will be taken to the fair grounds, two miles from the city, where they and the soldiers make a camp.

COXEY'S MEN WANT MONEY.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, April 30.—The Hallowell will not leave Columbus today, the order of Coxey's men, the spa colonists. It has been set in the airport. There are 150 in camp. These men want to travel by rail.

DISTURBANCES IN THE CAPITOL.

Evidence of preparation for the Coxeyites were seen about the halls of the capitol of Washington today. A mobile force of officers was on duty. Officers were stationed in all of the offices of the Capitol. The officers were provided with the helmets of the officers in the municipal galleries. The officers were in the sightseers. People came and went with the same freedom as there was yesterday. The large bronze gates were swung on either side of the main rotunda. Sergeant-at-arms Bean explained that the gates were the same as usual at inauguration and were used when the annual crowds were expected to prevent a congestion of people in the rotunda. When closed, people will go in and out of the side doors each door in the basement below. The doorkeepers in the galleries gave no reason for closure, but allowed no smoking in the galleries and doorways.

NO BILL AND HONEY.

CANTON, Ohio, Washington, Bright-Wood Ohio, Coxey's men, Hogan's men, joined forces in the ranks in the procession and of the commonwealers' Coxey, they have not found a Rowing Free Money. Mr. Mike Donovan, Coxey and Marshal Browne stopped to a and the shabby main provision for the accommodation of the prominent leaders of Coxey's army. Although there is no primary engine, many sleeping without blankets. There was a scramble for sleeping in the hotel. There is a switch at Coxey's hotel, in which Coxey's men in private stations were stationed. In private stations were stationed. In the hotel hall a number private sleeping in the floor the sanitarium in Hotel. For others camp George Washington night better have been settled Valley Forge. The little contingent of troops were under the command of Lieutenant Lee in the woods on the edge of Canton, half a mile distant, South Stream slept in a hotel. The Toledo prisoners led the men to make an and they calmly took away. At 10 o'clock neither Coxey nor Browne had arrived in camp. The lower people were panting to see Coxey in the primary call. Three prisoners dined with the army on the tent in jerseys. Coxey's officers inspected the camp. The men were based, William Tuggarts being threatened with pneumonia, and John Smith, leader of the body, suffering from chills. Tuggarts is threatened for the men. The sanitarium of those present were Coxey and Carl Browne was threatened with typhoid.

NO ONE WANT THE LADIES.

DES MOINES, April 30.—Business at a general meeting of all the railroads running into Des Moines are ridiculous. The blind leaders said today that if Kelly was not furnished with transportation inside of four days, the men would be required by the leaders of the American Railway Union, and all the men would be required to be carried in Chicago. A committee consisting of Kelly, Wm. Pullman, Mr. Debs and a Mr. Hunter and Mr. Howe, the leaders of the Coxey movement, have been in the city for the purpose of making a special train for Coxey's men. The committee was approached. Committee of labor organizations were busy all day getting food and money. It is stated that the City of Washington will furnish a work train for $2,000 and according committee were explicit that the money must be in hand. Thursday at Chicago, could not be found information, was uncertain. E. J. Smith said he thought Coxey men would not go to Chicago.

Major Hillstead, word that Kelly's army is said to expected to move to morrow.

At Des Moines and Kina Regel who have been with the army all week were sent by Kelly today that they could march with the committee to Chicago.

The camps of the suburban towns are sympathetic to Kelly today and are convinced that they will participate in tonight's mass meeting.

DETAINING THE SOUTHERN PEOPLE.

NEW YORK, Mexico, April 30.—Colonel Dick, president of the Mexican Central, says today: "I will be glad if they the common employed and the people in Mexico. I have the people, three quarter of and to the government employed Mexico with work the Dec at Indian. The Mexican people are not hilltop, people of Mexico or the A. R. U. only there