

SOCIETY

SOCIAL CHAT

The past week was one of the busiest of the season in a social way, every day being filled with more or less elaborate functions. Next week also promises to be filled with social festivity.

A letter has been received by City Auditor Alf from his daughter, Mrs. C. M. Henrotin of Kimberley, South Africa, enclosing an invitation which she and her husband received to a garden party given in that city on Jan. 27 in honor of the Duke and Duchess of Connaught and Strathearn. The duke is a grandson of King Edward and he and the duchess are now on a tour of the world.

On Thursday Mrs. J. R. Folsom was guest of honor at a luncheon given by Mrs. W. W. Riter at her home, about 25 being present. The decorations were most artistic, the centerpiece being of yellow tulips in a cut glass bowl, while bowls of daffodils were at each corner of the table, and dainty tulle of Nile green and white was drawn the length of the board and fastened at each end with bows of ribbon. Chrysanthemum centerpieces with green shades were used, and the place cards were hand-painted in daffodils. Beside the guest of honor covers were laid for Mrs. David Keith, Mrs. James E. Jennings, Mrs. W. S. McCormick, Mrs. J. E. Calne, Mrs. Andrew Howat, Mrs. Kenneth Kerr, Mrs. A. F. Bowers, Mrs. Frank Jennings, Mrs. Robert Hampton, Mrs. W. S. James, Mrs. T. B. Best, Mrs. Fred Hale, Mrs. John Bradley, Mrs. William Hoyt, Mrs. J. H. Sanborn, Mrs. Edward Moore, Mrs. A. L. Hoppaugh.

One of the prettiest luncheons of the week was that given by Mrs. John Christy in honor of Mrs. John Reed on Thursday, the affair taking place at the Emery-Holmes. The table was decorated in violets and magnolias, a bank of the fragrant flowers forming the centerpiece, while at each place lay a bunch of violets, while the place cards were hand-painted in the same flowers. Present were Mrs. Edward Moore, Mrs. John Christy, Mrs. Harry Ganz, Mrs. G. A. Andrews and Mrs. John Reed. Covers were laid for Mrs. A. J. Gorham, Mrs. Ernest Greenwood, Mrs. Martha Paul, Mrs. T. B. Best, Mrs. Fred Hale, Mrs. John Bradley, Mrs. William Hoyt, Mrs. J. H. Sanborn, Mrs. Edward Moore, Mrs. A. L. Hoppaugh.

Mr. and Mrs. John R. Smith celebrated their twenty-eighth wedding anniversary Wednesday night in an enjoyable home party, the rooms being bright with flowers and dancing music and recitations making up the delightful evening. About 50 guests were present.

Among the notably pleasant events of the week was the Sophomore assembly at the University last night, the Museum building being lit with colored electric lights, and handsomely decorated in the University and class colors, while all about the hall were booths made in the form of summer houses, where refreshments were dispensed, or seats arranged for weary dancers. The music was of the best, the details finely arranged, and the entire affair a success. The chaperones were Dr. and Mrs. J. T. Kingsbury, Dr. and Mrs. W. C. Ebaath, Prof. and Mrs. Byron Cummings, Dr. and Mrs. J. F. Merrill, Dr. and Mrs. E. G. Gowans, Prof. and Mrs. F. W. Reynolds and Prof. George A. Eaton.

Another equally delightful school function of the week was the "hard times" party given at Unity hall last night, by the sophomores of the High school, the hall being effectively decorated in unique devices, refreshments served, and the entire affair cleverly carrying out the idea of its title. A large number were present and enjoyed it to the utmost. The chaperones were Mrs. Frank S. Stephens, Mrs. W. H. Bantz, Miss Claire Ellerbe, Miss Mary Mayne and Miss Mildred Tibbals.

Miss Edie Dean Riddle was hostess at a delightful affair this afternoon in honor of Miss Katherine McKenzie.

Miss Althea Wheeler was one of today's entertainers, giving a pretty luncheon to a few friends at her home.

which was effectively decorated for the occasion.

On Wednesday night Miss Mildred Ott entertained a number of her friends at an informal party, the time being delightfully spent.

Miss Eloise Sadler was hostess on Thursday at an informal afternoon affair in honor of Miss Larsen Leary, who leaves today for California. The misses to be filled with social festivity.

table being prettily adorned with daffodils and ferns, and covers being laid for 16 guests.

Miss Blanche Waterman was guest of honor at a delightful Kensington on Wednesday given by Mrs. J. S. Manley, the other guests being chief members of the hostess' sewing club.

Mrs. W. S. Henderson was among those who entertained this week in honor of Mrs. John Reed of Denver, another guest of the occasion being Mrs. W. H. Bagby. The affair took place on Wednesday.

About 25 friends enjoyed the hospitality of Mrs. Sophia Sharp and Mrs. J. E. Jennings on Wednesday, the ladies giving a Kensington at their apartment at the Emery-Holmes.

Miss Addie Zane entertained informally on Wednesday in honor of Miss Blanche Burke, who is here from Chicago visiting her sister, Mrs. Roscoe Channing.

One of Wednesday's pretty events

Mrs. J. W. Brockman gave a luncheon and bridge party on Monday at the Emery-Holmes, the room being decorated in white and green, and prizes going to Mrs. W. S. Henderson, Mrs. Thomas Marionaux and Mrs. Howard Stowe.

Mr. and Mrs. A. T. McCanne entertained at dinner on Monday in honor of Dr. and Mrs. Bagby, the table being handsomely decorated in red and white, while antique brass candlesticks with red shades added to the effect. About a dozen guests were entertained.

Mrs. F. L. Sprague was hostess at a delightful affair on Monday in celebration of her birthday. The rooms were bright with flowers and delicious refreshments were served. She was assisted by her daughter, Mrs. A. C. Sadler.

Mrs. D. S. Murray entertained on Monday in honor of Mrs. Jack Evans of California, her function being a bridge party. Prizes were won by Mrs. Jennie and Mrs. Rookledge. Dr. Arnold entertained at a supper and theater party on Monday night in honor of Miss Blanche Waterman.

Invitations are out for the wedding of Miss Katherine McKenzie and Wallace Thayne Perham, to take place at the residence of A. G. Mackenzie, 67 Fifth East, next Wednesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Newhouse and party occupied two boxes at the Orpheum Tuesday night.

to her home in Spokane after a visit of some time with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. G. McMillan.

Mrs. Ernest A. Lambourne has returned, after spending several weeks in California.

Right Rev. Franklin S. Spaulding and Miss Sarah Spaulding have returned from a visit of several weeks in the east.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Dederichs left this week for Los Angeles.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Brady left this week for the coast.

Miss Josephine Botsford has returned to her home in Evanston, after a visit with her friends in the city.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Wiley are just home from a trip of a fortnight to Los Angeles and vicinity.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Adams and their son, Damon, are in San Francisco visiting the Damon family.

Miss Emma Ridgely of St. Louis is in the city visiting Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Brownlee.

Miss Ella Stickney is back from a stay in Southern California.

Mrs. W. H. Alexander has returned from Los Angeles, after spending the better part of the winter there.

Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Cole are back from St. George and are now at the Manitou.

Miss Marie Luce returned Wednesday after a month's visit in San Francisco.

Miss Leta McMillan, who is the guest of Miss Lella Trent in San Francisco, her home in Provo after a week's visit with relatives in this city.

Mrs. Stanley Stevens visited her parents in Logan this week.

The Misses Olive and Florence Gay are visiting relatives in Salt Lake.

Mrs. Ethel Olsen of Salt Lake was an Ogden visitor this week.

Mrs. F. N. Hess and Mrs. Frank Shaw spent several days at the capital this week.

Mrs. A. T. Wright, Sr., and Mrs. David C. Keesley delightfully entertained a number of friends at a prettily arranged euchre party on Tuesday afternoon at the home of the latter.

Toller's Dancing academy presented a very brilliant scene on Tuesday night, the occasion being the last of the series of dancing parties given by the Weber club. About 400 people were in attendance, and the affair proved to be one of the particularly bright social functions of the pre-Lenten season. The hall was decorated with palms, and punch was served during the evening.

The W. S. G. of the Baptist church was delightfully entertained on Wednesday afternoon by Mrs. Hastings, at her home, 227 Grant avenue, and the affair may well be classed among the brightest of the week's social events. An unusually pleasant literary afternoon was spent in discovering the names of authors in hidden letters. A very pretty favor, a trophy of the contest, was awarded to Mrs. Barrows. Dainty refreshments were served, and all spent a pleasant afternoon. Mrs. Cook and Mrs. Barrows will entertain the same circle in two weeks at the home of the latter.

Mrs. Eugene H. Smith was hostess on Tuesday afternoon at a very pleasantly arranged euchre party, the scene of the charming affair being at her home on Twenty-eighth street. After cards and awarding of prizes, a dainty luncheon was served, the menu, decorations and appointments being of the nicest description. About 50 guests enjoyed the occasion.

Mrs. A. L. Wilson left on Sunday last for a visit with friends in California.

C. H. Calland, accompanied by his wife, took a trip to the Ogden-Lucan cut-off Sunday last.

Mrs. W. M. Lofthouse and daughter of Sacramento, are visiting with the former's sister, Mrs. A. L. Morehead, at 2637 Lincoln avenue.

C. B. Miller of Denver is the guest of A. Y. Ross in Ogden.

Dr. R. R. Hampton of Salt Lake is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Hampton in Ogden.

Miss Clara Stewart, Mr. and Mrs. Pinkerton, all of Salt Lake, visited Mrs. Walter Miller at the Virginia on Sunday last.

Walter Poulton, organist at the Ogden tabernacle, was in Salt Lake on Tuesday last.

H. H. Spencer and family have returned from the coast, where they went with the Elks, coming home ahead of that body, and report having had a most enjoyable time.

Albert Snowcroft of the John Snowcroft & Sons company, entertained a number of employees of that establishment at luncheon at the Reed cafe on Wednesday evening. Those present were: William J. Ure, John C. Ure, Tom Nielson, Mabel Conger, Lillian Chamberlain, Agnes Hoxer, Yeda Box, Arvilla West, Laura Larson, Mrs. Rose Lloyd, Mabel Jensen, Lizette Smith and Jessie Lockhead.

A farewell party for Bert Foulger, who will shortly leave on a mission to South Africa, was given on Friday evening under the auspices of the mutual improvement association.

The Nineteenth century club celebrated its fifteenth anniversary today at the Hotel Roberts, where a sumptuous banquet was served and a program of toasts and responses enjoyed.

The Sorosis met Wednesday with Mrs. R. R. Irvine, Jr., and enjoyed two interesting papers, one by Mrs. J. H. Stanger on Marconi, and one by Mrs. Margaret Maxwell on Goethe. On next Wednesday the club will celebrate its eleventh anniversary at the home of Mrs. Irvine. Mrs. Martha Royce King will be present and will present a paper on "Woman as Musician and Composer." In addition an interesting musical and literary program will be rendered and a dinner will be given.

The Pallas club met Thursday evening with Miss Theresa Armistead in a very enjoyable session, devoted to reading and art work. Refreshments were served.

The Priscilla club met with Miss May Thurman Thursday. The evening was devoted to art and social matters. Dainty refreshments were served.

The Sixth ward M. L. A. sewing club met Thursday evening with Miss Hannah Dunn. Delicious refreshments were served.

The Bonnie Brier club met Friday evening with Miss Emma Looze. An exceptionally pleasant session was held. Dainty refreshments were served.

The dedication of the magnificent new home of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Knight on East Center street Thursday night was an event long to be remembered by those who attended. With the exception of President Joseph F. Smith and wife, President A. H. Lund, and President dent and Mrs. Frank Y. Taylor of Salt Lake, and a few intimate Provo friends, the guests, who numbered about 50, evening passed in a delightful manner. In inspecting and admiring the beautiful home, tastefully and profusely decorated with white and pink carnations, as well as white and pink carnations, and the enjoyment of an elegant luncheon.

One of the pleasantest social functions of the season was an at home given by Mrs. Reed Smoot Tuesday afternoon, attended by a large number of her beautiful home were profusely and tastefully decorated with daffodils, music, song and the charming hospitality of Mrs. Smoot, assisted by her daughters, diffused a beautiful social spirit, which made the occasion an exceptionally enjoyable one. Exquisite refreshments were served.

The Orpheum club gave one of its charming dancing soirees in the First ward social hall, Wednesday evening.

Mrs. D. D. Houtz gave an informal soiree Wednesday evening in honor of Prof. John M. Mills of Salt Lake. At the close of Prof. Mills' lecture a number of friends spent the remainder of the evening at Mrs. Houtz's and enjoyed a social hour and a delicious supper.

Mrs. Louisa McBride visited her son, Dr. J. F. Noyes at American Fork early in the week.

Mrs. Charles Walsh of Solpico has visited Provo friends this week.

Mrs. Celestin Strong has returned from a visit to relatives in Heber.

The people of the First ward enjoyed a very pleasant ward soiree in the Social hall Thursday night. An interesting program was rendered, and delicious refreshments served.

Mrs. H. A. Labhardt of Salt Lake formerly Miss Florence Johnson of this city, is here visiting relatives and friends.

Miss Elvey Armitstead entertained a number of friends at a candy pull Wednesday evening. Music and games were enjoyed.

Mrs. Eva Grow of Salt Lake visited her niece, Mrs. Reed Smoot, the past week.

Mrs. C. A. Eldredge and Miss Mary Eldredge of Salt Lake have been the guests of Mrs. Reed Smoot this week.

The Misses Emily and Helen Whitney and Mr. Winslow Smith of Salt Lake City were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Dusenberry this week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Stoker entertained at a charming card party Monday evening. Delicious refreshments were served.

A surprise party given by a number of friends of Lee Warner, in his honor at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Warner, Wednesday evening, was a very enjoyable affair. Refreshments were served.

Mrs. J. M. Jensen and Mrs. O. W. Hyde visited relatives in Alpine this week.

The First ward choir entertained all the ward choirs of the city at the First ward social hall Monday evening. Dancing was enjoyed and tempting refreshments served.

Mrs. Ida Smoot Dusenberry was in Salt Lake Wednesday, attending the birthday anniversary of Mrs. Emmeline B. Wells.

Miss Nellie Clyde, accompanied by Miss Lyle Glazier, visited relatives in Heber this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Busath of Salt Lake are visiting in Provo.

The kindergarten students of the Brigham Young university and escorts gave a pleasing soiree Sunday evening, at the home of Mrs. C. A. Glazier in honor of Leo Brown, lately returned from a mission. The evening passed in a delightfully social manner. Refreshments were served.

The student body of the B. Y. U. gave one of its enjoyable parties in gymnasium hall Friday evening.

The 1905 B. Y. U. students gave a delightful soiree in gymnasium hall Thursday evening, attended by many students and friends.

Miss Hilda Rasmussen has returned after spending several weeks in Salt Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Twelves have returned after a pleasant visit to California.

Mrs. Nels Markman was the pleasing hostess at a soiree at her home Monday evening. About 30 friends enjoyed an evening of social chat, music and recitations. Refreshments were served.

Mr. Sid Vincent, Jr., was the recipient of a pleasant surprise party at his home Tuesday evening. Games, music and the partaking of refreshments were enjoyed by a large number of friends.

Miss Maud Wright of Payson was the guest of Miss Lydia Knudsen this week.

Misses Julia Strong and Annie Rason charmingly entertained a number of their friends Monday evening at the

A SPRING SUIT.

The black and white checked skirt illustrated is an attractive design carried out in alternate plaided fans and panels. The belt is of black taffeta exceedingly plain and tailorish in finish save for the much tucked sleeves.

rooms were effectively decorated, and present were Miss Maude Fitch, Miss Alice Goodwin, Miss Louise Sullivan, Miss May Kerwin, Miss Beatrice Cheesman, Miss Jenna Budd Geddes, Miss Stella McIntyre, Miss Mary Moore, Miss Lella Stingley, Miss Almee Best.

One of the pleasant affairs of Thursday was the dancing party given at the Manitou, the hostesses and Mrs. La Forge and Mrs. W. L. Green joining with the guests of the hotel in giving a delightful evening. The dining hall was used for dancing, and decorated with palms and ferns, and punch and a buffet supper were served. About 200 were present.

Mrs. P. J. Moran entertained at a delightful afternoon party at her new home today.

Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Hayward entertained at a delightful dinner at the Commercial club on Thursday, the was the luncheon and bridge party given by Mrs. Frank Swinder, the decorations being in red and white tulips, and prizes in the card contest going to Mrs. Robert Glendinning and Mrs. Adolf Baer.

Mrs. Roscoe Channing entertained at bridge on Wednesday in honor of Miss Burke—about 16 guests being present. The rooms were in white and green, tulips, ferns and green-shaded candles being used. Prizes went to Mrs. Robert Gould Smith, Miss Maude Thorn, Miss Addie Zane and Miss Katherine Geddes.

An interesting event of the week was the wedding of Miss Florence Cunningham and Mr. William Tozier, the affair taking place on Tuesday at the home of the bride on First street, and the young couple leaving afterward for a trip to the coast. A bridal luncheon was served, the decorations being in American Beauty and La France roses, and only members of the family being present. The bride wore a handsome gown of blue broadcloth, and her bridesmaid, Miss Alice Cunningham wore Nile green and white. Mr. Charles Pratt was best man.

Mrs. William Lynch entertained her card club this week.

Mrs. T. G. Griffin was hostess on Tuesday at a bridge tea, Mrs. H. D. Niles and Mrs. E. W. Packard assisting in serving refreshments. The decorations were in green and yellow, and the tables and rooms in French design. About 20 guests were present, and prizes were won by Mrs. Joseph Gallagher and Mrs. J. R. Ferguson.

Mrs. H. T. Sappington and Mrs. A. T. Moon were hostesses at a pleasant afternoon reception on Tuesday in honor of Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Bagby.

Mrs. L. Brooks Vincent, the celebrated Northland lecturer, author and composer of the opera, "Which of the Woods," which is to be produced at the Salt Lake Theater on Saturday, March 10, will give box-parties at both afternoon and evening performances.

Miss Katherine Geddes was one of those who entertained in honor of Miss Burke this week, her affair being a luncheon at which about a half dozen guests were entertained. Yellow tulips decorated the table and present bouquets the guests of honor were Mrs. R. H. Channing, Mrs. Ernest Bamberger, Mrs. George J. Gibson, Mrs. Lewis McCormick, Miss Addie Zane, Miss Dermitt.

A large and delightful dancing party was given at Armory hall on Monday night by the First Battery, N. G. U., the hall being artistically arranged with flags and military devices, and the entire affair being successful.

Mr. F. J. Schmidt was host at an elaborate dinner at the Emery-Holmes on Monday night, the table being decorated in pink roses and ferns, while an American beauty rose was laid at each place attached to the place-card by a white ribbon which bore the name of the guest in gilt letters. The party attended the Orpheum afterward and later enjoyed supper at the Commercial club.

Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Cook entertained at cards on Monday in honor of their sister, Miss Florence Cunningham whose marriage to William Tozier took place this week. The rooms were prettily decorated in Japanese style, and about 25 guests were present, among them Mr. and Mrs. Will Ray, Mr. and Mrs. Lucian Ray, Mrs. Roy Romney, Dr. and Mrs. S. W. Downey,

A RED VELVET GOWN.

The gown illustrated is of Indian red velvet, that new shade that is having such a vogue in Paris. The beauty of the costume depends upon the exquisite lines of the long coat and of the well cut skirt. Around the neck is an empiement of English embroidery and a jabot of lace.

COMINGS AND GOINGS

Mrs. John E. Hansen and children have gone to Long Beach for a stay of several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Burton are expected home from Los Angeles tomorrow.

Mrs. Simon Bamberger and Miss Helen Bamberger will be home from New York early next week.

Mrs. F. S. Bascom has just returned from a stay of a few weeks in the east.

Mrs. Elizabeth H. Dunbar and her daughters, and Miss Allie Miller, left this week for Los Angeles, where they will spend some time.

Miss Jasmine Young will leave for New York today to attend the wedding of Miss Ruth Kirkpatrick and Walter Stone.

Mr. and Mrs. James Ingebreton have returned from their wedding trip, and are at home at Whitehall.

Charles Reed returned this week from Manila, where he has spent the last few months with Mr. and Mrs. Albert R. Hager.

John Reed will be here the last of the week from Denver to join Mrs. Reed.

Howard S. Stowe has returned from Denver, after a visit of a month there.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Newhouse left for the east this week.

Mrs. Gustave Luelwitz has returned

Mellin's Food and good fresh milk is a combination that is hard to improve upon for a baby's food. Strong, healthy, rugged children, full of life and vitality, are the results of using Mellin's Food. Send for our free book of "Mellin's Food Babies."

The ONLY Infant's Food receiving the GRAND PRIZE at St. Louis, 1904. Gold Medal, Highest Award, Portland, Ore. 1905.

MELLIN'S FOOD CO., BOSTON, MASS.

will leave there shortly for Spokane to visit her sister, Mrs. Luelwitz.

Charles Deere and Schiller Hostford arrived during the week to visit Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Kiser.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Buckingham and their guests, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. D. Foster, and Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Murray, who have been in southern California, have returned.

Mrs. D. Moore Lindsay expects to leave in April for London, where she will spend several weeks with her son.

Mrs. Pennell Cherrington will leave next week for Los Angeles, where she will visit with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Smith have gone to Los Angeles to spend several weeks.

Mrs. Joseph Rawlins and Miss Alta Rawlins have returned from Los Angeles, where they have been spending the past two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Voorhees returned Wednesday after 10 days spent in San Francisco and Sacramento.

Mrs. B. A. McMillan is home from a trip to California and old Mexico.

OGDEN.

Miss Hattie Wishardt of Salt Lake was an Ogden visitor this week.

Miss Helen Wenger, who is attending school in Salt Lake, spent Saturday and Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Wenger.

Mrs. L. M. Alexander and two daughters have returned to their home in Fresno, Cal., after a pleasant visit of a few weeks with Mrs. Van Dam and Miss Katy Harris.

Mrs. Clarence S. Gunnell spent Thursday in Salt Lake.

Mrs. Mary J. Davis is back from a visit of several months with friends in Indiana, and is at home with her daughter, Mrs. Horace Foster.

The Ladies' Aid society of the First M. E. church held a very pleasant first meeting on Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. G. Paine.

A very enjoyable card party was given by Wasatch lodge 350, Brotherhood of Railway Carmen, at the Eagles' hall on Thursday evening.

Winslow Smith of Salt Lake was an Ogden visitor Wednesday.

Mrs. Ferry Decker has returned to

PROVO.

The Nineteenth century club celebrated its fifteenth anniversary today at the Hotel Roberts, where a sumptuous banquet was served and a program of toasts and responses enjoyed.

The Sorosis met Wednesday with Mrs. R. R. Irvine, Jr., and enjoyed two interesting papers, one by Mrs. J. H. Stanger on Marconi, and one by Mrs. Margaret Maxwell on Goethe. On next Wednesday the club will celebrate its eleventh anniversary at the home of Mrs. Irvine. Mrs. Martha Royce King will be present and will present a paper on "Woman as Musician and Composer." In addition an interesting musical and literary program will be rendered and a dinner will be given.

The Pallas club met Thursday evening with Miss Theresa Armistead in a very enjoyable session, devoted to reading and art work. Refreshments were served.

The Priscilla club met with Miss May Thurman Thursday. The evening was devoted to art and social matters. Dainty refreshments were served.

The Sixth ward M. L. A. sewing club met Thursday evening with Miss Hannah Dunn. Delicious refreshments were served.

The Bonnie Brier club met Friday evening with Miss Emma Looze. An exceptionally pleasant session was held. Dainty refreshments were served.

The dedication of the magnificent new home of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Knight on East Center street Thursday night was an event long to be remembered by those who attended. With the exception of President Joseph F. Smith and wife, President A. H. Lund, and President dent and Mrs. Frank Y. Taylor of Salt Lake, and a few intimate Provo friends, the guests, who numbered about 50, evening passed in a delightful manner. In inspecting and admiring the beautiful home, tastefully and profusely decorated with white and pink carnations, as well as white and pink carnations, and the enjoyment of an elegant luncheon.

One of the pleasantest social functions of the season was an at home given by Mrs. Reed Smoot Tuesday afternoon, attended by a large number of her beautiful home were profusely and tastefully decorated with daffodils, music, song and the charming hospitality of Mrs. Smoot, assisted by her daughters, diffused a beautiful social spirit, which made the occasion an exceptionally enjoyable one. Exquisite refreshments were served.

The Orpheum club gave one of its charming dancing soirees in the First ward social hall, Wednesday evening.

Mrs. D. D. Houtz gave an informal soiree Wednesday evening in honor of Prof. John M. Mills of Salt Lake. At the close of Prof. Mills' lecture a number of friends spent the remainder of the evening at Mrs. Houtz's and enjoyed a social hour and a delicious supper.