The Evening paper is the paper of Today, the morning paper is the paper of Yesterday.

DESERET EVENING NEWS.

5 O'clock -EDITION.-

TRUTH AND LIBERTY.

NO. 162. MONDAY, JUNE 5, 1893, SALT LAKE CITY, UTAH. VOL. XXVIII.

A TERRIFIED PASHA.

Lord Kinkaid of the San Francisco Tells Him

A DISRESPECT AMERICAN CITIZENS.

The Presence of United States Menof-War Probably Prevents a Massacre in Beyrout, Syria.

BOSTON, MASS., June 5.—A private dispatch received in this city from Beyrout, Syria, under date of May 7, contains the following important statement:

The United States men-of-war in port have caused quite a stir. Yesterday the Marblehead, came to anchor, but she met the San Francisco and Kearsarge and the admiral asked the San Francisco coal for the Turkish yacht to come down to Latakia to Mersina to meet him, and yesterday a very plain talking to about treat for American citizens. The admiral (Kinkaid) is a big bluff and jolly sailor, but he is no bullyer a Turk, and he did it in style. The Turks have popular sixty shots of late. Great excitement were created in Beyrout by Triple here had fears of a visit by the Marblehead and it is thought the arrival of the triple prevented the arrival of the Marblehead.

THE SULTAN PROMISES.

CONSTANTINOPLE, June 5.—The Turkish government has promised the ambassadors of the powers that full satisfaction will be given for the attitude and behavior of the Turkish gendarmes at Smyrna who recently caused the massacre occasioned by the Armenian and attempted to arrest and imprisonment and need insults and outrages towards the foreign representatives.

Telegraphed for Sunday.

NEW YORK, June 5.—Frank Sherman, professional pedestrian, has arrived in New York, having walked from Chicago in twenty-five days on a bet or wager, beating out off five days from his previous record.

Disabled Steamer Towed In.

NEW YORK, June 5.—The Anchor steamer Furnessia, from Glasgow, and touch of Fire Island today, towed the British steamer Kansas from Mediterranean ports for New York. In Boston yesterday, which she had left Havre, reported being adrift in the Atlantic on May 25 in a. m. June 1, off Nantucket with engines broken.

THE HOT WAVE.

High Temperature and Prostrations Numerous in Chicago.

CHICAGO, June 5.—The government thermometer registered 87 at 10 a. m. and 90 at noon. It was reached in this city an hour. A good breeze alleviated the suffering but prostrations are numerous.

BOSTON, June 5.—At noon the thermometer registered 92 in the shade, with the temperature rising. Notwithstanding the heat not one prostration was noted up to noon.

Stalled from the Suicide Club.

NEW YORK, June 5.—Frank Smith, who held the office of treasurer of the Jersey City suicide club since it organized last winter, has been expelled from membership in the society for having violated a rule of the order. He can hold a picnic on Memorial day during the evening a meeting was held. The members drew to decide who to commit suicide before midnight. The drawing was done strictly, and as each member drew a lot he signed. Smith drew the lot, slip and at once disappeared. Of the more fortunate members report their publication. Smith did not return to his home that night and he thought that he had killed himself, but later made his appearance and he is high spirits. He said he had decided that life was still worth the song. His club associates were displeased at Smith's weakness and unanimously voted to expel him.

Wanted to Drown the Kittens.

GARRETT, Ind., June 5.—James Ryan, a farmer, went to White River near by to drown some kittens. He is waiting into the stream, when he was stamped and he fell and was drowned. The kittens came back home.

Killed by a Practical Joker.

GUANABACOA, CUBA, June 5.—Mr. Simpson, the man who was so grievously injured at the fountain in the swimming pool here last evening, died at his residence Sunday afternoon. It is the opinion of the physicians that when he dived into the stream of water he was not much more than a foot high, but while on it he inflicted an injury from turn on the water pipe, which was a pressure of 160 pounds to an inch. This is practical the loss of a human life.

Searching for Survivors.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 5.—An Excelsior express from the City of Mexico says treasure parties are still in search of survivors of the Colima disaster.

Lead parties, mounted and armed, are searching in the vicinity of Ixtlahuacan, Zacatula, and as far as Colima Station, while the people all along the coast of Acapulco have formed a committee of the disaster, and have been ordered to take particular care to patrol the beach wherever possible.

Northern Pacific Reorganization.

NEW YORK, June 5.—Chairman Lloyd D. Adams, of the Northern Pacific reorganization committee who arrived from Europe on Saturday, today to an Associated Press reporter: "I was called abroad unexpectedly to confer and had a conference in London with J. Pierpont Morgan, representatives of the Deutsche bank, and Great Northern railroad interests. After that I went to Berlin and conferred with our separate Northern Pacific committees. All I care to say now is that I have returned with full authority to continue my work in the reorganization of a plan for the reorganization of the Northern Pacific.

Passenger by Bandits.

SHANGHAI, June 5.—Intelligence has been received that between May 29 and May 31, the French Catholic and English and American missionary property at Ching Fou, the capital of the province of Szechuan, western China, was destroyed by robbers. The missionaries are reported safe.

Will Reserve the Survey.

NEW YORK, June 5.—A special to the Herald from Lima says: Senor Rivas and Nicaraguan engineers, it is reported, will resume the boundary survey with President Cleveland's decision for a basis.

Will Not Meet Philadelphia.

CHICAGO, June 5.—The Columbians will not compete with the University of Michigan athletes in a dual meet this spring. After the legislation against Gray and Hallstandup and Manager Norris of the Athletic club, just see to Goldsmith's Turk, and he is in style. The Turks have popular sixty shots of late. Great excitement were created in Beyrout by Triple here had fears of a visit by the Marblehead and it is thought the arrival of the triple prevented the arrival of the Marblehead.

THE SULTAN PROMISES.

CONSTANTINOPLE, June 5.—The Turkish government has promised the ambassadors of the powers that full satisfaction will be given for the attitude and behavior of the Turkish gendarmes at Smyrna who recently caused the massacre occasioned by the Armenian and attempted to arrest and imprisonment and need insults and outrages towards the foreign representatives.

Telegraphed for Sunday.