Judge Tanner of the city court has dismissed the two suits filed by Carrie A. Grey against George Silks et al, and A. A. Gibson, upon stipulations entered into by the parties to the actions. The complaints alleged that plaintiff entrusted her husband, J. A. Grey, with $775 of her money which he lost in gambling. Gibson, it is claimed, won $600 and Siks won $175 from the erring husband and the suits were brought to recover the amounts.

TEACHERS ENTERTAINED.

Excursion and Inspection of Park City Mines Proved Very Instructive,

The teachers' excursion to Park City The teachers' excursion to Park City on Saturday was a success in every re-spect and was enjoyed by about 300 Sait Lake pedagogues. The excursion was run in two sections, one leaving at 8 o'clock and the other at 8:30, and returning to this city about 7 o'clock in the evening. The Park City teachers had arranged a lunch at the Central school, which was highly appreciated by the visitors. After a brief address of welcome by Senator Kearns, the teachers were taken to the Silver King, Daly-Judge and Ontario mines, about 100 visiting each mine. The arrangement at the mines for their inspection was perfect and ev-erything that needed an explanation was explained to the visitors by miners who acted as guides. At the Daly-Judge, the teachers who visited that mine were hauled in mule cars through the long tunnel to the main shaft, which is sunk from the top of the moun-tain. They were then holsted to the top and invited into the mine dining room, where a full course dinner was served. They were then taken down in, to the mine again and completed the inspection and each given a specimen of ore. The arrangements at the other mines were equally as elaborate and the inspection as profitable. The visitors left Fark City about 5 o'clock, and, on on Saturday was a success in every retime has since expired and he is now at liberty. The securing of a new trial for Rob-ert L. King, who was convicted with James Lynch of the murder to which Strange confessed, is due hargely to the efforts of the Italian Consul, Gulseppe Cunco, of Denver. Consul Cunco ex-presses his satisfaction over the ac-tion of the supreme court of this state in granting King a new trial in the following language: "The people of Utah and the repre-sentiatives of the having granted to the unfortunate man a new trial in order that he may prove his innocence. Utah will have udded another page of justice to its history and the prayers of a mother in a faraway land will rise to the Supreme Being to protect the people of Utah and its magnantimous and just court.

people of Utah and its magnanimous and just court. "I have interested myself in this case not so much because King was an Italian, but because he was an inno-cent man. He has now spent nearly three years in the death cell for a crime which he never committed. I have worked for him in the cause of humanity and am much pleased that he has been granted a new trial!"

Pruise ye His name. Elder Nephi L. Morris was the speak-er. He referred to the attitude of the world with respect to the principles of Christianity and noted with regret that despite a lapse of 20 centuries since these glorious principles were first re-vented, there still existed a woefful un-bellef concerning them, an unbellef which had characterized every dispen-sation and generation since that time. In comparatively early times the Mo-saic law had to be substituted for the Gospel of Jeaus Christ because, for-sooth, the people proved their inability to live it. This law was given as a schoolmaster to bring us unto Christ, and continued until He came and in-stituted the higher or more perfect law. Cannot be done unless you have good nealth. Reautiful Complexions.

In the early days of Rome conditions were such that toll and industry were regarded as uppermost, and thrones and worldly power were spurned for the more humble station in life. But when Jesus came conditions were vast-ly different for there had sprung up among them a desire for worldly honor and the people kenerally were ambitious for distinction among men. Effer Morris referred to the brith and life of the Redeemer and to His subsequent assassination by wicked men. While in life He was taunted and despised, but on his doath He became honored and men were willing fo adopt Him as their ideal. They then became imbued with a new idea of motherhood, they honored labor as of yore and there dawned upon them a new era of re-ligious liberty. Such was the subse-quent result of the mission of Jesus Christ. He became the temporal Savior of mankind, being the sanctity of the home and the dignity of honest upil. View Him as you will, either as the Messiah or simply as a great teacher, the admission must be made that the world was made better for His having lived.... A BONANZA IN ANY HOME. Hard Times Book

In all parts of the world there always have been and still are found certain persons, many gifted by nature, who have discovered and learned how to use simple home remedies for all the ills of the flesh. Some of these persons become very expert in the cure of disease. These "experts" are generally nurses, though not always, or mothers of large families, who have acquired skill by long experience. The fact had often been expressed that if some one would obtain and bring together from all over this and other countries all of these simple remedies and the method of applying them, he would confer upon mankind a boon equal to any invention of any age equal to any invention of any age, one the value of which could hardly be esti-mated in dollars and cents. To do this of course would involve immense fabor and much expense, which naturally would deter almost anyone from making the attempt. It however remained for the publish-ers of a book known as "Vitalogy" to undertake this hereoliean task they undertake this hereulean task they bringing out a book under this title. In 1865 they began their labors. After 1866 they began (neir labors. After gleaning this country and Europe they found in Japan remedies that were re-garded of extraordinary value, and the Japanese method of applying them made these simple remedies still more valuable. After more than 30 years of releasing them being function to the world in "Vitalogy" a volume whose practical value can hardly be measured practical value can hardly be measured by money. In fact it must prove a "bonanza" in any home. It can truly be termed a "Hard Times Book" for there is scarce-ly a family in this land to whom it would not prove a saving of many dol-lars each year during their whole fives. The more needy a family is, or the harder the times are, the more valu-able this book is to them. The value of this book lies not alone in saving money, and saving suffering

The value of this book lies not alone in saving money, and saving suffering and often life itself; there is another consideration that is of no less impor-tance, for it will be the means of pre-venting people from taking drugs into the system. As the Japanese would say, "taking an unknown medicine into an unknown stomach to produce an un-known effect." known effect.

Drugs generally leave a deposit in the body that weakens or injures it for the rest of life. We often take medi-cine and think that the medicine cures by Yot we weak well is make of the Yet we get well in spite of the medicine. The following is a pertinent para-graph from the writings of the late Dr. B. F. Clayton: "No greater imposition could be practised on the people than to foist uron them the so-called Family Doctor Bocks found in almost every home, that advise drug remedies which only a trained physician is capable of prescribing. If some one would bring out a tock of Home Benerative remedies preactibing. If some one would bring out a took of Home Remedies, regular grandmether's remedies, he would have something that would be a blessing in every home?"

The literary division of this book is, too, of special importance, as every part of it is of actual money value to the reader.-Morning Chronicle, to such a remarkable extent brought forth the question that it whether civilization was actually civilizing. Ian Maclaren had declared that there was a growing reverence for the Re-deemer of mankind. However, in the desmer of mankind. However, in the light of higher criticism, such a condi-tion did not seem to appear, for there were some sects and denominations that taught their communicants that there was no real need to look upon the Sactor's mission as during. These the Savior's mission as divine. These teachings did not seem to carry out the declaration of Dr. Watson.

decharation of Dr. Watson. The speaker referred to a little work written by Canon Farrar, in which he shattered three of the cherished beliefs of orthodox Christendom. The work consisted of essays on eternal life and the glory of a hope beyond the grave. When first delivered to the world they shook the anglican church from center to circumference, but despite this the same truths were expounded by the Prophet Joseph Smith 40 years before and had been preached even in England many years previous to their delivery many years previous to their delivery by Canon Farrar. He attributed his inspiration for the thought to the teachinspiration for the thought to the teach-ings of an early tutor named Morris, but the fact remained that the doctrine of baptism for the dead had the hope of a redemption beyond the grave, was rather ancient at the time it was ex-pounded by Dr. Farrar. His denuncia-tion of a material hell he evidently got from the poet Milton, of whose works he was an ardent admirer. This also had been taught for years previous, due to its introduction by the Prophet Joneph, who likewise exploded the fai-lacious doctrine of an endless punish-ment, as greatly cherished by the de-nominationg of the present day. This great depression? These symptoms may be followed by violent headache. high fever, extreme nervousness, a condition known as malaria. Herbine cures it. Take it before the disease gets a fair hold, though it will work a cure in any stage. J. A. Hopkins. Manchester, Kan., writes: "I have used your great medicine. Herbine, for sev-eral years. There is nothing better for malaria, chills and fever, headache. billiousness, and for a blood-purifying tonic, there is nothing as good." 500 at Z. C. M. I. The speaker expressed great respect for Canon Farrar and others of his class who had done much to uplift hu-manity and in conclusion quoted the words of the Prophet Joseph as to the stability and permuneater of the medi stability and permatency of the work of God, and hore testimony that no power on earth could stay its progress. The choir sang the anthem, "In Our Redeemer's Name" and the benediction was pronounced by Elder Charles W. Penrose.

Cause of Lockjaw.

Cause of Lockjaw. Lockjaw, or tetanus, is caused by a bacillus or germ which exists pientiful-ly in street dirt. It is inactive so long as exposed to the air, but when carries beneath the skin, as in the wounds caused by percussion caps or by rusty nails, and when the ni. is excluded the germ is roused to activity and produces the most virulent poison known. These germs may be destroyed and all dan-ger of lockjaw avoided by appiying Chamberlain's Pain Balm freely as soon as the injury is received. Pain Baim is an antiseptic and causes such injuries to heal without maturation and in one-third the time required by the in one-third the time required by the usual treatment. It is for sale by all druggists.
