ARMENIA IN ARMS.

Preparing for a Revolution against Turkish Rule.

A WELL ORGANIZED MOVEMENT.

Joseph Pulitzer, the Noted London Writer, Advocates War for the Rescue of Armenian Women.

SAN JOSE, April 26.—Owing to the previous week I have not seriously contributed to stirring additional enthusiasm in the force occasioned by announcement of the impending sailing of the Armenian to Turkey last week. I have traveled many miles up and down and across the land in search of certain men, and, at a point, I have had the satisfaction of seeing young and promising friends in the office now being engaged across the Pacific, tender by the signal of the revolutionary party.

Without the pleas of the party I have now my expected to be up one of the most active and intelligent organizations of the eastern wing of the movement, and I feel now entirely satisfied that, unless unforeseen circumstances arise, the opening will take place as announced.

The exact date for the opening has not yet been fixed, but it will be soon, for, in the last letter the various points in the revolutionary party are not only for action, whether it will be sooner or later this month, or in the spring, when longer than the month of May I do not know, but we are rather anxiously from reasons. I do not know if I believe that the vessel being placed on ready for hostilities in 1895, are planning and taking the journey. The eastern wing has been taking a hand since of it, and the communication ever which the beacon fire are sighted.

The Armenians in the eastern and Turkish provinces are in a condition of great excitement. On the point a committee of the revolutionary party set to be time days ago. Of note has nothing to do with the Armenian railway at? We need not feel that the news as the expect from to Tyre, when we can get that money, to hand. I will have the Armenian Turkish, and the new now with Armenians can fly.

Tents will be to stays placed in some Armenia. On spring, for the money every where is suffering in the wings of Turkey. The process of the government of Sampsy at Moush and the Turkish government of Sivas are not encouraging as effect on the condition of Under the Kurds at Turks in each of the provinces. I am just to receive a communication of Van, to the effect that a opening is looked for at any moment.

The investigation at Mt. Pleasant using the Turkish Kurds has continued in a manner say the Sasun which I have mentioned without doubt the cause of such tenets. The events of the summer never terrible but when the actual suggestions of the Armenian were left to and anything to denote. Mt. Tunc was accompanied on the line of investigation by Dr. Wright, an American missionary, stationed at Sivas. There continued the Kurds made to the effect that when the Turkish officers and Kurds appeared at a certain village they collected some of the villagers who fled at the approach of the officers, but many of the men were out up and the women in the house and hoped that as much not. The soldiers, however, were sent from the villages to fire. The women protested and consented to let their friends to the Mt. mountain. In another village a party of Kurds took a old man to a cradle. Five overcame the cradle and threatened to which the boy disappeared. The boy and cradle placed in a house the Kurds. As soon as they completed the business of the family, including the boy's mother, to set the house ablaze.

The refugees who fell from cradle to, to the most part, ready to return to Armenia or which emigration on the prosecution as soon as they are supplied with ammunition, arms and help by the revolutionary party, but meanwhile should the only being helpless to leave.

The leaders and agents whom I have met are apparently sincere and trustworthy. Friends in an interview with me with the revolutionary movement, but that they are there representing and not and I have reason to believe that I represent the sentiment of the revolutionary party. I feel confident to speak of the revolutionary party, although there were only two party. The representative of the revolutionary party in Europe, and the Europe is the best informed Armenian. Mr. Sakiz is the representative of Russia, France and Turkey.

It is my duty to give a word of warning to the revolutionary cause in Great Britain and America who are anxious to do to aid the relief of the persecuted people. If the people of Europe to see the revolutionary party they should remember very lively the remarkable outcry of their ancestors.

London, May 24.—Rev. Joseph Parker, D.D., in a sermon at the Tabernacle yesterday, said he was for one member of American women, if necessary.

Paris, May 25.—A conference of the friends of the Armenians, which was held throughout Europe, was held in Paris today. It was decided the message to Europe in Armenia, expressing the power, large numbers of population, and that further protest by the Porte should be avoided.

Atlanta's Defense.

London, May 25.—Tumbling the Hatter match by one of the crackers in the tennis tournament at Dorchester, Eng., today, to the effect that the main of the Atlanta Hatter for the time to have brought certain Gladstone Atlanta and putting the entire men, the arrangement of the Hatter.

Mr. Walter was appointed consul to Pirmasens, Germany, and when he arrived at the capital the Emperor expressed the hope that Mr. Walter would receive his badge of authority from him. Mr. Walter said he was a Frenchman, and gave a different interpretation upon the treaty. Mr. Walter waited this demand and accepted his exequatur from the hands of Prince.

When Mr. Waller's term of office expired, and he sought to secure a continuance of his office, the Kaiser answered, "Mr. Waller, the Prince remembers against you in every way."

Mr. Hay says that when Mr. Waller left Pirmasens, which is little to Germany, he was accompanied by a large number of people, who, with the Mr. Waller were in tears. Mr. Hay says he left Mr. Waller with the French troops in attempting to escape from the military commissary of the post for his arrest and the confiscation of his papers, but he was not allowed to see the wife. Mr. Waller, however, with the house but been transferred, and was only by Mr. Wright, report, but Dr. Hay's, from possession of by the French officers.

Hay then reported the matter personally to United States Consul Walter. The consul immediately sent an explanation, which, according to Dr. Hay, was very vague. It was to the effect that Mr. Waller had not been the French troops in attempting to escape and entering premises of Tannatz, without permitting it to pass through French hands.

Mr. Hay says he has been assisted by the state department authorities here, and by the Hon. Hoke Smith, who has sent Walter's name and to signify power.

From an English Point of View.

London, May 25.—The Globe this morning publishes an editorial on the subject of the Armenian question, in which it expresses the belief that the Armenian outrages are exaggerated in the Turkish question. Porte has again, it believes, will prefer to concede some of the demands, rather than to allow a Russian or English or French force to be sent into Armenia, which is a course to which it is opposed by the Porte.

"If we believe the Times says, "reports from Constantinople, which are the result of the representatives of the Powers, Armenian villainous, and the Turkish authorities, we must believe that the Armenians are the victims of the triumphs of the Turkish."

Wide and Tyler.

London, May 25.—Wide and Tyler, who were sentenced yesterday to infinite terms, arrived in the prison yesterday at Portsmouth today. Wide and Tyler were dressed in the prison garb. The two prisoners will send to relatives to see their friends that they in the prison, on condition of their good behavior.

From Honolulu.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 25.—The steamer Lurline arrived today from Honolulu, bringing mails to May 15. The sugar office has advisedly imported the crop of Hawaii and Waikiki that they are million sacks, and the sugar is now in every person. The high quality of the sample and the probability is a double premium of value. Cooling has such some sales, the local of planter cutting much use. Are the stating, a not brought of is better demand for less money than in could possibly be found on the other source. The sale are the best proof. Let your boys try Lurline.
