AROUND THE COURTS.

Three More Defendants Plead Before Judge Merritt Today.

MOTION FOR A NEW TRIAL.

Another List of Natural-ization—A Citation Matter in the Probate Court.

Chief Justice Merritt had an "interview" this morning with three other defendants who are awaiting trial at the present term of the Third district court.

ALLEGED FORGERY.

W. H. Barnett was arraigned and plead not guilty to three indictments charging him with forgery. Attorney Wm. Kahn will defend upon the trial, the date of which has not been yet set.

ACCUSED OF BURGLARY.

Samuel Grice plead not guilty to a charge of burglariously entering the butcher shop of James W. Wilson, on March 19th, and stealing therefrom.

Attorney C. W. Morse will defend when the case comes up for trial.

HOUSEBREAKING CHARGED.

A. L. Mair, indicted for breaking into the workshop of Tuddenham & Heath, on April 3rd, and stealing a set of carpenter's tools, the property of David B. McBride, also entered a plea of not guilty.

Attorney S. P. Armstong will defend.

WANTED A NEW TRIAL.

Motion for a new trial was argued in the case of the Brigham Young Trust Co. vs Henry Wagener. Attorneys H. W. Young and Bartow Ferguson representing the plaintiff and Attorney J. A. Williams the defendants. The grounds upon which the motion was based were newly discovered evidence, insufficiency of testimony to justify the verdict, and errors in law occurring at the trial.

The action was brought to recover the sum of $780 and costs, claimed to be due as the amount of the monthly rental ($65) of certain premises, situate in lot 4, block 65, plat "A," Salt Lake City survey, from October 1st, 1891, till November 1st, 1892. The trial took place before Chief Justice Merritt and a jury and a verdict was found for the plaintiff, for the amount named. To this the defendant takes exception and seeks a re-trial of the case.

The motion was overruled an exception taken and a stay of fifteen days granted.

OVERRULED.

M. J. Gray vs R. M. Wallace et al. Motion for a new trial argued, overruled and an exception taken. Attorney R. N. Smith represented the plaintiff and Powers and Stump the defendants.

TODAY'S PROBATE COURT.

Estate of J. M. Williamson, deceased. Hearing on petition for order authorizing executors to borrow certain funds. Petition denied.

Thomas Goodman estate. Hearing on petition for letters of administration. M. S. Woolley appointed administrator on filing a bond of $3,000.

Estate of Wm. C. Staines, deceased. Hearing on executors' account, which was allowed.

Estate of Thomas Cattle, deceased. Hearing on petition for letters of administration. O. A. Gibbs appointed administrator on filing a bond of $1,000.

Estate of John H. Rumel, deceased. Hearing on petition to set apart certain property to widow for allowance. Petition granted.

Estate of Eben Miller, deceased. Hearing on citation directing Glen Miller and Paul Hammer to appear before the court for examination.

The citation was issued on the petition of Joseph Miller, one of the heirs at law. Affiant stated therein that Messrs. Hammer and Miller "are suspected of having in their possession certain property belonging to the estate which they have concealed and are now withholding; also certain writings which affiant is informed and believes would lead to discuss the right, title and interest, or claim, of decedent to certain real property situate in Salt Lake county."

Attorneys John M. Zane and A. E. Pratt appeared in support of the petition; Attorney R. Hudson opposed the motion.

After a good deal of argument the Court held that the affidavit was insufficient, vacated the citation and dismissed the same.

JENNIE WILSON HEARD FROM.

Duplicating Her Mysterious Salt Lake Conduct at Butte, Montana.

Jennie Wilson, whose sad but mysterious experience in Salt Lake made her an object of pity, has been heard from again. She is now in Butte, Montana, whither she went to overtake her runaway husband. Of her career in Montana the Butte Inter-Mountain says:

A woman, who is evidently of Swedish or Norwegian birth, wandered this morning on lower Main street acting in a peculiar manner, and an officer, believing her to be demented, took her to the city jail. Shortly afterward the woman apparently recovered and the physician who was called said that she would be all right in a few hours. She was released and an officer escorted her to the house of G. Lowie, on South Main street, where she said she had been stopping for some days.

When near the place the woman was joined with another Swed it required the combined strength of two officers to hold her. The officers decided to take her to the county jail, and when one got as far as Park street she attempted to throw herself under the wheels of a street car, but was prevented from doing so by the officers, to whom she said she was tired of life.

Behind this sad story there is believed to be still another. The woman came here from Colorado about two weeks ago, and until last evening she seemed to be perfectly rational character, being very cheerful and lively. Last evening Mrs. Lewis, with whom she was temporarily stopping, says that a heavily-built, well dressed man called for her and the couple went out for a walk.

Mrs. Lewis did not see her after that last evening, and she is of the opinion that the woman was taken to some of the dens of the city and drugged. Her appearance would seem to indicate this and the officers are now making an investigation of the affair. The woman, in reply to questions, merely mentions the name Wilson, but whether that is her name or some other person to whom she refers, is not known.

The woman had recovered sufficiently this afternoon to converse intelligently, and importuned the jailor to release her. She says her name is Mrs. Jennie Wilson and that she is the wife of a railroad man. She would make no statement, however, of her actions, and it is likely that she will be released this evening.

HE WAS A BOGUS DOCTOR.

But an Expert of the First Water at Getting Cash on His Check.

Arrested at Green River Today.—He is Being Brought Back Here to Answer for His Work.

On Saturday last a smooth-mannered stranger about 35 years of age, of stocky build and German accent registered at the Templeton. To the attaches of the hotel he stated that he was a doctor and that he had come to Salt Lake from some place of uncertain location to remove a tumor from the body of a wealthy lady whose name he failed to give.

He was evidently a man of the world and his distinguished appearance made it an easy matter for him to get just about all he wanted. As a result the hotel is out of money. The Knoxford people are to mourning for a similar reason, while the Deseret Bank is reported to have cashed a worthless check for him on the endorsement of Dutrie, the famed South street tailor. As to the amount and particulars the bank officials when approached today were inclined to keep particulars to themselves.

This same "doctor," whoever he may be, is said to have had other victims both here and at Ogden. On Saturday night or Sunday he made good his escape from the city. An account of his operations while here was filed with the police and he was overtaken at Green River today and arrested. He will be brought back to Salt Lake tonight to answer for his wrong doing. He is known as Harry Leon alias Spiegel.

Will Start One at Ogden Also.

Miss Maud M. Babcock will take the train this evening for Ogden, where she will establish under the principalship of Miss Isabelle Salmon a branch of the Utah School of Physical Culture. The school will be held in the Fifth Ward Educational Institute. Miss Babcock's school in this city will reopen on Monday, Sept. 24th.

WEBER COUNTY.

Grain Yield and Acreage.—Sunday Meeting at Harrisville.

HARRISVILLE, Utah,
September 17, 1894.

Editor Deseret News:

Having been solicited to continue the crop reports as published in the NEWS last fall, I will say, the wheat yield from 46 jobs gives an average of 24 bushels to the acre. The present low price gives less cash returns per acre than former years, causing the farmers to engage in other pursuits as wage workers to pay taxes, etc., the county road work being a golden chance for this purpose. I shall be able to give a more accurate account of yield, acreage, etc., in another week, when threshing here will be done.

Yesterday (Sunday) we were favored with a visit from Elder L. W. Shurtliff, president of the Weber Stake of Zion, who addressed the Saints upon the nobility of example; while in company with the nobles of the earth and their peers in humanity, and by observing the words of wisdom, we exhibit a practical example of morality greater than words can utter. He spoke upon the high encomiums received by the Utah delegation at the Irrigation Congress at Denver and the pinnacle of fame Utah was occupying, in all of which we need to hold a level head, being humble and filled with gratitude to the Giver of all good. He delineated in a forcible manner the purity of elections, when the mothers could have a voice in the selection and election of officers; for they would not be bought to vote for disreputable candidates.

Yours,
F. L.

SUICIDED AT POCATELLO.

John Cannon, a Young Man at That Place, Puts a Bullet Through His Heart.

News has been received in this city announcing the suicide at Pocatello on Saturday last of John Cannon, a highly respected young man of that place. The deceased shot himself through the heart. He was about 22 years of age, and was well known in northern Utah. He was the son of Carl J. Cannon, and was employed as clerk in the Hyine & Fargo company's store. He was to have been married shortly but his own folks were opposed to said to be opposed to the match and desired him to break off the engagement. This he did not do, but seemed to be pondered over the matter until he concluded to end his life.

FOR THE BIG FAIR.

Every Baby in the Show to Receive a Prize.

OGDEN'S TRIPLETS TO BE THERE.

Great Display of Utah's Best Crop—Arrangements in Progress for the Exhibition.

It is now definitely decided that each baby on exhibition at the greatest of baby shows this year will receive a beautiful silver medal, a prize which can be kept through life as a charming souvenir of the day the baby represented a sprig of Utah's best crop. This will be tied to a ribbon and suspended on every baby's neck. A blank will be left on the medal for engraving the name of the little one.

Babies competing for the premium for weight alone should register at the store of H. Dinwoodey Furniture Co., but all others will only be required to be present on the day of the show and register on one grounds. Great interest is already manifested in this interesting exhibit, and the 200 babies expected to be present are already in long training for the occasion.

W. T. Monserrat has been appointed veterinary surgeon for the Utah Territorial Fair for 1894. Mr. Monserrat is a graduate of the Ontario Veterinary college—class of '89, and for four years was government veterinarian and inspector of stock on the Sandwich Islands.

Mrs. Kate Shiels, of Ogden, the mother of three daughters—triplets—has been asked to come to the Fair and show her wonderful children. They are three years old.

James H. Banks, the candy man, will also have the privilege of selling gum on the Fair grounds.

V. M. Pratt was allowed the privilege of selling vieking canes on the grounds.

The rate for running phonographs at the Fair has been fixed at $25 per phonograph.

The executive committee have decided not to permit stores at the Fair of 1894—that is, the side show business. The object is to protect the public in three ways—as much as possible, "fakes."

Democratic Meeting.

Prominent speakers will address the Eleventh ward Democrats this evening. The meeting will be held in the old school house (corner First South and Eighth East streets), at 8 o'clock.

Buried Today.

Funeral services were held this afternoon over the remains of the late Edward Lancaster. The services were held at the undertaking establishment of Hawes & Son.

University Examinations.

All students intending to attend the University of Utah should remember that the examinations for entrance to that institution will be held at the University building tomorrow, Wednesday, Sept. 19th, commencing at 9 o'clock a. m.

AMUSEMENTS.

IN OLD KENTUCKY—If there was any tender-foot who thought the good old days of the thousand dollar house were a thing of the past, and who mourned the decadence of the gallery god, that person had his eyes suddenly opened last evening. An audience crammed and jammed its way into the Theater, the like of which has not been seen for many and many a night. The crush was not confined to any part of the house, but every inch above and below was jammed, and the boys in the third circle hung over the dizzy height in a way that almost excited the horror of those below them. While mentioning the subject of the third gallery, it is not out of place to say that the theatre owes it to its patrons to keep the denizens of that quarter under somewhat better collection. Their antics last night passed the bounds of merriment, and became a positive nuisance; on another occasion when there is to be such a crush, half a dozen policemen or extra doorkeepers ought to be posted up there, not only to preserve better order but to prevent the chance of accident. Many people below were decidedly nervous last evening at the thought of what might happen if one of the iron supports that held the myriad of roosting boys were to give way, or one of them should lose his hold.

In Old Kentucky as a play is all that the printing promises; what more could be said? It is an ideal gallery play, but it interests the parquet as well, not because it has not plenty of trash in it, but because the scenery is very handsome, it is unconventional and it is well played. The racing episodes, the fire and the scene outside the race track—a genuine comedy track, by the way—all went with huge demonstrations of applause, and the results were simply terrific. The band of little darkies is another novelty, and while they are far from playing in perfect time, they make up a very lively scene. The best acting was that done by Miss Tabor, a very strong and fresh soubrette, and Edwards as Jim. Mr. Clark's Doolitle was also good, and Mr. Webster's old negro well portrayed. The remainder of the support is best described by the term "omnibus." The show goes again tonight and will certainly draw heavily again.

For Mrs. Nellie Belden.

There is a message at the Western Union office for Mrs. Nellie Belden.

The next session of the High Council of the Salt Lake Stake of Zion will be held Wednesday evening, September 19th, at half past 7 o'clock.

OGDEN.

OGDEN, UTAH, SEPT. 18, 1894.

Ex-Treasurer Helfrich.

Sheriff Bishop, accompanied by William V. Helfrich, ex-treasurer of Ogden city, arrived on the 11 a. m. train yesterday. Helfrich is here to answer to the charge of embezzlement to the amount of $20,000. He expects to give bonds and is quite hopeful of being acquitted. It is about two years since H. Helfrich left Ogden, during which time he states he has tried to lead an honorable life, so to the charge of embezzling $1,240 from his New York employers, has there been anything to the charge, the authorities would not have allowed him to leave N. Y. Only the case against him has been dismissed. It is not known at what time his case will come up for hearing.

County Court.

The county court had its regular weekly meeting; the county treasurer reports that there is a new $9,000 in the general fund, so the city and hall is overdrawn $905.75. The sum of $2,000 was ordered transferred from the general fund to a new fund. A resolution was passed authorizing the treasurer to refund $5 to persons who have redeemed property sold for taxes of 1893 in all cases where $5 as made of seven sales were paid, inasmuch as only $1 is to accrue as one of sale.

Mrs. G. S. Crawford and Lyman Crawford presented a claim of $10,000 against the county for damages in causing the death of Robert H. Crawford by negligence of Weber county and its employes, in leaving the old county road in a dangerous condition. County Attorney West recommended that the claim be rejected.

Notes.

On Thursday next, Sept. 20th, the Young Ladies' M. I. A. of Weber county will open a bar in the Slaymaker block. Lunch will be served under the direction of Mrs. Frank J. Cannon.

An open venire for thirty-five petit jurors for the next term of the Fourth district court was issued, returnable at 10 a. m., October 1st.
