THE TROOPS THAT WILL GO TO MANILA.

Bitter Among Pennsylvania Volunteers—Relief Ruse to be Executed—Warships to Build.

At Idaho Falls, Tuesday, an election for the purpose of deciding whether or not the town should be incorporated was held. Only 15 votes were cast, the entire light participating, and the result was in favor of incorporation, by a majority of 10.

Jerry T. Rose, president of the Rose Tree works at San Francisco, died. Rose came here from Washington per. He was one of the classes of veteran land locators who settled Oregon. Among the latter he was perhaps the most well known of all the pioneers land locators.

Foundation of the ancient Palatine hill, which stood at Port Townsend at a depth of 60 feet, was found by workmen while digging out that part of the block of Sherman and Kearsarge streets. It is supposed that the fortress was built by the Russian settlers who first occupied the place, and it was probably used as a place of refuge in case of attack by the Indians.

Following is a list of the twelve members of the Cuban Relief Commission, who accompanied the six cases received by the Alaska Commercial company at San Francisco, and supposed to have been secured in July 1897, in the Klondike region of Alaska: Captain J. F. Marsh, Hartford, Conn.; Mrs. Mary E. Lease, Wichita, Kan.; Mrs. T. Pay, Lincoln, Neb.; Mrs. T. Pay, Lincoln, Neb.; Mrs. C. H. Mitchell, Lincoln, Neb.; Dr. Alice Ely, Ely, Minn.; Mrs. Rodgers, Gardner, Idaho; Mrs. Kessler, Boise City, Idaho; Mrs. Hamilton, Ky.; F. S. Idlor, Seattle; A. C. Frazier, Seattle, Wash.; G. E. Alvord, Bellingham, Wash.; H. Gilbert, Seattle, Wash.; unknown. The party sailed from Seattle, Wash., on May 21. The Cosmopolitan Exploration party was outfitted in Seattle and Port Townsend, with the intention of going up the River to the small tributaries Jesse and Minerva, Captain Murphy of Bowling Green, Ky., commanded the Jesse. The captain had formerly run a steamboat in the south and knew little about marine engines. The remainder of the party was for the most part poor and in debt. Some married men of well-to-do Southern families, all well provided with money. Captain Carlson who was in charge of the ship, the man in charge of the expedition knew nothing about the handling of a boat.

The Occidental Colony company at Wellington, Lyon county, Nevada, which was organized and operated by Hoosier Jess, is about to be closed up by the sheriff. Jess Hoosier is 1,197 lonesome families of Russian Jews in San Francisco for the new land of promise, the Western ranch near Wellington. The land contracted for cost only $2,000, which the promoters propose to pay from what they should real from the sale of lots. Jess Hoosier Wyman, president of the colony, obtain a 10-year lease of $150 when was received on Sept. 20, 1897, and the colony was formally opened. It is an legal. The decadence. The book Sue now began and to recover the amount of the mortgage and the already institute colonists will probably be evicted from their homes. Schwartz has formerly lived in Philadelphia, where his wife, Rose, Chicago and other of their places to meet their their superior points, although some of the colonists believe the pair on their way to Alaska. Warrants are out for their arrest.

Rear-Admiral Kirkland is more seriously ill at Vallejo, Cal., than he or even the doctors expected. Only a few days ago he was enjoying the best of health. Tuesday he had lost his appetite to live, and that depended upon the success of the critical operation performed in the afternoon. Dr. Wagner and Hibbert of the navy had been attending him, and Sunday Dr. Cue surgeon was called into consultation. It was finally decided to send to San Diego for his physician, who is a specialist on the diseases of the mesenteric. This was done, but in the meantime the patient grew worse, and Tuesday morning the top Vigilant was sent to San Francisco under full speed to bring Dr. W. C. Taylor, formerly of the navy. One gallon of blood was drained from the patient's stomach. In the afternoon an incision was made in his side to the large of bowels to the source of the trouble. An Associated Press representative interviewed Dr. C. T. Hibbert just after the operation was performed. The phrase said: "The operation was highly successful and most satisfactory. When the admiral was placed under the influence of ether, Dr. Taylor performed the operation, which through the rapid location of the seat of trouble and the short time required to accomplish the work of relief, was the patient the most favorable chance of recovery. The report that a blood vessel in the stomach had burst was untrue, as internal hemorrhage was what ailed him. Had the surgeon operation been performed twenty-four hours, the disease would have proved fatal, or at least have so weakened that it would have been almost hopeless."

Foul-Smelling Catarrh.

Catarrh is one of the most obstinate diseases, and hence the most difficult to get rid of.

There is but one way to cure it. The disease is in the blood, and all the sprays, washes and inhaling mixtures in the world can have no permanent effect whatever upon it. Swift's Specific cures Catarrh permanently, for it is the only remedy which can reach the disease and force it from the blood.

Mr. R. P. McAllister, of Harrodsburg, Ky., had Catarrh for years. He writes: "I could see no improvement whatever, although I was constantly troubled with severe colds and catarrhal headaches and waters, and different medicines I took failed to help. I could feel that my system was poisoned with catarrh and I knew I needed a blood purifier. Finally I was brought to my notice by a friend who had been cured of a similar disease, and after taking one jug for nearly, I said it Swift's Specific, I expected to be cured by another jug, which I purchased, and I knew I was cured. I decided to try S. S. S. and after a few bottles could feel the poison in my system. Continuing the remedy, the poison was forced out of my system, and it completely was the result. I advise all who have the dreadful disease to abandon fruitless treatment, which hardness when you can get, and take S. S. S. a remedy that can reach the disease and cure it."

To continue the wrong treatment for Catarrh is to continue to suffer. Swift's Specific is a real blood remedy, and cures obstinate, deep-seated diseases, which other remedies have no effect whatever upon. It promptly reaches Catarrh, and never fails to cure even the most aggravated cases.
