EDITORIAL NOTES.

—"Sojourner Truth," an old negroess well known in the States, died recently in Michigan.

—Exchanges say Sidney Rigdon died in Alleghany County, N. Y., July 11.

—The Cincinnati Enquirer says a wealthy ice-packer of Dayton has generously offered to distribute among the poor of the city—next Winter—all the surplus ice left at the close of the season.

—"The Philadelphia Times" says, "Criticism on our Indian policy, if we have such a thing, are multiplying. The Toronto Leader, apropos of the suggestion that Canada should by treaty give up fugitive Sioux or stop them at the border, asks if the United States mean to exterminate the Indians after having cheated them into violence; and Canada perhaps has the right to ask the question, being as free from trouble with her Indians as she is guiltless of wrong towards them. Even under our different circumstances it would seem that we might get a practical hint toward peace from Canada's management."

—"The Cincinnati Times" terms Harry Eything "the best educationist of the age."

—"The Sacramento Record-Union says, "The alleged pardon of Avery, the convicted whiskey thief, by the President, goes far to heighten the suspicion that Grant is resolved to injure the republican party as much as possible during the remainder of his term. For the last month about every public act of his has had the same tendency."

—"The men employed by the Liverpool Omnibus Company want Sunday to themselves, so a number of them recently took out a summons against the manager of the company for breaking the Sabbath day."

—"The Crook City Tribune says, "It is the pride of 'Aunt Sally' that she was the first pale face woman to enter the Black Hills."

—"The Sacramento Record-Union alleges that he drove back eight hundred Cheyennes to Red Cloud Agency, it appears that nearly the whole band have gone off to join the Sioux, and so far as can be gathered have succeeded in effecting the junction. It is rather remarkable that though General Terry finds it impossible to effect a union with Crook, the Indians continue to march all over the country without let or hindrance, and form as many unions as they please, just as though there were no troops in their neighborhood."

—"A Saratoga dispatch to the New York Herald says the crew of Union College came on the grand stand, naked to within nine inches of their loins, and mingled with and chatted freely to the ladies. The dispatch continues—"It certainly was rather a bewildering spectacle to see four men so perilously near to utter nudity, talking with an entire unconcern to their appearance before the many delicate and blushing sylphs on the grand stand. It would hurt these valiant oarsmen little if they continued to don a light gauze shirt and save their skins from wearing the complexion of a red Indian."

A GULLIVERIAN STORY.

THE New York Sun's London correspondent gives a sensational relation of an alleged passage under the channel between England and France, stating that the secret was recently revealed to the British Government, by Mr. Fleetwood Head, senior partner of the firm of Glyn, Jansen, Gericault & Head, bankers, Strand, Head being the sole surviving partner of the old firm, who were formerly importers.

The strange story claims that at the period of the revocation of the Edict of Nantes, the tower and chateau of Gericault, at St. Nicole, France, belonged to the Sieur Jules Gericault. His nephew, Josephine, got into difficulties with the Government through resisting the brutalities of the Protestants, and an attempt was made to arrest him, but he took refuge with Jules, who hid him in "Gericault's Hope," a cavern that went under the sea, known only to Jules, giving him material for food and light. That night the chateau was burned by the troops, and half in fear, Josephine went further into the cavern, which he explored a long way, until finally he heard faint and muffled voices on the other side of a wall of chalk, which he cut through, finding himself in a smuggler's cave in Kent, England, the cave being the property of Josephine Gericault, who had married the farmer's daughter, and the two families after a while did a great smuggling business, and grew very rich, by means of the submarine tunnel, the existence of which was confided, for much of the time, only to the eldest son of each of the two families. Years ago the smuggling was discontinued. It is related that a French officer was once taken through the tunnel, a rift in the bed of chalk, and that Napoleon I. had an idea of its existence, but failed to learn definitely its locality and other particulars. This is the substance of this very strange and most unlikely story, which may serve the purpose of a passing sensation.

CORRESPONDENCE.

Houses Struck by Lightning—The Twenty-Fourth.

BRIGHTON CITY, July 25th, 1876.

Editor Deseret News:

On the evening of the 24th inst., the house of Robert Wilson, in this town, was struck by lightning, causing all the inmates therein to be knocked down, and Mr. Wilson was pitched a distance of eight feet by the shock. The house was shaken roughly and the north gable gave way, which caused every finish in the rooms to be undisturbed. Mr. Wilson was slightly singed on his neck.

The house of Bro. Orme, at Call's Fort, was also struck by the fiery element from above, on the morning of the same day, but not much injured.

A grand ball was held on the 25th anniversary of the pioneers entering the valleys of Salt Lake, the upper room of the Social Hall, just finished, and ornamented for the occasion, and we had a very agreeable time there. The room is 33 by 63 feet, and was well filled by ladies and gentlemen. The day was otherwise celebrated, although in expectancy of sultry weather, processions of a formal nature had been suspended this time.

Respectfully, A. C.

Y. M. M. I. A.—Mechanics—Crops—Schools and Meetings—Fourth and Twenty-fourth.

SPRINGDALE, July 19, 1876.

Editor Deseret News:

I noticed in your last issue a report of the travels of Brothers Hardy and Young in the interest of the Y. M. M. I. A., in which it was stated that there was no organization of the kind in this place. I wish to correct the statement by presenting a portion of the minutes of our organization, as follows:

Dec. 25th, 1875. The following citizens of Springdale met at the house of E. Homer for the purpose of organizing a Young Men's Mutual Improvement Association, namely: E. M. Greene, E. K. Greene, E. K. Greene, E. Homer, A. Gifford, O. D. Gifford, D. K. Greene, E. M. Greene, E. C. Durfee, G. A. Palmer, J. M. Palmer, J. W. Palmer and E. K. Homer. House called to order by E. M. Greene. After appropriate remarks by E. M. Greene, and others, an organization was entered into as follows—Edmund Homer, president; Alpheus Gifford, his assistant; and D. K. Greene, secretary.

Meetings were well attended, each member showing a desire to improve in all good, until the busy time of the year came on, when it was thought best to adjourn for a short time. I believe it is the intention of the President to commence meetings again soon.

There has been considerable sickness in this Ward for some time past, a kind of lung and throat disease, commencing with a cold. The disease has been quite severe, but I believe no case has proved fatal. We have had one good shower of late, but not enough to start the grass much. Our crops are growing finely, in spite of the dry season, as our mountain stream is more than sufficient for the land. We have a Sunday school in operation, under the superintendence of D. K. Greene. We also have a day school just started. Our meetings are attended with interest. We have learned that in union there is strength.

The 4th passed off finely, and the young people are anxiously waiting for the 24th.

Very respectfully, E. K. Gifford.

Baptisms—Good Prospects—Bull Times.

HELESTON, Pa., July 19, 1876.

Editor Deseret News:

I am just in receipt of a letter from Elder David Evans, of Lehi, informing me of the organization of a branch of the Church in Boston, Bradford Co., Pa., where he and Elder Eli H. Pearce, of Brigham City, have been laboring for some months with considerable success. They have baptized sixteen persons, ordaining three Elders and two Priests. The branch numbers eighteen members, and there are yet a number to be baptized. Those that have embraced the gospel are feeling well, their faith is strong, and they are doing well. The blind see, the deaf hear, the lame walk, and the gospel is preached to the poor. The boys are doing well. Though weak in and of themselves, they are made strong by the power of the Holy Ghost. They have been threatened with "bad feelings" by some of the orthodox of Bradford and Tioga Counties, but thanks be to God they have been cared for and shielded from harm. The boys are most earnestly ready to adopt the injunction, "Let not your right hand know what your left hand doeth," but the news is so good, so encouraging from them, that I felt impressed to pen the news for the NEWS, so that friends in Utah might hear what the Lord is doing for his servants.

I have just received a call from Elder John Taylor and wife, from Plains, where there is quite a large branch, lately organized through the instrumentality of Bros. Pearce and Evans, of which I think you had an account in the NEWS some time ago. Bro. Taylor presides over the branch and is a man valiant in the truth. He informs me that the Saints of his branch are well and feeling well. The Saints of the Hyde Park branch feel well and are rejoicing in the truth. Why don't the brethren formerly connected with this branch, who are now in Utah, write to friends according to promise? If they only knew what good they would accomplish in writing they would honor their promise. Will they take the hint? Bro. F. A. Lector and family, with whom Bros. Evans and Pearce are sojourning, are exerting themselves in aiding the brethren to advance the interests of the kingdom in that section of country. Bro. Lector was baptized some years ago by Elder Orson Pratt, when Bro. Pratt preached through this section of our State. Times are far from dull throughout the whole of these milling regions. Thousands of families are in need of the necessities to sustain life. Men's hearts are failing them in dread of the future.

Yours, as ever, in the gospel of Jesus Christ, E. HOWELL.
