California Lawyers Nearly Settle Their Difference With Blood.

ACTRESS AND MANAGER AT OUTS.

Domestic Troubles.—A Triple Hanging for Denver.—The Sheep Shearing Season.

The town of Florin, below Grand Junction, Colo., has votes to incorporate.

The Durango, Colo., Democrat says it is now a settled fact that the new Salt Lake south will be built.

The apparatus for the electric lighting at Cedar Hill, Colo., will be in operation this week.

Not a single case grand jury was in use in the Colfax district court which has been indicted in the district of Arizona.

The Gov'nor's Driving association of Albuquerque, N. M., will give its annual spring meeting May 15, 16 and 19. Liberal purses are offered.

The Fort Collins, Colo., Express says that the many beauties of the Cache la Poudre valley are not appreciated in providing new farms, and are actually selling goods for cash.

Internal revenue agents seized a lottery concession by Ah Sam in Denver, Colo., and captured an opium smoking outfit and twenty-five of the gangs. The chinese escaped by climbing into a sewer.

J. S. Moore is in the city from the soldiers' farm in the vicinity, says the Lamar Democrat. It straight with him he drew a large assortment of growing wheat, from 7 or inches in length, now in the depot ready to show to any.

The Grand Junction News suggests the growing of box elders and mets cover and sell cheaply in the Grand Valley. Shipped under the fruit in such packs, and it is thought they will prove more profitable in view of the enormous demand coming from all trans Jordan.

The report of the March Grand Junction Journal promises to supply anything at the lower cost than in the cities and wants to be published for their sake. Report for the 25th of this month, are being rapidly concentrated, so says the San Francisco Chronicle.

A Durango correspondent of the Denver Times says that the idea of engaging in the recent strike in Durango stock has been exaggerated. The mines will resume work on the 15th of April, Cripple Creek and Durango stock will be put on the market, and in the spring time is looking the outlook is not so bad.

Arrangements are being made for the shearing season which is now at hand, says the Lamar Democrat. By the time shearing begins the grass will be up in the valleys, and it is believed that the wool clip will be larger this year than for some time. Some sheep have been very small. If the sheep men get a good average price for their product they will be in high feather. The railroad men are planning after shipments.

Ada Gill, an actress at the Bella Union, San Francisco, has swore out a warrant of treasure at John McCrea, the stage manager of the theatre, on a charge of assault and battery. She says that McCrea intends her to appear in tights for rehearsal on the morning of April 1st. Work on it as the action for an April fool joke during the evening would extremely shock her if she acts with a property ax.

Cheyenne, (Wyo.) Daily Leader: As rule reports from the Cheyenne of stock cows the 15 Bennett ranch at Chalk Bluff, Laramie county, will be about 40 per cent of a full crop. In some cases the loss has been very considerable, but taken all through the state without any due to speak of, and the cow herders agree that ten per cent will cover the average of the loss in Laramie county, central Wyoming.

The mine in camp at Gunnison, Colo., has received orders from the officer of the Atlantic and Pacific railroad that that company would take each month the same dividend of $25,000, the amount of their share for 1893. The mines is served in accordance with section 5,059 of the Revised Code, which is usually paid. But now with at commencing on, but at the time the arrangement was made it protected, claiming that the state board of equalization did not have the power to levy the assessment.

Thomas Jordan, William Nesbit and Stallings Torres will be tried in Denver, says the News, during the week beginning April 23rd, unless in the meantime the supreme court of Colorado, supreme court has decided by confirming the death sentence imposed by the district court. These are three men who were in the notorious Wax court case, and there are no circumstances to connection with any of the cases, so far as known, to connect Carrie Wilkinson, or Carrie Carter, who was killed by a new named Wilkinson Parlor. Jordan murdered August Gloss, a waiter, in the Mine shaft. Nesbit was tried guilty of killing a woman for whom he had was a jury for sale.

In Utah a law forbidding jail is being held says the Boise (Idaho) Statesman. Articles produced in the Territory are admitted free for the purpose being to show the people what they can secure from home producers. The movement has been very deep felt, it seems, by Eastern producers of goods manufacturing. People are buying home-made goods in preference to those imported from the east. Money is thus kept at home and employment is given to home people. Petty as a result of this campaign expected to boost industry, the bank clearings in Salt Lake showed last week a reduction of only 8 per cent, as compared with the corresponding week last year, while the Avalanche says this throughout the country was 26.7 per cent.

John J. Beeson, a miner, went to the house of his wife in San Francisco on Monday and shot her twice through the head. He then fired a pistol into his left breast and fell fatally wounded. They were both taken to the receiving hospital, where it is believed they will die. Jealousy is thought to have been the motive for the tragic tragedy. Beeson and his wife have been married four years, but most of that time have been separated. He was formerly a prominent Irish in a mine three years ago, and ever since he has been almost speechless and partly paralyzed. He went mad about three years and was treated in the Southern California Dr and Denver, but neither he nor his wife have seen any improvement in health and reputed. The accidents are the direct cause of his mission, was the friend of Mr. Beeson in his with old friend.

The practice of law along the Jersey the San Francisco Chronicle is not a very choice profession when it is reducible to the quotes of two cents and to be disposed of in a single with blood. Lawyer Ay come to over having the quarrel, have shot off on Monday afternoon by Attorney Hamilton, who interposed as counsel to a question of paying a milling place into law in dispute account. Mr. Hamilton fired at one the longest distance and in consequence lost his Try out away with on his and a broken finger. The row occurred during the taking of the deposition in the case which is a very one. Hamilton and his client left the room, were followed to the hall by Ay. The former was only injured and gave his opponent a lesson on the law which disposed him. Ay was about to return to the room, when Hamilton drew a revolver and shot him twice in the wounding a lawyer. The pistol was taken from the and he was arrested on a charge of robbery and assaulting a fellow workman. He claim robbery and was rescued from mobbing. The taking of the deposition will be continued in the office only.
