DESERET EVENING NEWS

TODAY'S WEATHER REPORT.

Today's weather report. (Observations taken at 6 a. m. Mountain Time).

Salt Lake City—Barometer, 24.71; corrected mean barometer, 24.96; temperature, 42; relative temperature, 48; mean temperature, 52, which is 10 degrees above normal.

Accumulated deficiency of temperature since first of month, 50 deg.

Accumulated excess of precipitation since January 1st, 2.22 inches.

Total precipitation from 6 p. m. to 6 a. m., 0.00 inch.

Accumulated excess of precipitation since January 1st, 1.48 inches.

FORECAST TILL 6 P. M. THURSDAY.

Local forecast for Salt Lake City and vicinity:

Fair tonight and Thursday; stationary temperature.

For Utah south at San Francisco:

Fair tonight and Thursday; stationary temperature.

WEATHER CONDITIONS.

An area of very high pressure is central over North and South Dakota and extends over nearly the entire country east of the Mississippi valley. It is to be under to the northwest. It was falling the morning at Chicago, and has fallen at Grand Junction and Salt Lake City.

J. I. Wilkinson,
Observer, Weather Bureau.

NOW FOR 15,000

By January 1, 1900, the DESERET NEWS hopes to be able to record that the Semi-Weekly Edition has reached the 15,000 mark. That figure can undoubtedly be obtained if our agents will work with the same will for the next two months that they have done in the past six. We sincerely thank all our representatives for their previous hearty endeavors, and trust they will do all in their power to help us reach the 15,000 goal by the NEW YEAR.

SEMI-WEEKLY NEWS

PUBLISHED TUESDAY'S AND FRIDAY'S

The actual, bona fide circulation of the Semi-Weekly edition of the News, (separate and apart from the daily) was, on the last issue,

14,000 COPIES

The largest circulation of any paper between Denver and the coast. Books open to advertisers.

The following figures give the number of the Semi-Weekly News printed on the first of each month since the paper changed hands on January 1, 1899:

January 1, 1899	8,280
February 1, 1899	8,420
March 1, 1899	8,710
April 1, 1899	9,325
May 1, 1899	9,850
June 1, 1899	11,000
July 1, 1899	12,340
August 1, 1899	12,790
October 31, 1899	14,000

To-day's Metals.

SILVER, Bar, 58 1-8
LEAD, $4.00
CASTING COPPER 10 cents a lb.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

Yesterday afternoon Justice C. M. Norman united in marriage Charles A. Thompson of Provo and Miss Olga Fogelstrom.

The attendance of the public schools were additional yesterday afternoon, Superintendent Cooper, on the subject of school administration. It was one of a series of addresses to be given.

T. W. O'Donnell, a colored rough rider, who was in the Torrey regiment during the war, is in Salt Lake from where he came to Salt Lake City, Idaho, to engage in newspaper business.

Dr. J. E. Talmage will deliver his lecture on "Failures and Successes" next Sunday evening in the Tabernacle, instead morning hours. It will be given under the auspices of the Y. M. M. I. A.

Frank S. Murphy of this city has sold to Jessie D. Bishop a fine new residence on M street, facing east between First and Second streets. The deal was made at $1,800 cash and the consideration was $1,600.

William C. Winter, the new manager of the Utah Hardware Company, and the Warrenville company, has fled to the Fulton court a bond of $15,000. His sureties are Thomas Thomas, D. Dee and James Pingree.

Dr. Park, superintendent of public instruction, is sending out circulars to teachers, school boards and others in the state, suggesting that preparations be thus early begun for the educational exhibit at the State fair next fall.

The State treasury now amounts for October amounts to $2,301.26. This is not in excess of other months, but will be enough to enable the treasurer to pay the highest treasury. By December 15 the taxes will be in, when the treasurer will be able to pay off and a balance on hand left.

Mr. A. D. Chiles, who resides at 49 south Eleventh East, got in his property after he the police court this morning and expressed that a warrant be drawn up for the arrest of Rob Ferris for the drinking. Mr. Chiles states that Mr. Ferris came full till into him on the evening of State street and should South Temple, with words and enough him up considerably.

In the case of Strong vs the Fulton Public Cab company, the jury in the case returned yesterday by Judge Morris for $100. According to the evidence in the case, Mr. Strong left Salt Lake for Provo and when he got off the train he was in a proper state to walk. Later the cabbie were found scattered along the track and some distance from the train, but the cash was never returned.

The new postal station at Cohen's park was opened today. It will be known as the Fairmont station, and is on the 8th Lake City omnibus. The station is in charge of Mrs. Rita Bohen, who formerly served in the station on Temple and Second South streets, Fifth street, and was in charge of the Salt Lake. There are now six stations in this vicinity, the other being located at Sugar House. Three improved postal facilities will be inaugurated in the people in the southeastern part of the city and suburbs.

The remains of Mrs. E. C. Tracy of Park City were laid quietly away yesterday afternoon, the services being held at the Episcopal church in this city. The services were presided over by Bishop Scott, and the opening hymn was "Nearer, My God, to Thee," and the benediction was pronounced by the bishop. The floral tributes were artistic and elegant. The pallbearers were Messrs. Hodgson, Hoffman, Ellis, Ashton, Hoffman and Hoffman. The deceased was a sister of Mrs. Ashton, of Park City, Idaho, Mrs. Hoffman and Mrs. Hodgson, of Salt Lake, and Mrs. Ellis, of Ogden. The deceased was Miss Antoinette Ashton, of Evansville, Lorain, Ill., Feb. 10, 1864, and was married to Mr. Tracy Feb. 10, 1886. Her husband, George E. Tracy, Jedson H. Scott, Carlos H. Ellis, Amy McMaster and Sarah Barker, all of Park City, are the surviving children. Her death was sudden and unexpected, and the sympathy of many friends goes under the sorrowing end of the deceased. Interment was at Mt. Olivet cemetery.

We pay 4 per cent interest per annum on money in the Home Savings Bank and Trust company, Lessons Block, president, George M. Cannon, cashier.

UTAH SAFE,
Cable Gate and Water Gauges,
Lamp, Nut and Stack.
D. J. ZILLIG, Agent,
11 South State.

UTAH COMMERCIAL AND NATIONAL BANK
Commercial and National Business. W. F. Armstrong, pres.; F. M. Rubey, vice-pres.; J. E. Cosgriff, cashier.

TO PROSECUTE DAIRYMEN.

Food Inspector Frost After Users of Formaldehyde in Milk.

Food Inspector Frost is about to take proceedings against two local dairymen for selling milk preserved with the drug with which they are selling. County Attorney Parsons is working on the cases, and within a few days will be ready to present complaints against the dealers. Mr. Frost says there are a number of other dairymen who are using the chemical referred to, but they contend that it is not injurious, but is beneficial to the milk.

A stiff fight is looked for, the principal witnesses being Professor Ewell, Professor Ely of Williams, Van Cott and Dalrymple in behalf thereof.

PERSONAL.

Mrs. Mary E. Tanner of Plymouth, Ind., is staying at the Cullen.

L. Fox of Wabash is among the guests of the Knutsford today.

W. C. Ward of Lawrence, Pa., is among the guests at the Walker.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Whitaker also H. S. Shelby of New York, are registered at the Knutsford.

F. Forward of San Francisco, has taken up his temporary abode at the White House.

T. L. Smith of Wyoming, together with Geo. W. Lutz of the same town, are staying at the Walker.

Jay H. Lemon of the Smith Drug Co. has returned home after an extensive trip east.

R. Takeda, chief engineer of the Kawaki mine, Hokaido, Japan, is stopping at the Knutsford.

William Weber came down from Ogden last night and registered at the White House.

T. H. Bliss recently from Dawson City, came in from the west this morning and adjourned to the Knutsford.

Half a dozen members of the Fifty-first Iowa from the Philippines are registered on the sights of the city this morning.

Mrs. J. C. Brown together with Hope Erwin and William Erwin from Deadwood, Dak., are guests at the Cullen.

Burt T. Dot Lemer, Henry S. Hurl, Mrs. Lewis S. Thompson, Miss Ward, Mrs. Shiras and Mr. Dunn, a party of Chicago, Ill., tourists are registered at the Knutsford.

Mrs. W. G. Donnell, Miss Donnell and Mrs. W. J. Smith have returned from a sojourn of two weeks. Mrs. Donnell spent considerable time with her son Hugh in Chicago, who has been in poor health lately, but who is now recuperating.

John C. Black, who represents a Milwaukee firm at Pittsburg, is at the Knutsford. He said last night that Salt Lake is going to be a good deal in the nature of a history, and the increased business coming to this city because of more within easy reach in the country. We have a place that is the same as Milwaukee on the road all the time in the United States, and plenty more in England and Scotland."

J. H. Kirkpatrick of California is a guest at the Cullen. While speaking to the editor of this, he said today: "From what I can learn from the people in Utah generally, I am quite a general belief among them that the government will not again order Utah to be disturbed, and that the recent disturbed proceeding, anyway. We have learned by experience in California that the people will not be disturbed by the great and destroying the small individuals they some the chances of life."

F. A. Cornell of San Francisco, a guest at the Cullen, is an iron man from the old stamp of the Dalhousie Mining company, and he is in