

good character and proper and suitable persons for the duty to be performed, without inquiring as to the religious or sectarian views of such persons, but only as to their qualifications and present political affiliations.

This was adopted by the following vote:

Ayes—Godfrey, Saunders, Robertson.

Nay—McClernand.

Commissioner McClernand moved to amend the substitute as follows:

Provided, That the political affiliation of any person shall not be in itself a cause for excluding him from appointment as a registrar or election officer.

And provided further, That the commission will, in making such appointments, act fairly and equitably in respect to the different political parties in the territory.

Rejected by the following vote, Ayes, McClernand; nays, Godfrey, Saunders and Robertson.

When the appointment, by the Utah
Commission, of deputy registrars for Salt Lake county was reached last evening General McClernand offered the following resolution:

Whereas, There are — deputy registrars to be appointed for the precincts in Salt Lake county; and

Whereas, It is but fair and consistent with the law that those appointments should be equitably distributed among the different political parties in the county, therefore be it

Resolved, That such appointments shall be made in harmony with the facts herein stated.

The introduction of the resolution occasioned some little discussion and was defeated on the following vote:

Ayes—McClernand, 1.

Nays—Godfrey, Robertson, 2.

The list compiled and sent in by County "Liberal" Registrar J. F. Allen was then taken up and the appointments therein recommended made without change.
