ANOTHER WEEK BEGUN IN THE PIT

Market Was Bearish and Stocks Generally, Suffered.

NEW BOARD IN NEW PLACE

Day's Record 73,820 Shares for the Sum of $28,366.97—Daisy Again Attacked.

A total of 73,820 shares changed hands in the pit today, the stock having a selling value of $28,366.97. The old board had quite a brisk call and dealt in 55,920 shares for $24,700.50, while the new board directed the bulk of its energies to Daisy, and made a record of 17,900 shares for $3,666.47. The market suffered a decided bear movement, stocks generally sharing in the downward trend.

INCREASE IN BUSINESS.

Salt Lake Board Sells More Shares on a Bearish Market.

There was a gratifying increase in the volume of business on the Salt Lake Exchange today, the sales reaching a total of 55,920 shares, for which buyers paid the sum of $24,700.50. The market was bearish, however, nearly all the sellers giving way to a slight decline, which continued during the call and characterized the tone of stocks generally at the close of the day's business.

Daisy, which recovered Saturday after the tremendous depression of the day before, did business on a weak basis, the stock selling first at 31¼, and gradually falling to 28, a total of 12,400 shares changing hands. Dalton & Lark was somewhat uppish at the start, there being transfers at 11½, but later it fell to 11¼, at which would-be buyers were quite numerous. Dexter was quite strong and sold up to $2.45½, while Daly West threw out 400 shares at $10, and Daly was taken at $1.22. Four Aces sold freely at 29½, and Lower Mammoth stumped to 78½, and had a closing bid of 78. Mercur was in good demand and made sales between $7.05 and $7.06, while an odd block of 20 shares sold at $7.15, and the stock stood readily bid for at $7.06. Northern Light was active around 72½, while Sacramento did business at 48, and Star Consolidated dropped 1,000 shares at $1.36¼, this being one of the few to show a slight advance.

Dealing with smaller stocks the brokers found ready business in Boston De La Mar at a cent, after which [illegible] dealt in Diamond Consolidated at 11 to 11½, while Golden Eagle sold at 7, and Joe Bowers made a transfer at 17. In Little Pittsburg a sale was made at 10½, this being followed by North Swansea which was taken at 18, and Orient which went at 11. The last to do business was Yankee Consolidated, this stock selling for 12 spot, and a cent below, seller 30 days.

IN A NEW PLACE.

New Board Changes Quarters and Lends Beauty to Daisy.

The members of the new exchange assembled at 28 west Second South street this afternoon, in an airy, convenient call room, well suited to the purpose for which it has now been fitted up. The initial call at the new stand was signalized by an eager demand for Daisy, but very little business in anything else, this stock taking the lead and selling to the amount of 5,300 shares, which changed hands at figures ranging from 27½ to 29½. All told, the call was productive of sales reaching 17,900 shares, with a selling value of $3,666.47.

Aside from Daisy the sellers were Antler at 1¾, Boston-De La Mar at 1¼ and Four Aces at 29½, while Bowers Extension made transfers at 8 and Lower Mammoth took part between 77 and 78. For Northern Light the brokers paid 71½ and 71¾, and for Oaks 2¾, while they dealt in Silver City Consolidated at ⅝ and in White Star at 1¾.

MARKET REPORTS.

NEW YORK MARKETS.

New York, April 17.—Transactions at the opening were very large and considerable strength was displayed in some stocks. Brooklyn Transit and Manhattan were off two points each. On supporting orders these recovered the opening losses. Large purchases in other quarters stimulated the general tendency upward, in which Anaconda mining was prominent. The temper of speculation underwent a marked change at 11:30, prices reacting with a great deal more celerity than they had earlier improved. An attack on the leading specialties wiped out their advances and forced sympathetic declines in the railroad list.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., NEW YORK.

RICH COPPER ORE FROM DIXIE MINES

Sam Adams in From St. George With a Shipment.

GOLDEN GATE CYANIDES.

Tintic Pushing Ahead Edwards on the Ingot—Dalton & Lark Deal—North Mountain Plans.

Samuel L. Adams, Jr., of St. George, is in the city, the gentleman coming here with a 20-ton shipment of high-grade ore from the Little Gem mine at Dixie. The ore will assay upwards of 40 per cent copper, and comes from one of the Dixie group, recently leased by Mr. Adams and associates. The gentleman has already commenced the erection of a smelter to treat the ore, which, says he, can be taken out in rich abundance once the property is in active operation. Mr. Adams will remain here a few days looking into the purchase of necessary machinery, tools, etc., to push the development of the mines under his charge.

North Mountain Plans.

Will S. Brown, a director in the Mercur and one of the owners of the North Mountain property at Cherry Creek, Nev., is in from Nebraska in company with his younger daughter, who will remain here for some time visiting friends. The gentleman reports the farmers busy in Nebraska and says the weather is all that could be desired for the planting of crops. When asked concerning plans for the future development of the North Mountain, Mr. Brown stated that nothing would be done for a few weeks yet, although when work was resumed it would be in the lower levels of the mine, where the showing of ore was very gratifying. Mr. Brown will return home in a day or two.

Edwards on the Ingot.

George E. Edwards, superintendent of the Mercur, came in from camp last night, and was in conference with the company's directors during the day. The gentleman reports things under his charge running smoothly, and speaks highly of developments in the Ingot, where, he says, good milling values have been encountered. While giving no figures, Mr. Edwards intimated that already the mine was in a condition to yield profits, as he stated that values were improving as the miners pushed their way into the ground, thus insuring future success of the project.

GOLDEN GATE SHIPMENT.

Three Tons of Cyanides Now In from This Property.

The Golden Gate is in with another immense shipment of cyanides, the lot weighing in the neighborhood of 6,000 pounds and reaching a value of nearly $100,000. The mill is in splendid working order and turns out between 600 and 700 tons of ore daily, while the mine continues in prime shape, well able to supply the demands of the big plant. As stated in these columns several days ago, work is now going on which will give the mill a daily capacity of 1,000 tons the additional tanks to be in active operation about the middle of next August.

TINTIC PUSHING AHEAD.

Noted Camp the Scene of Progressive and Systematic Action.

Among Sunday's visitors to Tintic was Charles E. Hudson, secretary of the Salt Lake Exchange. The gentleman says he was agreeably surprised with the amount and nature of the work being done, the same being more extensive and more permanent than at any period in the history of the camp.

Mr. Hudson examined the Four Aces and was more than pleased with the showing in this mine. Under the able superintendency of Mr. Cole, a veteran mining man, the property, he says, is being intelligently explored, and on the 600-foot level there is a face of 4½ to 5 feet of solid galena ore. The Showers Consolidated, Blue Bird and Joe Bowers are doing good work, but the Bowers Extension is shut down, not a man being employed on the ground. On the Blue Bird Extension a good force is engaged sinking a vertical shaft which has now reached a depth of 30 feet, while the Fremont is equipped with good machinery and is now pushing to the deep. The Southern Queen has good indications of ore, and a strike, says Mr. Hudson, is reported in the Midnight Bowers. On the Towers the erection of a large steam hoist is going on, showing that those people mean business, while the Shoebridge Bonanza is in good shape and has a steam hoist in active operation.

Mr. Hudson was taken up with the new appearance of Diamond, with its splendid equipment for systematic development. Where a year ago a barren picture was presented, today there is a scene of great activity, both in the opening of the mines and the erection of good frame stores, workshops and dwellings. At Silver City the sight is equally gratifying.

Sale of the York Mine.

Negotiations for the sale of the York property, which is considered one of the best in the district, have been going on for a week past. The price asked is stated to be $40,000, and about the only obstacle in the way of consummation of the deal is said to be the price asked by the leasers, Messrs. Tarver, Taylor and Pugsley, for the relinquishment of their lease, which has about fourteen months yet to run. It is expected, however, that the deal will be closed by tomorrow.—Bingham Bulletin.

BEAVER COUNTY MINES.

Rob Roy Placers Rich in Gold—The "Big" a Big Thing.

[Beaver Blade.]

The Rob Roy placer ground, spoken of in our last issue, bids fair to become quite a factor in the production of the yellow metal. The black sand, encountered in the gravel, has been assayed and gives a return of $50 per ton in gold and quite enough of it exists to be something of an item. A clean-up was had Saturday from the sluicing and proved that something more than wages can be got out of the gravel in washing besides the gold bearing quartz and black sand, which will pay handsomely to mill. The owners of the property are considering the advisability of milling the entire product from the gravel deposit and think that big returns can be got from it.

Work is to be resumed once more on the old Galena mine over in Beaver Lake district. In what is known as the chloride shaft on this property, they have recently encountered a body of ore assaying 300 ounces in silver.

The Washington mine is blooming out with the spring flowers. Ten feet of good pay ore have been encountered and ore teams are steadily transferring it to the cars at the O. S. L. depot.

A party consisting of Mr. Abram Fotheringham, Mr. J. P. Tolton and John Barton, co-owners with Joseph McEwen in the "Big" mining claim, together with Messrs. Abe Fotheringham, Dave Mandlin, W. H. White, Carl Tolton and two of Mr. Fotheringham's children, made a trip over to the property, fourteen miles northwest of Beaver, Tuesday, for the purpose of inspecting this new bonanza. The verdict of all, on arrival at the workings, was that the name, high-sounding as it appears, is no libel on the property. It is a big thing. The ore body on which they are sinking consists of a ten-foot vein of heavy mineral-bearing rock, probably zinc or lead, and are now into a body of copper bearing ore of unknown extent and apparently very rich. Samples were taken from all parts of the mine and as soon as assays can be had, some conclusions can be drawn as to the value of the property and what will be done with it.

The Commercial Group.

The Commercial group continues to increase its force and an extensive development campaign is well under way. An incline shaft is down 65 feet below east drift and has obtained a depth under surface of 175 feet. Is now past oxidized zone and in a fine body of copper-gold iron sulphides. A tunnel to cut this ore at a depth of several hundred feet is contemplated, but in view of the careful and conservative policy of management the depth attaining character of ore body will first be proven up in shafts. The air raise of 150 feet was knocked through to surface this week. A body of copper ore carrying 25 per cent of that metal with good gold and silver values is a feature of this mine.—Bingham Bulletin.

DALTON & LARK DEAL.

Eastern Syndicate Gets an Option on a Controlling Interest.

Despite the straight-out denials at the company's office last week concerning reported negotiations of the sale of the Dalton & Lark, it now appears that street rumors were correct and that this Bingham bonanza is about to drop into the arms of a New York syndicate.

Late Saturday night Jeremiah Scheck, president of the Dalton & Lark company, executed the instrument which gives to the easterners an option on a controlling interest of the mine. At that time the first payment was made on the purchase price, District Attorney Whittemore handing over the money. The property consists of four groups of well developed ground embracing something like 200 acres. In past years it has been a heavy producer of silver-lead ores, but recently not much work has been going on.

The intended purchasers will conduct an examination of the ground within the next few days, which, if satisfactory, will doubtless lead to its transfer. The company has paid in dividends the sum of $97,500.

MINES AND MINING MEN.

A big crowd visited Tintic yesterday and took in the mines.

M. W. Taylor, the stock broker, has returned from his trip to Denver Lake.

At the Highland Boy smelter, bricklayers are now busily engaged setting machinery.

For the quarter ending March 31st, shipments from Tintic reached 1,222 cars of ore, 59 cars of concentrates and 171 bars of silver and gold bullion.

The refusal of engineers at the Daly-West to put in twelve-hour shifts created considerable trouble at the mine Saturday night, but all is now quiet and peaceful.

Supt. J. C. Reynolds of the Bunker Hill mine at Stockton, reports a fine showing in this property, and says he expects to cut the blue lime leading to the ore body within the next few feet.

W. P. Dayton, manager of the Valley View mine in Blaine county, Ida., writes the company's officers in this city that the ore chute is coming in, which he looks upon as an indication of early shipments.

On May 4th the Bingham Bulletin will issue a special edition, replete with information concerning the West Mountain mining district, that is just now attracting so much attention from Eastern investors.

As expected, Hon. T. R. Jones returned from the East late Saturday [illegible] for the smelter [illegible] in this section. Mr. Jones says the situation [illegible] practically unchanged.

Bingham Bulletin: Our placers begin to assume a dividend-promising appearance. With completion of general drainage plan of tapping underflow water from a drift run in solid bedrock under the channel and at right angles to the stream things at West Mountain placer will be in shape for a steady production of fine free washing gravel, of which there is some 6 feet in depth that averages $7.50 gold per yard.

DUCHESS MINING COMPANY.

Articles of incorporation of the Duchess Mining company were filed with the county clerk today. The incorporators are: A. S. Kendall, C. W. Johnson, F. Hedman, J. M. Moser and H. T. Duke. The amount of capital stock has been fixed at $20,000, divided into 200,000 shares of the par value of 10 cents each. The company's property is situated in Boxelder county and consists of the Copper King, Silver King and the Shepard Mining claims.
