THE EVENING PAPER IS THE PAPER OF TODAY. THE MORNING PAPER IS THE PAPER OF YESTERDAY.

Deseret News.

EVENING — PROCLAIM LIBERTY

5 O'CLOCK EDITION.

NO. 224 — MONDAY, AUGUST 15, 1898. SALT LAKE CITY, UTAH. — VOL. XXXI.

LIVES LOST BY STORMS.

The Family Killed by a Minnesota Tornado—Other People Missing, Supposed to be Dead.

Stones as Large as Apples, in a Storm in the Mississippi Valley, Do Great Damage—Death From Fright—Seven Soldiers Seriously Hurt During a Terrific Thunderstorm.

[illegible] Aug. 15.—A Clarke Mission special to the Journal says: [illegible] killed which [illegible] Hungry Mary Hallinger and [illegible] damage to the crops. [illegible] entire family of Joseph Halinger, including his wife and four children, were killed.

[illegible] were not with it entirely violent. Several people are [illegible] and some of them are supposed to be killed.

DESCENDS HAILSTONES.

[illegible] Aug. 15.—Specials received here state that the severe windstorm and hailstorm which visited southern [illegible] last night caused considerable damage. Hail as large as apples is reported. Corn is bowed and that and the grapes have suffered considerably. The rain was the heaviest in two years, coming from four to six inches in depth. Several bridges were washed out between Kickapoo and Fort Madison. The storm bottomed on a center south of Hamilton, Ill., accompanied by a terrific weather. Several buildings were wrecked, while the entire peach crop in that part of the country is ruined by the wind and hail.

Horace Alcock, 12 years old, died from fright during a heavy electric storm at Macon, Ill. In that county the damage to wheat in the shock and the corn, peach and apple crops is heavy.

Seven growers of Marion county, Ill., fear heavy damage from the rains. At Carrollton, Ill., trees, telephone and electric light wires were blown down and cellars were flooded.

SEVEN SOLDIERS HURT.

Lithia Springs, Ga., Aug. 15.—During a terrific thunderstorm here lightning struck Camp Hobson. Seven soldiers are in the hospital seriously hurt. The same company were in the wreck a week ago at Fort McPherson.

BRITAIN IS WAKING UP.

[illegible] Has Demanded the Dismissal of Li Hung Chang.

ANTI-BRITISH COURSE IS THE CAUSE

Trouble Sure to Result Unless Satisfaction is Given and the Offender Dismissed.

[illegible] Aug. 15—The foreign office [illegible] Li Hung Chang from power [illegible] Britain will not be responsible [illegible] anti-British attitude of Li Hung Li Tamen. The foreign office [illegible] is now asserted, but under the circumstances the question of [illegible] Tsung Li Yamen. The blame [illegible] is also asserted, but under the circumstances the question of [illegible] the