

The HUNTER'S CHRISTMAS DINNER

By ROBERTUS LOVE

(Copyright, 1907, by Robertus Love.)

After an original drawing in Leslie's Weekly.

The stag lifts proudly high his antlered head. For king is he of all the snowy plain
He sniffs the frosty air with relish keen. And monarch of the mountains. He may roam
He of the open wilderness is bred, Unchallenged his imperial domain.
And life to him is never cramped or mean. And wheresoever he may will is home.

No leash may bind him to a bitter task
Nor make him drudge to others of his race.
What more could any splendid creature ask?
What more of highborn dignity and grace?

And yet—grim joke of fate!—a biped serf,
A slave to toil three hundred days a year,
Rides forth one day across the frozen turf
And slays the monarch for his Christmas cheer!

MONUMENT TO FLAUBERT.
The picture shows the monument which the French city of Rouen had erected to her greatest citizen, Gustave Flaubert.

Gustave Flaubert, the author of "Salammbô" and "Madame Bovary." The statue is the work of Leopold Bernstamm.

NEW AUTOMATIC MILK SUPPLY.
The cut shows one of the automatic milk supply machines which are being tried in London. It is designed to do the work of the milkman, and it is claimed for it that there will be no chance for the spread of contagion.

MOVEMENT FOR GREATER NAVY

The Pressure on Congress for More Big Battleships Increases.

CAPTAIN HOBSON'S IDEAS.

Congressmen and Washington Club—Long Way to Denver—Tariff and Presidential Nominations.

(Special to the "News.")

Washington, Dec. 21.—Talk around the Capitol would seem to indicate that the Republican leaders are uncertain as to the feasibility of pushing another ship subsidy bill this session. A bill of this character was passed by the senate in the last Congress, but it failed to get a hearing before the house committee on merchant marine and fisheries. For 20 years Senator Frye of Maine has been fighting hard for a subsidy. The late Senator Mark Hanna was one of its ablest champions. One thing that discourages the promoters of the subsidy plan is that, while Speaker Cannon is ostensibly for the subsidy, somehow he manages to appoint on the house committee just enough western Republicans who will not agree with their political associates from other sections, and that difference enables the Democrats to hold up the measure, for the Democrats are solidly opposed to granting subsidies of any sort.

FOR MORE BATTLESHIPS.

Speaker Cannon is not worrying much about the Republican end of the house naval affairs committee, for the same men will nearly all serve again in this Congress. The indications are that shipbuilding concerns will bring a great deal of pressure to bear for new battleships and cruisers. The speaker is not enthusiastic for a great navy.

QUARTERS AT THE Y. M. C. A.

Only a small percentage of the senators and representatives have quarters at the Washington club, and as a rule they are bachelors. Representative Morris Sheppard of Texas has his lodgings this session in the spacious building of the Young Men's Christian association. He is the only one of the statesmen who puts up there, but that does not signify that there are no other members who are of a religious turn of mind.

THE TARIFF MUST STAND.

Charles A. Moore of New York, high officer of the Protective Tariff League of America, while here the other day let it be known that his powerful organization intends to fight every Republican for the presidency who does not pledge himself to favor letting the Dingley rates alone. He insists that the prosperity of the country for the past 10 years has been due to the high duties, and although there is some financial depression just now, the United States cannot continue to prosper unless the existing rates are strictly maintained. Agitation of the question, he insists, does much to dis-business. Mr. Moore does not think that any tariff horse candidate for the presidency will stand the ghost of a show in the Republican convention at Chicago.

LONG DISTANCE TRAVEL NOT COURTED.

Many of the Democrats objected to receiving the $100,000 offered the national committee for locating the party convention at Denver on the 7th of July. Said a Republican in the Arlington hotel to Col. Charles A. Edwards, secretary of the Democratic congressional campaign committee, "You Democrats must think it is tainted money."

"Of course it is tainted money," said Edwards.

"Why?"

"Because 'taint for me, and 'taint for you, and that makes it tainted money, doesn't it?"

"Oh, for the good old days when railroad passes were plentiful," said a man when he heard the Democratic convention is to meet at Denver. "It

A CONVALESCENT'S SAD CONDITION

A TRIAL OF CUTICURA PROVED SUCCESSFUL

"About four years ago I had a very severe attack of inflammatory rheumatism. I was taken very ill and was soon in a high fever. I did not leave my bed for four months, and during those months I could not move my limbs. The pain was so intense. My skin peeled, and the high fever played havoc with the texture of my hair, which came out in bunches. I also had large bed sores on my back—two on the shoulders and one at the waist. I could have cried the first time I saw myself in a mirror. I had lost fully thirty-six pounds, and looked like a consumptive. I did not gain very rapidly, and my appetite was very poor. When I was able to get around, I had all my limbs aching, and all my joints were stiff. I tried many, but they were of little help, and until I tried Cuticura I had no real relief. That gave me such an appetite that I felt half starved about all the time, and I immediately began to gain in weight. My complexion cleared, and I felt better. I had lost some weight soon after a few applications of Cuticura Ointment, and when I used Cuticura Soap as a shampoo and Cuticura Ointment as a massage, my hair began to grow again in its former glossy appearance. I am really all made over, and cannot say enough for the Cuticura Remedies. Mrs. Lavina J. Henderson, 124 Second St., Stamford, Conn., March 6 and 12, 1907."

ITCHING DEVILS

Are little patches of eczema on the skin, scalp, or hands, which are instantly relieved and speedily cured, in the majority of cases, by gentle anointings of Cuticura Ointment, the great Skin Cure, preceded by warm baths with Cuticura Soap. This treatment succeeds when all else fails, and is pure, sweet, permanent, and economical.

Complete External and Internal Treatment for every form of Itch, Eczema, and Skin Complaints of Cuticura Soap (able to cleanse the skin, soothe the itching, and kill the germ, and Cuticura Ointment (able to soothe the skin, and keep it cool and moist) is the best of all remedies for the world. would then not seem such a long distance to travel."

DIDN'T RELISH THE INTIMATION.

"Do you know anything about the reported recall of the Japanese ambassador?" was a question put the other day to Senator Beveridge by a newspaper correspondent. But before the Hoosier statesman could answer another man said: "Why ask him? The senator is not a member of the foreign relations committee."

NOVEL REASON.

"What's the matter with the Scandinavian voters up in your state of Minnesota?" was asked of Congressman J. Adam Bede at the Capitol. "Of late years they show a tendency to go over to the Democrats in herds. 'We have cut down all the Norway pine forests of Minnesota,'" replied Bede, "and I presume they are deserting us because the Republicans, they imagine, are no longer using that species of timber in their platforms. That would be about the only reason why they should find fault with the Republican party."

BADLY MIXED UP.

Abraham Brown of Winterton, N. Y., had a very remarkable experience; he says: "Doctors got badly mixed up over me, one said heart disease, two called it kidney trouble; the fourth blood poison, and the fifth stomach and liver trouble, but none of them helped me; so my wife advised trying Electric Bitters, which are restoring me to perfect health. One bottle did me more good than all the five doctors prescribed." Guaranteed for blood poison, weakness and all stomach, liver and kidney complaints, by Z. C. M. I. INDIAN MUTINY SURVIVORS GATHER.

London, Dec. 23.—"The remnant of that desperate host," as Kipling describes the veterans of the Indian mutiny, gathered this afternoon in Albert hall to the number of more than 700 to commemorate the golden jubilee of the struggle which ended in the Indian empire being saved to Great Britain.

On the pension roll in the war office are the names of 1,500 survivors of the mutiny, to each of whom an invitation was sent for the reunion, but old age prevented many from attending. Those who could travel, including officers and men, came from every corner of the United Kingdom, and with breast covered with medals they made

MOTOR CAR FOR SOUTH POLAR EXPLORATION.

The ice motor car shown in the illustration was designed for the use of the south polar expedition led by Lieutenant Shackleton. The front wheels have solid rubber tires and are mounted on runners. The hind wheels are fitted with round bars of iron to grip the snow, and a twelve horsepower air-cooled engine supplies the propelling force.

THE ABYSSINIAN ENVOYS AT THE VATICAN.

The Abyssinian commission which has been touring the capitals of Europe has recently had an audience with the pope. As shown in the cut, the subjects of Menelik were received with great state. Although they present such a barbaric appearance, the Abyssinians belong to one of the most ancient Christian churches in existence.

a brave showing as they drew up outside the hall to be reviewed by Lord Roberts.

The youngest among the veterans was 65 years of age, he having been a drummer boy during the fighting, and even today he looked to be a youngster as compared with his companions, bowed with the weight of years. The review was brief, as the infirmities of the veterans prevented them from standing long in line, so headed by the field marshal, they marched to Albert hall, the galleries of which were filled with cheering crowds, and sat down to a banquet.

Lord Roberts, who presided, read a telegram from the king, who expressed the appreciation of the whole empire for the services rendered by the army of which the veterans were members. Lord Curzon, chancellor of Oxford university, gave the toast, "The Sur-

PENN. SUE FOR DAMAGES.

Johnstown, Pa., Dec. 23.—The Pennsylvania Railroad company was today made defendant in suits for over $1,000,000 damages brought by the Pennsylvania Coal & Coke company and the Webster Coal & Coke company. The allegation is made that for four years the railroad company has discriminated against the producers in the matter of coal cars and that the rebates have been granted to the Glen White Coal company. The two plaintiff companies are operated under the management of the Pennsylvania, Beech Creek & Eastern Coal & Coke company, which is supposed to be controlled by the New York Central Railroad company. The coal combination operates perhaps two score mines in this section of the state, and its total capital is estimated to be $20,000,000.
