British Briefs.

LONDON, 13.—The Prince of Wales to-day unveiled the statue at the Royal Military Academy, Woolwich, erected to the memory of the French Prince Imperial by subscription of 25,000 officers and men of the British army.

Gen. Lord Wolseley, Prince Lucien Bonaparte, the Duc de Rasino, and a large and distinguished company assisted at the unveiling.

In the course of his remarks the Prince of Wales said: "It is obvious this short ceremony is not a political one in any sense of the word. We are erecting a monument to the memory of a young and gallant prince who fell fighting for the Queen of England." After tracing the career of the Prince Imperial to the time of his death, the Prince of Wales concluded: "His virtues, his blameless life, his courage, his obedience to orders, will always prove a bright example to cadets educated at Woolwich, who when they gaze at the statue inaugurated to-day will see the features of a young and brave Prince who died with his face to the foe." The Prince was accompanied by his two sons and by the Dukes of Edinburgh and Cambridge.

The Queen sent two wreaths.

The Prince afterwards distributed Egyptian medals to patients in Herbert hospital.

It is reported the government contemplates sending reforcements to South Africa.

The steamer France on the passage from New York lost overboard twenty-seven oxen and 117 sheep.

The Duchess of Connaught is safely delivered of a son at Windsor Castle.

Dublin, 13.—The arrests in Dublin number fifteen; the prisoners will be charged with conspiracy to murder.

The magistrate refused bail. Carey said a conspiracy was on the bench, and their action a false imprisonment.

It is positively stated that one of the prisoners is a member of the municipality, who was arrested at midnight in his own residence in the south side of the city and conveyed to the college station under a strong escort. The prisoners will be privately examined to-day before a divisional magistrate, and possibly afterward arraigned in the police court. The police are reticent regarding the cause of arrest.

A riot occured to-night in Ann street, where the police and marines were mobbed.

Sixteen of the persons arrested to-day have been examined at private investigation at Dublin Castle. Some of them had signed depositions, others were not asked to sign and same were not sworn. Several of them have been imprisoned under the Foster's act on suspicion of being concerned in murders committed here; two of them for the Phœnix Park crime. The knives used in the Phœnix Park murder were found behind the house of one of the prisoners. The authorities finding there was no chance of bringing home the guilt to any of them, decided to group all the men alluded to by the informers in a general charge of conspiracy. It is rumored five of the accused will be examined next week as witnesses. The police have warrants for the arrests of five other persons. The knives supposed to have been used by the Phœnix Park assassins have been found to fit the cuts in the clothes of Lord Frederick Cavendish and Burke. The authorities are confirmed that they are the identical weapons with which the murders were committed. Efforts are being made to procure descriptions of those who purchased the knives in the Strand London. The police have a clue to the purchaser of the revolvers with which the attempt was made on Judge Lawson's life.

BRIEF TELEGRAMS.

Cohoes, N. Y., 13.—Three coasting boys were run down by a train to-day and received fatal injuries.

Philadelphia, 13.—The Captain of the brig Goldfinder says four men died from Russian fever; the mate claimed yellow fever. None of them were frozen to death as stated.

Stoughton, Wis., 13.—The carriage works of F. G. Wandt took fire yesterday afternoon; loss, $100,000; insured.

San Francisco, 13.—Portland dispatch: At a special meeting of the board of trade this afternoon, resolutions were unanimously adopted fully endorsing the action of Capt. Merriman in shelling the Indian village in Alaska.

Augusta, 13.—L. N. Morrill's funeral was very imposing. Officials of the State and city were present.

A special has this from Baltimore: Dr. Samuel A. Mudd, the physician who set the broken leg of John Wilkes Booth, the assassin of Lincoln, died on Wednesday, at Bryantown, Charles County, Southern Maryland.

Sullivan and Mike Clearey announce through their counsel, that they will give their boxing match at the American Theatre on Monday, Mayor King's prohibition to the contrary notwithstanding. The mayor says they can go ahead till the performance begins, when he will show them who is mayor of Philadelphia.

Mark Twain's new volume of Mississippi Sketches, which is in press, is to be about the size of "Innocents Abroad," and will be published simultaneously here and in London.

At Louisville, Clarence Whistler and Jno. Graham wrestled in the Opera House to-night. Whistler won the first, Graham the second on a foul. In the third, after 17 minutes, Graham threw Whistler a heavy fall, breaking the latter's left shoulder. Graham got the stakes.

Helena, 13.—Governor Crosby arrived this evening by special stage from the end of the Utah & Northern track, making 50 miles across the main range of the Rocky Mountains in five hours. He holds a reception to-night.

Syracuse, 13.—A little group of operators have victimized the bucket shops out of $1,200 to $1,000, by anticipating the delivery of telegrams and buying grain, and by using fraudulent prices in dispatches from Chicago. Several telegraphic piracies have lately occurred in this city, and it is probable that the investigation now in progress will bring to light many scandalous transactions, among them the theft of a dispatch sent from this city by Frederick Gebhardt to Mrs. Lantry, at Chicago, which was published in St. Louis, and the tenor of which was exceedingly sickish.

Tallahassee, Fla., 12.—A bill was introduced in the Assembly to-day incorporating the Florida Ship Canal Company, contemplating the the construction of a ship canal from the Atlantic to the Gulf of Mexico across the peninsula.

A powerful syndicate of promoters of the measure here claim to represents ample capital. The capital stock is fixed at not less than $40,000,000 nor more than $60,000,000.

New Orleans, 13.—The German relief committee collected $5,000.

New York, 13.—Miss Livingstone who was awarded $75,000 in a breach of promise suit, is reported this evening as saying she did not care about the money, although it was the largest sum ever awarded in this country for breach of promise; she was amply vindicated. If Fleming does not pay, however, he will have to leave the country. There is no possibility of the verdict being set aside.

Correspondence.

SNOWVILLE BOX ELDER CO.
Jan. 11th 1883.

Editor Deseret News:

On the 6th of August 1882, our worthy Bishop's silver wedding occured, which was made the occasion of a very agreeable surprise party gotten up by the sisters of the Relief Society, in honor of our worthy Bishop and his estimable wife, who is President of the Society. The brethren also took occasion to show their deep respect and esteem for the worthy couple by leaving their fields, workshops etc., to partake of a dinner prepared by the sisters, after which presents were made by friends and relatives, such as brought forth exclamations of delight from all present. Mr. W. Goodliffe Esq., of Nottingham England, presented them with a (£5) five pound note; Mrs. Goodliffe recieved a gold watch presented by her husband, with many other gifts and tokens of respect from the brethren and sisters, showing their deep regard for the worthy couple.

On Jan. 1st 1883 the Bishop gave his annual party, free to all, with pies, cakes, etc, at 10 p.m. which was a very enjoyable affair, the people turning out en masse, showing their usual unity.

On the 8th inst. the sixth anniversary of the Sabbath School was held and was one of the best days for the young folks that we have witnessed. There were 75 recitations, songs and dialogues recited and sung, reflecting much credit upon the superintendents, secretary, and all who took part in getting up the entertainment.

Bishop A. Goodliffe showed his usual generosity by giving a number of prizes for the best attendance at Sabbath School during the year, such as a Bible, Book of Mormon, and other Church works.

Three meetings were held during the day and at 8 p.m. the people repaired to their homes feeling well paid for their attendance.

On the 10th inst. the Relief Society of this Ward held their annual party in the meeting-house, a good spirit and feeling prevailed, which was enhanced by the serving of picnic, at 9.30 p.m. by the sisters. Songs and dialogues were well rendered by Mr. Mark Hurd, Jno. Cottam, and Mrs. Ballam. The party was one of the most pleasant of the season, and when the floor manager, Mrs. Esther Goodliffe, announced 12 o'clock, all felt that the time had been profitably spent.

The health of the people generally is very good, winter very light so far, with very little snow.

Your brother in the Gospel,
WM. HURD.
