FROM PROSPEROUS MESA.

Grain is Knee High and Lucern is Ready to Cut.

Large Reservoirs and Canals as Well as a Flouring Mill to Be Built—Johnson Family Reunion.

MESA CITY, Jan. 21, 1895.

Editor Deseret News:

For some weeks past we have had just such rains as makes the farmer happy. Some are still sowing grain [illegible] and I am told that in places [illegible] large enough to cut. Winter so far has been like pleasant spring time. Roses and other flowers are yet blooming, with potatoes, tomatoes and other vines still green. The citrus family of fruits are here proving a success beyond our hopes. Salt river oranges, in color, excellence and early ripening, are second to none. And while the scarcity of money is the skeleton in the closet of all business firms, yet energy is not dead, and the assurance of a grand future for this great country grows more certain.

The railroad from Phoenix through Mesa and other towns to connect with the Mexican [illegible] is assured, and work by the [illegible] Reservoir Canal company to construct [illegible] an inland sea sufficient to irrigate the millions of acres of desert lands in this immense valley, in which Salt Lake valley is but small in comparison, has now commenced.

It is here a general time of health, with prosperity, perhaps, fully equal to our good works, in which we hope to increase, through a better union with our leaders, in the construction of a needed flouring mill, stake house and other improvements, and to this end all are becoming more alive and united, with a desire through the new year for progress and return.

A few of the Johnson tribe of family living in Mesa and vicinity, to the number of not less than 250, gathered in reunion at the Nephi ward house on Jan. 12th, the anniversary of the birth, marriage and death of their father Ezekiel Johnson, whose family received the Gospel in 1831 at Chautauqua, New York. Since then they have participated in all the vicissitudes and evolutions that has made Mormon history up to the present, and from a late estimate there is now not less than 2,000 of those kindred in blood; but unfortunately among them all no great ones have ever come to the surface. Not one has been smart enough to accept the beauties of infidelity, or apostasy, and not one of them has had energy or sand enough to get convicted of any crime but plural marriage, and no one of proper age is living or has died outside of the Church,—and beside all this they are still fast increasing. Not less than two hundred of this family sat [illegible] gathered at the same time around sumptuous tables, while many others came later to the evening entertainment and dance and had a good time generally.

UNCLE BEN.

Y. L. M. I. A. Notice.

The Y. L. M. I. A. officers' meeting will be held in the Fourteenth ward Relief Society hall on next Saturday, February 2nd, at 11 a. m. Each association should be represented. An invitation is extended to all interested.

MARY A. FREEZE,
Stake President.

A Tooele Veteran Ill.

Information has been received by the News announcing the serious and what is expected will be the fatal illness of Robert Skelton Sr., of Tooele. Mr. Skelton was one of the early settlers of that city and county, and has resided there as one of its best known citizens ever since. He is at present a member of the Tooele [illegible]. It is stated that "the doctor gives no hope whatever of his recovery and that for two weeks he has [illegible] nourishment and that death [illegible] near at hand." Typhoid fever and physical exhaustion are given as the cause of his enfeebled condition. His son, Robert Skelton Jr., the Provo stationery man, came up from the Garden City last night and went out to Tooele over the Utah-Nevada this morning to await the end.

Land Office.

The following filings were made in the local land office under date of Jan. 28:

Peter [illegible] Jensen, of Sevier county, desert entry to the southwest quarter of the northwest quarter and the northwest quarter of the southwest quarter of section 17, township 23 south, range 3 west.

George [illegible], of Emery county, homestead entry to the southeast quarter of the northwest quarter and the southwest quarter of the northeast quarter of section 15, township 18 south, range 14 east.

Elias Hunt, of Washington county, homestead entry to the northeast quarter of the southwest quarter and north half of the southeast quarter of section 11, and the northwest quarter of the southwest quarter of section 12, township 42 south, range 13 west.

The local land office handed down a decision in the case of [illegible] Loveland vs the Central Pacific railroad, in which the settler gets the land. The contest involves the north half of the northwest quarter of section 17, township 11 north, range 2 west.

Butcher Shop Robbed.

The butcher shop of Hansen Bros., at 317 west First North street, was entered by a sleek thief yesterday afternoon during the temporary absence of the proprietors, and the till tapped of several dollars in cash. The robber departed as he came, unmolested and unseen.

As to the Water Trade.

Concerning the negotiations for an exchange of water between the citizens of Mill Creek and Salt Lake, the meeting of the representatives of each yesterday resulted in the former appointing a committee of fifteen members to act in their behalf with the City Council until an agreement of some kind shall be reached.

Fire and Police Matters.

The fire and police commissioners met last evening, Mr. Noble in the chair. A communication from E. Halter asking for a garnishment on the wages of a fireman for $73 was referred to Chief Devine. It was decided to ask the Council as to who—the board or that body—should have charge of the city jail. A number of small bills were passed upon and an adjournment taken until Monday night.

Council Meeting Tonight.

The members of the City Council will meet tonight. Among matters which are expected to come up is the appointment of a deputy meat inspector, regarding which the sanitary committee has announced its intention of submitting a report adverse to the proposition. Economy is said to be the motive.

Dr. Dale's Funeral.

The funeral of Dr. Henry F. Dale, whose sudden death from apoplexy occurred at the Knutsford on Saturday evening, was held beginning at 2 o'clock this afternoon from St. Mary's cathedral. Interment was at Mt. Olivet cemetery.

Agricultural College News.

The College club, a semi-literary, semi-social society of the Agricultural College, for the last few months has had a number of specially interesting meetings. The programs consist of papers on such subjects as the essayists may choose, discussions of these papers, readings to illustrate them, and of vocal and instrumental music. The club is composed of the College faculty and some of the musical and literary people of the city. Recent papers have been, "Holmes as Poet," by Professor MacEwan; "Holmes as Essayist," Dr. Brewer; "Holmes as Novelist," Professor [illegible]; "King Arthur and his Realm," Miss Cassidy. Friday evening Mrs. Norwood presented a paper on "The Gipsies;" Prof. [illegible] a review of George Eliot's "Spanish Gipsy;" Miss De Graff, [illegible] readings illustrative of Spanish Gipsy life. Music was furnished by Messrs. Kadin and Farrell, Mrs. Sloane and Miss Marchant, and was also selected for its connection with Gipsy character and sentiment. At the next meeting Professor Paul will read a paper on "Shelley."

The literary spirit is growing among students, as is evinced by the attendance and character of the programs at the Longfellow Literary society.

The enrollment of students at the college has now reached 353. There are about twenty in the "special winter course for farmers," studying agriculture, chemistry, veterinary science and dairying and political economy. About a dozen women are taking the "women's short winter course."

Saturday Principal Owen, of Wellsville, brought his teachers and several [illegible] of older pupils to visit the college. This is getting to be a popular custom among the schools of the valley.

Monday and Monday evening Professors Mills and [illegible] lectured to the farmers of Wellsville. This is the beginning of a course of farmers' meetings.

From New York State.

CASTILE, N. Y., Jan. 23, 1895.

Editor Deseret News:

Through your valuable columns please give room to make a suggestion. I should think it would be well to start a mission here in the western part of the state. Could such an arrangement be made, with the right men and in the right place, I think we would soon see the benefit among the people. Brother Baker is here stopping with me, from [illegible] county; but of course would require more assistance to establish a branch of work. I am willing to extend my influence as one who hopes shortly to become a member of the Church and a worker in the same line with you all.

MEXICAN MISSION.

Its Conference—All Reported in Prosperous Condition.

Report of the semi-annual conference of the Mexican mission, held in Juarez, Saturday and Sunday, January 12 and 13, 1895, President George Teasdale presiding.

President George Teasdale wished his brethren and sisters a happy new year, and spoke of the generosity manifested by the people in paying their tithes and offerings.

The Oaxaca ward was represented by Elder Peter Dillman as doing well but needed more settlers.

Bishop George W. [illegible] represented the Juarez ward as being in a good condition, with all the associations and Sunday school in good working order.

Bishop Jesse N. Smith stated that the Pacheco ward was about as usual, with all the associations thoroughly organized and doing well.

Counselor F. D. Williams, in reporting the Dublan ward, said the people were striving to serve the Lord. Their day and Sunday schools were prospering, also the associations.

Bishop W. D. Johnson represented the Diaz ward as being in a better condition, both spiritually and temporally, than ever before, with the different associations in an excellent condition.

The following named brethren addressed the conference: Elder George Teasdale, of the Council of Apostles, Elders Henry Lunt, Helaman Pratt, W. R. R. Stowell, Isaac Turley, Henry Eyring, Jens Jensen and A. F. Mc-Donald.

The principal subjects treated upon were, the Word of Wisdom, humility, home manufacture and virtue.

The general and local authorities were unanimously sustained.

A good spirit prevailed and the meetings were well attended.

The different associations held their usual conferences and received instructions from Elder George Teasdale and others.

GASKELL ROMNEY, Clerk.

IN ARIZONA.

A Roundabout Journey to Reach the Capital City.

PHOENIX, Maricopa County,
Arizona, Jan. 20, 1895.

Editor Deseret News:

Leaving Springville on January 14th at 7 a.m., I reached Holbrook, 92 miles, at 9 a.m. January 15th, by Udall Bros. stage line, the last twenty miles of the distance in a rain storm, and took the westbound A. P. R. R. express for Phoenix via Los Angeles. We follow the little Colorado down to Winslow, then ascend the Mogollon mountain to Flagstaff, near the San Francisco peaks, which place is nearly 7,000 feet above sea level. We then commence the descent towards the Needles or crossing of the Colorado river. At Flagstaff the snow was about twelve inches deep and it snowed or rained on us nearly all day and all night, also on the 16th; in Los Angeles it still rained. The city of Los Angeles has now a population of about 85,000 people, while in 1875 it had only about 9,000. It is quite a contrast for a person to leave Flagstaff in a snowstorm and emerge in the orange orchards full of ripe fruit, all as green as Salt Lake in May or June.

I visited Port Los Angeles at Santa Monica, 19 miles from Los Angeles; this port or wharf is the property of the Southern Pacific railroad system and is said to have cost close to $1,000,000. It is nearly one mile in length or one mile from the shore to where the ships land. I here saw an ocean steamer (which was quite a sight to a Utah boy) of 3,000 tons capacity. It had on board about 2,100 tons of coal from British Columbia. This system, I was told, had three sailing vessels engaged in the coal trade for the S. P. R. R. system, one of which the last trip brought 4,000 tons. It takes from twelve to fourteen days to make the trip to British Columbia. This wharf has a depth of forty feet of water and there seems to be a good deal of feeling against the S. P. system about this matter. The people of southern California desire wharf at the San Pedro, and Huntington & Co. are seeking aid from Congress on this matter. A monster petition was circulating to down the S. P. people. Coal is worth $8 per ton in Los Angeles. What a good thing a railroad would be for Southern California and for Utah and Nevada people, from this point to Utah. May it soon come.

The distance we travel to reach our capital is from Holbrook to Los Angeles about 500 miles, and from Los Angeles 481 more to this place.

Arizona is truly proud of the capital city, and we trust soon to have the line of railroad now being built from Prescott, or from the A. P. railroad, completed. Our territorial legislature meets on Monday, January 21. Her [illegible] is as follows: Council: 6 Republicans and 6 Democrats; assembly, 17 Republicans and 7 Democrats, 3 of whom are Mormons.

Jenkins, editor of the Santa Maria Times, Cal., in speaking of the various remedies of children said: "When my children have croup there is only one patent medicine that I ever use, and that is Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It possesses some medicinal properties that relieve the little sufferers immediately. It is, in my opinion, the best cough medicine in the market." If the remedy is freely given as soon as the croupy cough appears it will prevent the attack. It is also an ideal remedy for whooping cough. There is no danger in giving it to children, as it contains nothing injurious.
