NERVOUS DEPRESSION.

[A TALK WITH MRS. PINKHAM.]

A woman with the blues is a very uncomfortable person. She is illogical, unhappy and frequently hysterical.

The condition of the mind here is as "the blues" nearly always with women, results from diseased organs of generation.

It is a source of wonder that in this age of advanced medical science, any person should still believe that mere force of will and determination will overcome depressed spirits and nervous troubles. These troubles are indications of Disease.

Every woman who doesn't realize that her condition should write to Lydia E. Pinkham for Her advice. Her advice is the result of a lifetime of experience, and is the product of a learned women of great experience. Read the story of Mrs. E. B. Stewart, Morrisville, Kansas, as told in the following letter:

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I have suffered for over two years with fainting, nervousness and alternating of the mind, and the spring, being so much a weak and nervous, that I was so that I was unable to do my housework. Your medicine has cured me in health. I write to you for advice. After using the medicine which you advised for a short time, that trouble disappeared.

"I am now enjoying strength and health, and have better health than I have had for the past ten years. I wish to say to all Colorado suffering women, do not suffer longer when there is one so kind and willing to aid you."

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is a woman's remedy for woman's ills. More than a million women have been benefited by it.
