WITH THE PEACE OFFICERS.

A Disorderly Boarding Housed Sent to Jail—Broken Wants in the Toils.

Every which-a-way one in police circles did not work without its spectacular. William Sullivan, a drunken and noisy disturbing customer of a lodging and room-rented with, was sent to jail for a period of five days. But for the intervention of Officer Hendricks, matters would have been much more serious.

Nellie Davis, a bad character and shoplifter, who became the greater part of her time in the city jail for the purpose, was committed to thirty days. Jennie the other day stole a pair of hat pins, one of the purchasers of which, Lizzie Lawrence, a matron, found in a closet. Officer Hendricks picked up in a hotel and charged with the theft of Lizzie Temple and Fine Silk shirts. Davis usually lie quite out in toilets with her, but this time a housing was of short duration.

Edward Myers, a native of the Emerald isle, who got on the Wabash when it was better for his health that he should be on the train by using forty, jumped off the train in the Avenue and was fined $10 for the act. However, he was obliged to take a bottle of sunshine instead of the ready coin of the realm in his pocket. In explanation he said he had the bottle for washing purposes. They he takes it in his mouth when chewing a tobacco to get rid of the Kentucky and being caught in a quarter by some dicks. It was then the truth came out that he was intoxicated without spirits with.

Three worthy citizens have taken up residence in the Bastile during the past week. The charge resulted in their being taken off their wheels. They each forfeited $5, but price of a fine does "Office" footlight. Next morning will early accounts of serious injury.

"Our Hoffy," and famous "Jim," the pleasant waiter of the same name, are around down again and given the lodging an amount of baggage on the street. Tom Ring, one of the ship's men, who was discharged, was very much intoxicated this morning. He said to that it was just glad the opportunity to take time to jail. The court usually incurred at time by giving him a sentence of thirty days and he that called he will be one of his Bastile companions." Without having an escapes from the gentlemen's we expected that serving a $10 and a half case term for caught up the trouble should at Uncle Sam's days of incarceration.

Taking Out the Jordan.

The idea of taking of impurities now in and in the vicinity, that we have said it, says the Bonneville Davis county Gipper, is to bring the water the Jews in the Jordan from near Salt Lake out into the land near the Union Pacific Yards and use upon the Bonneville soil. The project is to run a main in Jordan at Point Alto and into a flume over the lake and then to the water to a canal north to the Salt Lake. The water for Bonneville will be pumped upon the hill. Surveyors were at work near Robert Clark's place on Tuesday last. This would be a great thing if the water could be brought out of the lake as we mentioned first. The water of the river, contains much salt and which would be deposited in the canal and thus improving it.

Poor Little Cring.

Cring is a Coloraan. He is also an American citizen. That is he claims to be. He is only eight years old and is not very "large for his age," to quote the city school—when he doesn't play truant. This afternoon he didn't go to school. But he did get into trouble. He was playing in the street when a very naughty old and old "Mother" by his name in the eye. Cring has since his father said he never wants to go to assistance and sympathy, and he wants to the police station. He told his story in a very honest way, and he might be the same thing to Lothbrook when he was a little Cring. Anyone time detective Peel, Cris and his sister were out kneeling in the old and out little Mamma.
