Small Pox Under Control and Abating Marriages. Special Correspondence.

Manti, Sanpete Co., Dec. 2,-The smallpox excitement has subsided and soon everything will be moving as usual in Sangete county. All schools north in Sangete county. All schools north of Manti, also those at Gunnisen, Mayfield and Fayette, will re-open next Monday, and it is thought that the Manti schools can take up their labors before very long. The little town of Sterling is yet under strict quarantine, but even there conditions are not so serious as many people think. There has been only one may cause reported. has been only one new case reported outside of the families who were afflicted when the disease broke out and became known in its true form. No fatalities are reported, and most cases are of a very mild form, so we need apprehend no further spread of the dread disease. Many people have been taught a lesson from the carelessness of some at the inception of the disease in our county, and the calamity may prove a blessing in that way. All patients are reported to be getting along as well as could be expected. MARRIAGES,

Marriage licenses have been issued to the following, the last week, and most of them have been married in the Tem-ple: Robert A. LOA.

Thanksgiving Festival-The Old Folks are the Special Guests of Honor.

Special Correspondence. Loa, Wayne Co., Utah, Dec. 1.—On Thanksgiving day our little town turned out almost to a person to do honor to the old folks and to join in thanksgiving and prayer. At 9 o'clock a. m. carriages were whirling around and through the town gathering up the aged and taking them to our meeting house where they were to spend the day. Part of the meeting house was fitted up into a large dining room and preparations for the Thanksgiving diner for the whole town were begun in the early morning.

At 18:20 all the citizens were gathered and ready for the interesting program that awaited them. On the stand, on comfortable seats, the old folks sat; these of three score and ien and over on the front, those between sixty and seventy next and those over fifty and under sixty in the rear. The program or the morning was a varied one, conand recitations, and responsed from our honored aged. Patriarch Elias H. Blackburn; Sister Lucinda Brown, Sis-ter Margret Pace, and Sister Hicks spoke in glowing terms of the recep-tion that was tended them. The program was not all relidered by the young; the old performed their part no-bly. Sister Nancy Blackburn and Mrs. Juliette McClellan favored us with songs, Fiother Paxman of Dixie came forward with a recitation and Judge Alvin Robison responded with a se-lect reading. One of the features of the occasion was the presenting of badges to the aged by three young ladies.

The sumptuous dinner was served be-tween 1 and 3 o'clock p. m. and was tween I and a socioes p. m. and was heartily enjoyed by all.

The commiltee, consisting of Sister Flora Russell, Hattle Okerlund, Bathsheba Grundy, Amelia Taylor and Mrs. Albert Stevens, deserve the thanks of the community for the success of the heavy day.

KEMMERER, WYOMING. All Work Stopped in Diamondville-Wives of Strikers Tie Up Everythiog.

Special Correspondence. Kemmerer, Wyo., Dec. 2.—The latest advices from Diamondville this morning is that a small army of women, wives of the striking miners, numbering over seventy, denned themselves ing over seventy, denined themselves with pit-lamps and torches and proceeded to the working places of those who have been working during the strike and plead the cause of the union men. It had a magical effect for all hands thereupon ceased work, and today there is not a wheel that turns, NO SIGN OF SETTLEMENT.

Diamondville, Wyo., Dec. 4.-The miners held a mass meeting on Sunday and eloquent speeches were made by Messrs, McAllister, Roberts, Able and Clow. The miners concluded their cause was just and decided to continue the strike demanding 10 cents per ton raise and 10 per cent for all day men, also the return of men to work who were discharged. The company of-fered 3 per cent raise but the miners refused and today 700 men are out on strike and those who did go to work at first who were not sympathizers are now out with the rest of the strikers and there is no sign of a settlement.
