THE BANKERS PROTEST.

They Will Be Given a Hearing Before a Council Committee.

CITY ATTORNEY HOGE'S OPINION

On the First Savings Bank and Trust Company's Claims.—Rebates and References.

The city board of equalization held its ninth session last night. With the exception of its labors this evening it will adjourn until next year.

Councilman Hoagsley acted as chairman. The following members were in attendance: Rich, Folland, Hardy, Horne, Lawson, Horn, Wandland, Evans, Heine and Lindbouwer.

REBATES ALLOWED.

The following rebates were allowed:

	Tax.	Rebate.
A. Wright, orchard	5 55	$ 5 00
Elizabeth Evans, widow	20 19	2 00
Mary A. Snyder, orchard	8 25	5 00
Mary A. Stewart, widow	12 37	5 00
Jane C. Chandler, widow	12 37	5 00
Tina Sherrill, orchard	11 29	5 00
Mary E. McNeil, orchard	11 29	5 00
Lydia Pratt, widow	11 29	5 00
Ida Thomas, widow	11 29	5 00
Martha Hales, widow	11 29	5 00
Ellen Woods, widow	11 29	5 00
Mahala D Lowery, widow	11 29	5 00
Ann Jane Page, widow	8 46	5 00

REFERRED.

The following were referred to the committee for investigation:

Joseph E. Dobson et al., widow	12 36
Ann Brewster, widow	20 19
Ann Bennion, widow	20 19
Lydia Ward Female Relief Society	20 19
Harriet A. Hardy, widow	20 19
Harriet Rich, widow	20 19
E. K. Fairbanks, widow	20 19
Primary Part Comp., owned by relief society	27 62
Sarah Winder, widow	27 62
Mrs. E. M. Wilcox, widow	27 62
Ann E. Wade, widow	27 62
Esther Anderson, widow	27 62
Mary A. Kelly, widow	27 62
Isabella Kelly, widow	27 62

ALLOWED OVER VALUATION.

In the following cases over valuation was claimed, and they were referred:

J. A. D. Hoge	8 25
Sol Redlich	8 25
Sol Redlich	8 25
Sol Redlich	8 25
Ray T. Lowe	8 25
Ray T. Lowe	8 25
Ray T. Lowe