VENISON! VENISON!

Three Hundred and Forty-eight Saddles, 142 Carcasses; 11 Tons.

Vast Numbers of Deer Killed in Violation of the Game Laws of Utah.

RAVERS HOUSE, Grand Junction, Col., Jan. 7, 1896.

To the Editor:

Referring to the news talk over the contraband venison, killed in northeastern Utah or northwestern Colorado, the county court of this, Mesa county, is now investigating the matter. The case has been continued until tomorrow awaiting the presence of witnesses from Utah. The following list of facts, or affidavit, explains some of the features of the lawlessness of parties as yet unknown to the authorities of the two States:

TERRITORY OF UTAH, } ss.
County of Carbon, }

I, Byron S. Barthof, being first duly sworn, depose and say, that I have in my possession for transportation, 11,000 pounds of venison, that

E. L. Geary, driver, has 150 saddles and 23 carcasses; 9,940 lbs.

A. J. Allen, driver, has 79 saddles and 87 carcasses; 4,000 lbs.

C. Kimber, driver, has 75 saddles and 18 carcasses; 3,011 lbs.

Dan Gilmond, driver, has 36 saddles and 4 carcasses; 1,002 lbs.

Total No. pounds of venison, 21,993;

That I am not owner of said venison, but merely employed to transport the same; that I know where the deer were killed, and that they were not killed within the territorial limits of the state of Colorado, nor in violation of the laws of any state or territory.

BYRON S. BARTHOLF.

Subscribed and sworn to before the 21st day of December, 1895.

M. F. BRAPPER,
County Clerk Carbon Co.

My first knowledge of the presence of venison within our State came through this telegram:

DENVER, Col., Dec. 30, 1895.

A. M. Musser, Fish and Game Commissioner, Salt Lake.

If game held at Price, Utah, has been killed in Colorado, shall seize and notify me, it is in violation of our law.

Signed, GORDON LAND,
State Game Warden.

I immediately inclosed this telegram to the prosecuting attorney of Carbon county, and begged him to promptly investigate and report result to Mr. Land and myself, but he was not at home and my letter was returned to me by the county judge, unopened, notwithstanding it was addressed to his care. On the 22nd ult. I wired the sheriff at Price, "What has been done with the slaughter unlawfully taken venison?" On the same day the deputy sheriff answered, "The railroad company would not receive it here, and they have moved it to parts unknown to me." Next day I wired back, "Make every effort to arrest and punish violators of the game law, seize unlawfully taken game and hold all subject to order, and wire the result." My aim was to get the authorities of Carbon to take the initial steps, and then take an attorney to prosecute. Marshal Brigham, at my instance, would have sent out a deputy, but his men were all pushed to make up their yearly reports, and could not go.

On the 27th ult. Mr. Land wrote me, "I have not as yet heard anything relating to the large quantities of Colorado killed deer and elk that have been offered for transportation at Price. It is possible that the persons guilty of this violation have removed the game to some other point. I wish if it is possible for you to seize it wherever found, do so, as I am informed it is against your state laws to kill and ship venison out of the state, it certainly is against ours.

Thanking you for the promptness with which you responded to my telegram in regard to the unlawful handling of Colorado game in your state, I am, yours truly, Gordon Land, State Fish Warden."

On the 4th inst. he wired me from this point, "9 wagon loads venison here, claimed killed in Utah. What shall I do? Does your law prohibit shipping out of state?" I answered I would be at Grand Junction next day. On my way hither, I met him at Price and together we proceeded to this place. I think he has a pretty strong case, and his best witnesses are the justice of the peace and town marshal of Price. No doubt Barthof is guilty of violating the laws and is one of the principals in the matter in question. The neighbors are not altogether guiltless, but that they willfully intended to violate the law, I do not believe. I am told that they were urged to cart the meat to this point by the manager of a northern house at Price, and that the freight charges were guaranteed. I have seen and conversed with all the defendants. Barthof is accused of having been found guilty of violating the game law some time back. He admitted to me that he had been arrested, but claimed an acquittal. Among the deer I noticed several fawns. I asked Barthof what become of the fine quarters of the deer detached from the hot saddles. He replied that some were eaten. It is believed by the knowing ones that they were left on the ground where the deer were slaughtered. What a criminal waste!

It is said that the shipment was consigned to a Denver party, and that it was to be conveyed home to St. Louis and other eastern points.

I have been this minute in order to allay suspicions that not enough energy has been put into this business. My actions have been under the advice of eminent attorneys, and I have done all I could in the premises, handicapped as I have been for the want of necessary funds, no appropriations having been made for the contingent expenses of the office.

Respectfully, etc.,
A. MILTON MUSSER.

"KATE FLINT'S" LOSS.

Two Glittering Gems Valued at $1,000. Plucked from Her Diamond Necklace.

"Kate Flint," who a few years ago figured quite conspicuously in police and sporting circles in this city, is now bewailing the loss of two sparkling gems, taken from her diamond necklace and valued at about $1,000.

The story as told, relates the visit of a well known sporting man to Kate's palatial abode at 145 Social alley, on Tuesday night last, and the subsequent disappearance, without her knowledge, however, of a twenty-two diamond necklace and two branlets of six sparklers each.

The first intimation the woman had of the removal of her valuables was on Wednesday morning when upon opening the door of her house, she found upon the step, the box in which she kept her jewels, a hasty examination of its contents showing that her necklace was minus two of its glittering gems, while all else remained unlouched. She immediately reported her loss to police headquarters and Detective Shea is now busily engaged unravelling the mystery.

CRIMINAL CARELESSNESS.

R. E. Rasmussen Has a Narrow Escape From Death on Account of It.

On Monday night, as R. E. Rasmussen was returning to his home in Murray from attendance at a meeting, just west of the Germania smelter, he was overtaken on the road by a horse and sleigh. Seated in the cutter were John Burt and Will Williamson, who appeared to be considerably under the influence of liquor. Mr. Rasmussen was knocked down and the horse also fell, drawing the sleigh over the prostrate form of Mr. Rasmussen, one of the runners resting on his head and remaining in that position until other gentlemen who had attended the meeting arrived and rendered assistance. When picked up Mr. Rasmussen was unconscious and remained so until taken to Dr. Ferguson's, where his wounds were dressed, after which he was conveyed home. Last evening he was still in a dangerous condition, not being able to move.

The two men were arrested by Constable Moss and taken before Justice of the peace Jas. Saunders, at Murray, and pleaded not guilty to the charge preferred against them.

DOWN IN KENTUCKY.

"Reorganized Church" Elders Who Engage in the Work of Persecution and Villification.

CLINTON, Hickman Co., Ky., January 1, 1896.

To the Editor:

My attention has been called lately to a letter published in the Salt Lake Herald, written by D. E. Tucker, giving his experience with two Utah Elders. As I am the one he accuses of using such abusive language I will give an account of just what took place.

Elder Pace and myself returned to Calloway county after an absence of six weeks attending conference and visiting among the Saints. Previous to leaving we had succeeded in making many kind friends and three were added to the fold of Christ.

On our arrival at the house of A. J. Shoulters, a man who had been a kind friend to us and kept our fellowship in, we were informed that trouble was brewing for us—that the Josephite preachers had been there telling some pretty hard things about our people. We found on further investigation that they had been taking particular pains to go to every house where we had friends and doing all they could to embitter the people against us. They had succeeded in getting to preach at the house of Thomas Cain, one of our best friends. We attended the meeting, (very were three of their elders present, Elder Tucker doing the preaching. His whole subject was polygamy and the great crimes the "Brighamites" as he called them, had committed. He said the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints was the worst enemy they had to contend with, and that our leaders got $10,000 each for their services; that all who joined our Church had to give one-tenth of all they had to the Church as soon as they arrived in Utah, or we would cut them off the Church; that we were practicing polygamy as much as ever, only on the sly; and many other things did he say about "those wicked Mormons."

At the close of his remarks he gave notice that he would preach the next day in Mr. Cane's at 10 o'clock. Mr. Cane's the next day at 2 o'clock. They had about 8 men at their meeting and their whole talk was about polygamy and the Mormons.

At the appointed time for our meeting about 300 souls had gathered. The houses would not hold one of them, so we held an out door meeting. I told the people I had come among them in content with but the Gospel—that was the least of our troubles. I was not there to find fault with them for what they believed. I was there to preach the Gospel to them, and that those men were there to teach it down, and they never spoke a greater truth than when they said the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints was the worst enemy they had to contend with. I told them it had always been the worst enemy the devil had to contend with. Mr. Tucker made some very disrespectful remarks about our Temples. I told them they did not have wisdom enough to build a temple—that it took a man who was in communion with God to build those temples, and that was something they know nothing about. I told them they had made it part of their business to follow in our wake and pick up the refuse we had thrown off. I took up the history of the Mormon people and showed from the Scriptures that we were taking part in gathering out the honest in heart from among all nations and preparing the way for the second coming of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. It is true I spoke for over two hours. Perfect silence prevailed the whole of the time.

At the close, Mr. Tucker asked the privilege of speaking, and it was granted him. He commenced on polygamy again. It seems about the only thing he could talk about. I let him go on for about twenty-five minutes when the people began to go away, and I told him I would dismiss them then if he could talk as long as he pleased. At the close the people crowded around us and we had many invitations to visit among the people; while the Josephites pulled out and they have not been back since. We remained there about ten days, going from house to house holding fireside meetings, and the prospects are that great good will result from our efforts in that part, as we will return in the near future and hold more meetings.

Elder Pace and myself are now traveling over counties that have been closed, visiting Saints and friends, holding meetings wherever opportunity presents itself.

The snow is eight inches deep and the weather is very cold.

An Old Soldier's Recommendation.

In the late war I was a soldier in the First Maryland Volunteers, Company G. During my term of service I contracted chronic diarrhoea. Since then I have used a great amount of medicine, but when I found any that would give me relief it would injure my stomach, until Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy was brought to my notice. I used it and will say it is the only remedy that gave me permanent relief and so had results followed. I take pleasure in recommending this preparation to all of my old comrades, who, while giving their services to their country, contracted chronic disease as I did, from eating unwholesome and uncooked food. Yours truly, A. E. BENNING, Haley, Oregon. For sale by druggists.

Some time ago Mr. Simon Goldhamm of San Luis Rey, Cal., was troubled with a lame back and rheumatism. He used Chamberlain's Pain Balm and a prompt cure was effected. He says he has since advised many of his friends to try it and all who have done so have spoken highly of it. It is for sale by druggists.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is famous for its cures of bad colds. It opens the secretions, relieves the lungs and aids nature in restoring the system to a healthy condition. If freely used as soon as the cold has been contracted, and before it has become settled in the system, it greatly lessens the severity of the attack and has often cured in a single day what would have been a severe cold. For sale by druggists.

15A Few Days Use

Of Pineola Balsam and the danger is past. It is the best thing for coughs. Better than any home mixture. Better than any other medicine whatever for that cough—that heavier, sleep-killing, anxiety-destroying, dangerous cough. Ely's Pineola Balsam cures sore throat, and is quick and sure in all bronchial affections. It will relieve the cough at once. It makes breathing much easier and the spasms less severe in cases of asthma. Price 25 cents.

H. M. Blossom, senior member of H. M. Blossom & Co., 217 N. 3d St., St. Louis, writes: I had been ill with a very distressing cough, the result of influenza, which nothing seemed to relieve until I took Ballard's Horehound Syrup. One bottle completely cured me. I sent one bottle to my father, who had a severe cough, and she experienced immediate relief. I always recommend this syrup to my friends.

John Cranston, 808 Hampshire street, Quincy, Ills., writes: I have found Ballard's Horehound Syrup superior to any other cough medicine I have ever known. It never disappoints. Price 50c.

Ballard's Snow Liniment.

This liniment is different in composition from any other liniment on the market. It is a scientific discovery which results in being the most penetrating Liniment ever known. There are numerous white imitations, which may be recommended because they pay the dealer a greater profit. Beware of these and demand Ballard's Snow Liniment. It positively cures Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Sprains, Bruises, Wounds, Cuts, Scalds and inflammatory Rheumatism, Burns, Scalds, Sore Feet, Contracted Muscles, Stiff Joints, Old Sores, Pain in Back, Both Wire Cuts, Sore Chest or Throat, and is especially beneficial in Tetanus.

ANOTHER RAMBLER DAY.

The Rambler boys made a great showing in the Ogden races. The first event of the day was the two mile road race, in which McConahay finished third, taking third prize and third time prize. Then came the track race, Joe Beck taking second in the novice. Fowler first, Weller second, and Thatcher third in the mile scratch, class D, all "Ramblers" you will note. In the half mile class A, May took second, Carter third. Half mile, class B, Thatcher second, Fowler third. Five mile, class B, Fowler second. In this race a man in a yellow suit lost his head and fell, Conniban and Weller being immediately behind him, the result was a spill for these parties and the race left to Evans. The five mile, class A, was another Rambler event, May taking first, Joe Beck second and McConahay third. Fourteen prizes in one day is glory enough for any wheel.

People may laugh and people may cry,
And chase and hoot if they please;
But Rambler's win races wherever they go,
