

BRYAN'S VIEW OF TALK OF WAR

Believes it is Being Done by Alleged Statesmen at Washington for Big Naval Appropriation.

AMBASSADOR AOKI TALKS.

Between Two Governments There Exists No Difficulty or Feeling of What-ever Sort—Japan Wants No War.

Charlottesville, Mo., July 11.—"Japan does not want to make war upon the United States," William J. Bryan, in an interview today, is quoted as saying.

"Of course," he continued, "there is a lot of jingoism in this Japanese war talk and the hurrying of a fleet of warships to the Pacific coast. To my mind, the object is not to repel an attack by Japan, but that the talk is being done by some alleged statesmen at Washington to influence Congress to make a big naval appropriation."

"When I say Japan does not want war, I do so advisedly, for when I was in Japan I talked with the leaders of all walks of life and heard only expressions of friendship for our country."

NO UNFRIENDLY ISSUE.

New York, July 11.—Two distinguished Japanese took occasion today to say no uncertain tones that there was no unfriendly issue between the United States and Japan, and to deny the existence of any feeling of animosity or ill-will.

The champions of peace and friendship between the two countries were Ambassador Aoki, who came from Washington this morning to attend the luncheon and luncheon given by the Japanese Society of America in honor of Admiral Yamamoto.

In the course of a formal statement Ambassador Aoki said:

"There exists between the two governments no difficulty or feeling of animosity or ill-will. There is not the slightest cause for anxiety in the American-Japanese relations, and if there is any anxiety it is not because of the existence of any difficulty between the two countries, but because of the influence of some unwarranted press talk that often tends to drive to the calmest temper of the public a whirl of tempestuous rage."

Speaking at the luncheon at the Hotel Astor, Admiral Yamamoto spoke in a similar strain.

Hear Admiral Aoki D. Evans, commander of the Atlantic fleet, said when the newspapers of this country stopped making war between Japan and the United States the people would come to their senses and a better feeling would exist all around.

During the day the Japanese admiral and his retinue visited the navy yard, they spent some time inspecting the great buildings and Admiral Evans' ship, the Connecticut.

COUNT KATAMOTO'S VIEW.

Colorado Springs, Colo., July 11.—Count Katamoto of Tokyo, Japan, while en route between trains today, on his way to San Francisco, whence he will sail for Yokohama by the first steamer, made the following statement:

"One will reason for a few minutes and readily see that the last thing Japan wants just now is a war with the United States. Japan has not recovered from the effects of this country's war with Russia. We have no money enough to carry on a prolonged struggle in the Far East and secondly, but more importantly, we have all the territory that we can handle. We have Korea on our hands, and the world knows something of how hard that little kingdom is to the Japanese. Then comes Formosa, which is practically a savage country, and we have to rule it. We have the vast territory of Manchuria to subjugate. Conditions there after the war were chaotic and it will be years before the country can be brought to anything like order."

Count Katamoto was asked what he thought of the assembling of the great fleet of United States warships in the Pacific.

"It is a move that has been looked for on the part of the United States at any time," he replied. "I do not regard it as a warlike move any more than if your country sent a great fleet to England or France. Your ships must be in the water somewhere," he concluded with a smile.

PUPPIES SEWED TOGETHER.

Experiment of Two New York Doctors Ends in Dismal Failure.

New York, July 12.—The New York City Humane society has obtained summonses for Dr. G. H. Lawson and Dr. C. R. Brown of the Kings county hospital, who recently sewed two living puppies together. The doctors will have to appear in court today. They have also been suspended from duty by the city hospital authorities.

The two young doctors have admitted that on June 28 they had taken two puppies from the mother, cut open their sides and sewed them together. The experiment was not successful and after four days the puppies were chloroformed. Both doctors asserted that they had sought to ascertain whether blood could be transfused from one body to another and if skin could be directly grafted in such a manner. Such knowledge, the physicians said, would be of vital importance in the treatment of human beings.

PLAN TO EXTORT $30,000 FROM SALVATION ARMY.

Boston, July 11.—What the government officials claim was a plan to extort $30,000 from the Salvation Army was made public today when Solomon Robitcheck, a dealer in second hand clothing of Lowell and Bennett Silver Blunt, a Lowell attorney, were brought before U. S. Commissioner Hayes and held in bonds of $1,000 each on a charge of using the mails in an attempt to defraud.

According to the officials connected with the office of the U. S. district attorney, Robitcheck either wrote or secured possession of a poem casting grave reflections on the motives and practices of the members of the Salvation Army. It is alleged that a copy of the verses was sent to Gen. William Booth, commander of the army and was addressed to Salvation Army headquarters in New York. Gen. Booth being in London, the letter was opened by Ransome Caghill, treasurer of the army. Enclosed with the verses was a letter in which it is alleged that a threat was made to publish the verses and sell them at 5 cents unless the army paid $30,000 to the sender, Robitcheck. Silverblatt, according to the contention of the government, acted as Robitcheck's attorney in the alleged negotiations.

A BOLD ROBBERY.

Thugs Fatally Hurt Clerk of Jewelry Store and Secure $5,000.

Indianapolis, July 11.—Two men entered the pawnshop of Emil Mantel and Charles Medias at Nos. 335 and 339 Massachusetts avenue, in the downtown district, tonight, and after striking the clerk down with a piece of hose and rendering him unconscious, escaped with plunder valued at $5,000.

The clerk, Simon Gold, was fatally hurt. Up to a late hour tonight the police have obtained no clue to the identity of the robbers.

At the hospital Gold stated that he was preparing to look up for the night when two men entered, and asked to look at a diamond ring. After purchasing a costly stone, the robbers requested that they be shown a suit case which was stored in the rear of the store. While in the act of showing the suitcase, one of the men struck Gold over the head with a piece of hose, rendering him unconscious. The clerk managed to get to the telephone and notified the owners of the pawnshop. Upon their arrival at the store Gold was in a critical condition and was removed to a hospital. The thieves got away with $150 in cash; $1,500 worth of diamonds, two dozen gold watches and numerous other valuable articles.

Ryan of Philadelphia, national president of the organization, had issued a call to the 70 members of the national committee of the league throughout the country for a meeting to be held at the Hoffman house, New York, next Wednesday. DRY DOCK DEWEY.

Gen. Wood Has No Fear of Its Being Destroyed.

Washington, July 11.—A dispatch received at the navy department today declares that there is no foundation for the report that apprehension exists for the safety of the dry dock Dewey at Olongapo because of rumors that an attempt would be made to blow it up.

Gen. Wood, commander-in-chief of the army in the Philippines, who is responsible for the safety of the dry dock, it is stated, has no fear of its being destroyed. The dock is guarded by about 700 marines.

JAPANESE AT LARGE.

Fourteen Succeeded in Evading the Authorities at Philadelphia.

Washington, July 11.—Fourteen Japanese laborers, who, under the labor laws, are not permitted to land in this country, evaded the authorities in Philadelphia and are at large somewhere in the United States. The men arrived in Philadelphia on the ship Erskine M. Phelps, sugar laden from Hawaii on May 25. They were part of the crew of the vessel and were paid off in Philadelphia. In accordance with the law and regulations they were taken before the immigration authorities by the captain of the ship. They could not be landed, but as they indicated an intention to reship on another vessel, thus continuing their occupation as seamen, the immigration officers had no control over them. An inquiry into the matter was made, developing the fact that the 14 Japanese disappeared into the country. Where they are now, nobody knows.

STATE ESTABLISHED RATE NO BETTER THAN OTHER.

Washington, July 11.—In an opinion handed down today for the interstate commerce commission by Commissioner Harlan, the rule is laid down that while a rate fixed by state statutes or a state commission "is naturally and properly entitled to respectful consideration, it has no greater sanctity as applied to interstate traffic, than a rate established by a railroad company, and this commission would not hesitate upon proper evidence that a rate so established would be unjust to a carrier or garded as completed and any subsequent losses will fall upon the purchaser.

BUYING CATTLE.

"Sealed Package" System Adopted at Chicago Stockyards.

Chicago, July 12.—The "sealed package" system of buying cattle at the Chicago stockyards was adopted as a compromise at a meeting between representatives of the Chicago livestock exchange and the packers yesterday. Negotiations have been pending for several weeks between the commission men and the packers and no agreement could be reached on any other basis.

The packers held out for a system of purchasing cattle at the yards whereby stock found to be infected with certain diseases could be rejected after the purchase. The commission men maintained that such a system was unfair and gave the packers an undue advantage over the cattle owners and commission men. Under the agreement the packinghouse buyers will make purchases at their own risk. They will be given the right of examination, but once selections have been made and prices agreed upon the sale will be
