Senate.

Bill Passed to Abolish Hazing.

Senate Contested Election Case.

WASHINGTON, 27.—The bill to prevent hazing at the naval academy was passed.

Sherman, from the floor, commented, reported his desire to the Senate, that it was not to advise duties on imports and to reduce internal taxation; subsequently, Sargent, by unanimous consent, called up the bill; and it was passed.

Conting called up the bill for revising and consolidating the statutes of the U. S., which was passed.

Hamilton, of Md., called up the Alabama contested election case, Sykes against Spencer, and spoke in favor of the minority report, giving the seat to Sykes, pending the discussion the Senate adjourned.

Arrested on Suspicion.

BOSTON, 27.—J. H. Costello, landlord of the Hanover Hotel, has been arrested on suspicion of complicity in the murder of Julia Hawks, with whom he is reported to have been very intimate; Mrs. Hawks drew her money from the savings bank April 3d.

Arkansas Affairs to be Investigated—Jury Bill Passed.

WASHINGTON, 27.—Poland reported a resolution for the appointment of a select committee of five to investigate Arkansas affairs; adopted, 129 to 64, nearly a strict party vote.

Frye, from the Judiciary committee, reported a bill to enable the Union Pacific Railroad Company to submit its claims against the U. S., under existing laws; a point of order was made by Speer, backed by Holman, Randall and Lawrence, that the bill amounted to eight million dollars, and should receive its first consideration in a committee of the whole. The Speaker sustained the point of order on two grounds, first, that it referred the claim of the railroad company to the Court of Claims; and second, that it exceeded the jurisdiction of the court of the railroads.

The latest advices from Lancashire report that Concha has concentrated 28,000 men at Vittoria, with sixty-four guns, and that he will begin active operations next week.

Bismarck has a Relapse—The Pope Still Indisposed.

A Berlin special says that Prince Bismarck has suffered a slight relapse since his return to Vardin.

Rome dispelled the report that the Pope is still indisposed.

The attacks of fever continue, and visitors are refused access.

PORTUGAL.

Rebellion in Paraguay.

LISBON, 27.—The mail steamer from Rio Janeiro has arrived.

A fresh rebellion had broken out in Paraguay, and the rebels fled before the Emperor.

The Emperor of Brazil opened the Chambers on the fifth inst., in a speech from the throne. He said he had hopes of the conclusion of a defensive treaty of peace between Paraguay and the Argentine Republic, which would end the present complication. In regard to the religious troubles he declared that the punishment of the bishops of Olinda and Paraguay was necessary, because they had transgressed the laws and constitution of the church.

Colombia's notice that he would, to-morrow, ask a vote on the army reduction bill.

The bill investing the general courts martial with jurisdiction concurrent with that of the State or Territorial courts over certain crimes was passed.

Poland reported back adverse to the petition to make the 12th of April Abraham Lincoln's birthday a national holiday; also adverse to the petition for the election of U. S. Senators by the popular vote, also favorable to the bill prohibiting persons from serving as jurors in U. S. Courts who did not read and write English. After discussing the bill was passed.

Poland reported back a number of petitions for woman suffrage; he also reported a bill regulating the sale of opium.
