

Investigation. Committees have been petitioned for, to examine into their true condition. They have never shunned scrutiny, or fled from impartial inquiry. And any suggestion that they should not be willing to enter the field of discussion concerning their status, is simply superfluous, and calculated to deceive. In this the anti-Mormon policy is again apparent, malicious in its foundation, and false in everything.

THE HOWLING WOLVES.

3 CHRONICLES CHAPTER IV.

Know ye not that in the beginning of this great crusade, certain ministers began to put their heads together, in order to bring to pass the squeezing process, in separating the sheep from the goats.

Yea these men pretended to be the followers of the meek and lowly Jesus, and they were clothed with the ministerial garb, and they presided over the sects in Utah.

And they were known among the children of men as Bishop Tuttle, Pastor Kirby, Vicar-General Scanlan, Capt. McMillan, Head-Master Miller, Pastor McNeice, Pastor Rudisill, Supt. Leonard, President Hilton and Pastor Armstrong.

Yea did not these men draw their shekels from the east, in quarterly installments, and the greater the man in position, the greater was the number of shekels that he drew?

Now in the beginning of the reign of our king, these men sent forth petition, even to the uttermost parts of the dominions of the king, calling on their brother ministers to aid them in gathering together such things would help in this crushing business.

And they set forth their plaintive tale, in the words of their petition for this wise.

"Of the anti-Mormon minority, only a small per cent. reader us active in our endeavors to establish Christian homes, in the place of the old system of polygamy which prevails in Utah. Hence we greatly feel the need of your sympathy, prayers and efforts."

"In this matter we believe you can give us valuable help. The anti-polygamy law of Congress, in order to accomplish its intended results, needs to be amended in the following respects:"

"So that the living together of the parties—or cohabitation, to use a legal term—shall be the proof of bigamy or polygamy, instead of the ceremony of marriage."

"So that polygamy shall be a continuous crime, instead of being allowed, as now, to expire within three years, by a statute of limitation."

"So that the women shall be equally punishable with the men for this offense."

"So that the accessories to the polygamous marriage shall be equally punishable with the principals."

"So that adultery, seduction, lewd and lascivious cohabitation, and kindred offenses may be punishable, as in the States and other Territories of the Union."

"Now may we ask that you will help us, by seeing that these facts and considerations are brought at once to the attention of the members of Congress from the various districts in which you live, to the end that they may be interested in securing for us, at the approaching session of Congress, such legislation as will at once and forever put a stop to the further spread of polygamy."

Yours in behalf of Christian homes and American institutions." Done in Salt Lake City, November, 1881.

Now be it known these are not all the words of the petition of these great lovers of Christianity, after the approved plan of the Scribes and Pharisees, but they show unto you enough, yea that you may see they are a head and front, and were the battle axe to hew down Congressmen that would not bow to their sacred (?) appeal.

Yea, they were the ones raised up to this end, that the canting of wolves in sheep's clothing might be known by all the true followers of the Savior.

Yea, they are they that are thus spoken of in the Scriptures of Nephi.

"And it came to pass that I saw among the nations of the Gentiles the foundation of a great church. And the angel said unto me, behold the foundation of a church, which is the most formidable above all other churches, which slayeth the Saints of God; yea, and tortureth them and bindeth them down, and yoketh them with a yoke of iron and bringeth them down into captivity."

And it came to pass that I beheld his great and abominable church; and saw the devil, that he was the foundation of it, and I also saw gold, and silver, and silks, and scarlets, and fine wine, and all manner of precious clothing, and I saw many harlots."

And the angel spake unto me, saying, behold the gold, and the silver, and the silks, and the scarlets, and the fine wine, and the precious clothing, and the harlots, are the desires of this great and abominable church, and also for the praise of the world, do they destroy the Saints of God, and bring them down into captivity."

Therefore the device of these ministers of the great and abominable church which is the whore of all the earth were the law-makers that whipped and gagged, and rode until their child was born, which was the Edmunds law.

And what the law lacked in its meaning and intent to make up for the full power asked for by the priestly men, behold in the administrations of the law, are not all these points granted by the judges?

Yea do they not rule in accordance with the spirit and intent thereof, even so much so that they make provisions to suit themselves?

Yea, are not the judges the willing tools of the ministers and those who harangue the people to stir them up to wage a war of extermination against the Saints?

Yea, are they not willing, and do they not manifest it by their works, that they will go to extreme lengths in order to carry out their purposes?

And do they not do all these things under a cloak of religious piety? How do men feel when they hear Satan attempting to rebuke sin?

But know ye not that these ministers, judges and law-makers, and the whole host of the crusaders, sing psalms, and wave their hands in holy ecstasy, and expect to float away beyond the bounds of time and space on flowery beds of ease?

And with all this, do they not prate and rant and rejoice when they see one, who once professed to be a Saint, recant and come under the law and take the "gag promise" of the judges?

Though Congress said, All your children born before a certain time, shall be legitimized, yet has not Zane said they were bastards? Are these things so? Ye know.

Think you they who have made promises to the judges feel happy in saying to the world, we have become fathers of bastards? Have they not done so in their crawling on their bellies before the judges? Is it not painful to contemplate that men are not men?

Will not the heathen rise up in judgment and condemn them? Poor is a poor word to use in connection with their names, and not only theirs but all they who do likewise!

Therefore, howl on, ye wolves! whet your fangs sharp! Rule on ye Judges! Let your spleen be vented! Ye, and all those who bow to your mandates, shall verily have your reward!

"Your plural wives are concubines, and your children are bastards," so says the learned judge; but will his saying thus make it so? Ye should know.

Did not the Pharisees of old say that "Jesus cast out devils by the power of the devil?" Did they not malign and bring all manner of false accusations against him? And are ye not to have your names cast out as evil the same as His was? The servant is not greater than the master; and blessed are ye when ye suffer for righteousness' sake; but cursed be ye when ye prove yourselves servants of sin, and bow down and worship Lucifer!

Satan said unto the Savior, "All these I will give thee if thou wilt fall down and worship me." The Judge saith unto ye, if thou wilt fall down and worship the god I worship, and be like one of us, then will I forgive ye the "pen," and if ye take my prescription, ye shall in no wise be deprived of your liberty!

But if ye do not worship the god of the world and "come under the law," then shall ye be cast into prison, and ye shall not come from thence, until ye have paid the uttermost farthing! This is the fiat of the Judges, and ye may believe they are in earnest.

"For where the carcass is, there will the wolves be gathered together. And there are more wolves in sheep's clothing in Utah, than in any other place on earth in proportion to the number of her people.

Therefore, when ye hear the dismal howl, ye may know they are hungry, yea, they thirst for your life's blood! They thirst for your houses and your lands! They thirst for your wives and children! They thirst for your broad pieces of silver, and their appetites are ravenous and not easily satiated! And if the wife question were the only question sought to be settled by the Judges and ministers, do you think they could soon settle that? Deceive not yourselves; it is the Kingdom of God in its entirety! It is the warfare that is being waged to the death, to utterly destroy God's people and to overthrow His work! Choose ye whom ye will serve.

How was it with our fathers on this land? Was there any retreat for them? Neither shall there be any retreat for you! Ye must stand up to the rack, or else ye must fall, and if ye fall, whither shall ye go? Ye know!

Think not to yourselves, ye can get through without "coming through great tribulation." This gospel of the kingdom has cost the best blood of the nineteenth century, it has cost much to bring it to the point where it is today, and it will cost much before Zion shall be redeemed.

Think not that the battle is to the strong, nor to the great numbers, remember there were only three hundred that "could lap water," and God was on their side, and if your faith fail not, ye shall prevail!

The earth groaneth; she is in pain to be delivered; she pineth under the load of sin which she beareth; she is defiled under the inhabitants thereof; but her set time will come; though man proposes, yet God disposes.

Be ye not moved because these wolves in sheep's clothing, howl and make demands "that polygamy be stamped out by the iron heel of a rigid law."

Be not moved because they demand that "the leaders—the great Apostles of the flesh—should be tried, condemned, fined and incarcerated in the penitentiary, and there put at hard labor."

Be not moved, because they say that "nature and common sense protest against polygamy and pronounce it a crime."

"Does some religious fanatic teach and practice it; that fanatic must be punished. Does the Book of Mormon command it; the command must be ignored. Does the Bible sanction it,—so much the worse for the Bible."

Be not moved because reverend (?) gentlemen say "you must be coerced;" they are all against you, they cry, "Away with you," "If we leave the 'Mormons' alone they will take away our place and nation." So said the wicked in olden time, and men are crying the same thing to-day.

Be not moved because the clouds are gathering thicker and blacker, and the storm is raging, and threatens to destroy everything before it! The wicked have their day of power and rejoicing, but they will go to their place; though not till their work is finished.

Happy are ye if ye do right. Bet them howl; we know in whom we have trusted.
