DESERET EVENING NEWS SATURDAY JANUARY 4 1908

After hanging fire for several days, case of the state vs. E. J. Richadom, better known to the police as Razor Jack," was finally disposed of his morning, so far as Judge Dieh's out is concerned, and Jack will have a defend himself in the district court the charge of highway robbery. The int stated, however, that if he were decide the guilt or innocence of the used, he would discharge him, but did find that the offense had mmitted and that there was

PERSONAL. Among the many New Year's partles was one which honored a well known pioneer woman, Mrs. Lydia A. Wells. The first day of January was her occasion was celebrated in a most delightful surprise party planned by her sister, Mrs. Susan Wells and the children of the two familles. The house was betutifully decorated, the parlors in pink roses and the dining room in red and white, carnations being used with shaded candles in the two colors. In the afternoon a dinner was served In the afternoon a dinner was served for the older members of the family, and later an informal reception held for the younger, the guests being lim-ited to the Wells and Alley families. A poem written especially for the occa-sion by Mrs. Emmeline B. Wells was a feature of the affair, which altogether was a red letter event. Mrs. Wells came to Utah with her family, the well known Alleys in 1848, in Prest. Brigham Young's company, and many touching Young's company, and many touching and thrilling incidents are remembered by her of the momentous pilgrimage. She was present in Nauvoo and heard the last sermon ever given by the Pro-phet Joseph Smith, and many other phet Joseph Smith, and many other memorabe experiences marked her career. Mrs. Wells is a widow of the late Daniel H. Wells, and has several children, who with their children were present to honor her anniversary. Those who aided in the pleasant affair were Mrs. Susan Wells, Miss Kate Wells, Mrs. O. F. Whitney, Mrs. H. L. A Cuimer, Mrs. Lewis Wells and Mrs. C. H. Wells. . . .

At a dinner given by Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Tracy last night in honor of Miss Laura Sherman, covers were laid for 14, the decorations being in red, with a vase of carnations for the cen-terpiece and red shaded candles light-ing the hoard Present besides the ing the board. Present besides the ing the board. Fresent busides the guest of honor were: Mrs. George J. Glbson, Mrs. June Donnell, the Misses McGrath, Lloyd, Sullivan and Judge, and G. J. Glbson, Ledyard Bailey, Mr. McDonald, George Riter, Joe Siegel, George Lawrence and Mr. Rainsford.

. . . .

Miss Luella Miles entertained informaily at luncheon yesterday in honor of Mrs. A. N. Cherry who is shortly to leave the city.

Mrs. R. W. McAllister announces the engagement of her daughter Lillian, to Mr. O. Oak Oblad. Miss Margaret Paul has returned from a holiday visit with relatives in Park City. Miss Pansy Theusen of Provo is visiting friends in the city. The Undine club girls spent New Year's eve at the home of Miss Enid Edmonds, the affair ending in a slum-ber party. The most interesting event of the evening was a mock marriage, the following characters being repre-sented: Bride, Olive Shepherd; groom, Jennie Nelson Rev. Go-Some Anna

Jennie Nelson, Rev. Go-Some, Anna Frazier; Grecian woman, Leona Ed-monds; Red Riding-hood, Lisle Bradford; Japanese women, Mamie Price and Endd Edmonds; colonial girl, Beth Bradford; Mary Jane as flower girl, Kate Gabbott. After the ushering in of the New Year, the girls engaged in a candy pull. New Year's afternoon they all attended the Orpheum, after which they were guests of their president, Miss Jennie Nelson, when an elaborate supper was served and a delightful evening passed. The club will meet next Thursday night with the Misses Lisle and Beth Bradford.

Young Wife Taken Away After Year Of Wedded Life.

The tourist section of the L. L. C., will meet on Jan. 7, at 10:30, and the topic will be "Important Cities, Modes of Travel and Characteristics of Prov-Mrs. Arvilla Hoagland Cecil, wife of inces in Persia. Mr. Charles Cecil, of this city, died on Jan. 3. Mrs. Cecil was taken sud-denly ill after Christmas, and oper-A reception was given on New Year's eve by Mrs. Jane Wagstaff to her many English friends, at her residence 330 sonth First West, and an enjoyable evening was spent. Songs, recitations and games were indulged in, and re-freshments were provided by the hos-test averyone expression satisfaction denly ill after Christmas, and oper-ated upon New Year's day, for blood polson. Mr. and Mrs. Cecil were married one year ago last Christmas, and made their home at West Jordan, where Mrs. Cecil was employed as clerk for the smelters. Mr. Cecil is well nigh distracted at the loss of his wife. She was a daughter of John

Merriment and fun held full sway un til the dawn of the new year. 4 4 4

Thomas Pierpont was the charming hostees at a New Year's dim-ner in honor of Salt Lake friends and relatives. Covers were laid for 25, after partaking of an elaborate dinner and a pleasant social and musical evening vas passed.

The reception given Thursday even ing in honor of the visiting teachers at the B. Y. university building, was in every way a grand success. The in every way a grant success. The decorations were extremely artistic and unique. After being entertained for a short time with an excellent musical program the guests were usnered into the banqueting room. A long table ex-tending the length of the room was laden with daintees at each end of the laden with dainties, at each end of the table was seated an Indian maid, whose make-up and bearing called forth many expressions of satisfaction. The lunch expressions of satisfaction. The lunch was served by numberless pretty Puri-tan maidens. All decorations were of the same order, wild flowers were used in decorating. The remainder of the evening was passed in dancing and a social time in general. At the entrance of the dancing hall was a life-size painting of an Indian chief, the work of Prof. Eastman. The committees are to be praised for the excellent man-arement and the manner in which the agement and the manner in which the hundreds were handled.

A merry crowd of young married people pleasantly surprised ex-Mayor and Mrs. William M. Roylance at their home Friday evening. An evening of cards and music were enjoyed by all. An oyster supper was served.

Mr. Phil Margetts and daughter. Miss Minnie of Salt Lake were the guests of Mrs. J. C. Graham for a couple of days this week.

Miss Williametta Sperry was pleas-antly surprised at her home New Year's by a large number of her young hold. friends, who had arranged to be enter-tained at a "watch party." Refresh-ments were served and a pleasant even-New York Post. ing passed in social chat until after the MUSIC TEACHERS. dawn of a new year, after which the guests departed wishing the guest of honor a Happy New Year. All who desire to consult the list of the representative professors and there is a baby in the house music teachers of Salt Lake should read the "Musicians' Directory" in the Saturday "News." Mr. J. W. McAdam entertained his Sunday school class at a skating par-ty at the Eldred rink Thursday after-noon. About 30 little people passed a couple of hours in the pleasant pastime. SIX BEST SELLING BOOKS. Miss Marian Adams of the L.D. S. of Salt Lake and Miss Pearl Adams of Oakley, Ida., are visiting their sister. sells at 50 cents, FOR MONTH OF DECEMBER. According to reports from the leading Miss Francella Adams of this city, for ing book sellers of the country, the six books which have sold best in the order of demand during the month are: the week Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Haws enter-tained at dinner at their home Sunday in honor of Mrs. Hyrum Smith of Lehi. Covers weer laid for 15. ..$1.50 Where the cars stop. Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Spafford enter-tained at a dinner at their home New Year's day in honor of Mr. and Mrs. William Spafford and Mrs. Thompson of Annabella. A sumptuous dinner was The Lady of the Decoration, Lit-In addition to the above we have a large stock of other popular books of Mr. and Mrs. Price of Logan are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Mc-Graw this week. served. Covers were laid for 36. DESERET NEWS BOOK STORE, 6 Main Street. PROBATE AND GUARDIANSHIP NOTICES. SERMON ON JUSTICE Consult County Clerk or respective sign-ers for further information. Consult County Clerk of Peppedive sight-ers for further information. IN THE DISTRICT COURT. PRO-bate Division, in and for Salt Lake Coun-ty. State of Utah. In the matter of the estate of Charles Addison North. De-censed. Notice. The putition of Albertime J. North, executrix of the estate of Charles Addison North. deceased, pray-ing for the settlement of final account of sald Albertime J. North, executrix and for the distribution of the residue of sald estate to the persons entitled, has been set for hearing on Salurday the 18th day of January, A. D. 1908, at 10 o'clock A. M. at the County Court House in the Court Room of said Court, in Salt Lake City, Salt Lake County, Utah. Witness the Clerk of said court with the seal thereof affixed this 3rd day of January. A. D. 1908. J. U. ELDREDGE, JR. (Seat). Judge Diehl Taken to Task by a Petty Offender This Morning. Judge Diehl, court attaches, newspapermen and an unusually large number of spectators were treated this morning to a lengthy and more or less eloquent dissertation on the evils of violating the laws of the city. It was intended as a statement in extenuation for the offense of driving a wagon across the sidewalk at the corner of Fourth South and West Temple screets, but it developed more into a sermon than a mere statement. (SeaD. By W. H. Farnsworth, Deputy Clerk, Moyle & Van Cott, Attorneys for Ex-centrix. It came when M. O. Miner and G. S. Tripp were arraigned on the charge of violating the sidewalk ordinance. Miner ROLLERS SAVE LIFTING objected to the word "wilfully" in the complaint and asked for time to plead. For sale only at Tripp, however, pleaded guilty and was SEND THE fined $2. Then Miner decided to change his plea to that of guilty and asked CHRISTMAS permission to make a statement, Here is what he said: "I objected to the word 'wilfully because I did not do this thing with W)2 wilful intent to break the law. I believe in upholding the law at all times because if you violate the law you soon get into the habit of breaking it and I AWAY TO do not wish to do such an evil thing. valuable each year. I will plead guilty because I did drive YOUR FRIENDS on the sidewalk but it was because 1 had a great deal of business to attend to and did not think of what I was to and the not think of what I was doing. I saw the officer there but I would just as soon have driven over the sldewalk as in his absence. I am ready and willing to accept any judg-ment the court may deem fit to pro-nounce and I am ready to meet it." It will open their eyes as to real conditions in Uiah. ESTABLISHED, 100 Pages, - - 15c Judge Dichi then imposed a fine of 2 and Miner continued: "I hope to appear before a higher tribunal where Justice and Mercy go hand in hand and where love presides; where the inductor will reverse many In Magazine Form 25c We accept postage stamps. where the infinite will reverse many, many earthly and faulty judgments. I wish you would let this man go. I will pay the fine. Make an example of me." The two were led sently from the courtroom by "Uncle Billy" Hilton. Domostic Postage free, For-Jign 15c extra. P. C. BOX Bell Phone Ind. Phone 1862 to believe the defendt guilty thereof.

tichardson was arrested some weeks with two men named Van Houghand Wilson, on the charge of rob-H. Carmen, an intoxicated min-the latter testified against the ation of them.

She was a daughter of John wife. A. Hoagland, formerly of this city, and a grandchild of the late John Hoagland. She was nineteen years f age. Funeral services will be held tomor-sused and was positive in his identi-tion of them. Van Houghton and lson were also held to the district Eighth South street. Friends invit-

