WOMEN AND MICE.

The proverb says a woman is afraid of a mouse; it is probably more true that she is afraid of mice. But some women are constantly in such a nervous, irritable condition that the slightest thing startles and unstrings them. The cause of this unfortunate state of affairs is usually some functional derangement, some disorder or irregularity peculiar to her sex, or, it may be, the influence, sometimes of a delicate nature, of some of the prime causes, or the other serious forms peculiar to her sex. In such cases it may safely be said, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a positive remedy, as certain in its curative results as any medicine can be. It imparts vigor and strength to the entire system, and invigorates and strengthens the uterine organs. "Favorite Prescription" subdues nervous excitability, irritability, exhaustion, prostration, hysteria, nervous and chronic headache, sleeplessness and other kindred symptoms attendant upon disease of the womb. It induces refreshing sleep and relieves anxiety and despondency.

Copyright, 1890, by Worlds Dis. Med. Ass'n.

DR. PIERCE'S PELLETS Anti-Bilious Granules are laxative or cathartic, according to size of dose. By druggists. 25 cents a vial.

SHE WAS POISONED!

Not by anything she drank or took, but by bad blood. It is easy under the feels "blue." In most cases there are only another cause for bad blood. A man or woman feels too happy. Life seems dark. The heart is heavy. Bad blood is carrying to every part of the body, and we call it "blues."

Read these experiences:

Mrs. C. C. Hutchinson, of Tiffton, Pa., says: "I consider Dr. Acker's English Blood Elixir the best medicine in the world, not only for blood troubles, but also for dyspepsia, with which I have been afflicted."

"Both my wife and myself firmly believe that Dr. Acker's English Blood Elixir is the best of all blood medicines, and will remain our supporter of the blood." Geo. V. Newton, Valley City, Dak.

This grand Elixir is sold by druggists in all parts of America. It is a pure, honest medicine, not a cheap sarsaparilla. Try it to-day.

THE MONEY MARKET

Secretary Windom Consulted Last Night in Reference to Its Stringency.

THE CHOLERA SCARE IN LONDON.

Proposal to Reduce the Postage Between America and England to Two Cents.

By Telegraph to the News.

New York Money Market.

NEW YORK, Aug. 22.—There was an enormous crowd of brokers in the Stock Exchange at the opening, struggling for a renewal of loans. The renewals were nearly all made at 6 per cent per annum, with a premium of ⅛ per cent per day added, but as the loans made today carry the brokers over until Monday, the premium does not make the rate nearly as high as yesterday. To-day's noon time-exhibits premium and interest was paid, but the urgent demand was easily supplied and the rate fell off.

In the afternoon money was comparatively easy, and a hopeful feeling prevailed. London bankers were liberal buyers of stocks. It was reported that Secretary Windom was in the city and would confer with the bankers, but up to 4 p. m. no conference was held. The general belief, however, is that the last circular of the Treasury assured easy money after September 1st, and that the danger time is passed.

When Secretary Windom was seen tonight concerning the stringency in the money market and the effect of his order for a redemption of four and half per cent bonds, he said: "I have been in consultation with a number of gentlemen since my arrival concerning the effect of the measure, and the reports seem favorable. Bankers seem to be coming to the belief that the new system will afford sufficient relief."

Cholera Scare in London.

LONDON, Aug. 22.—The cholera scare is the only topic of interest. It is the subject of leading editorials and sensational paragraphs. The general belief is that it is the first of a regular hospital experience from a severe case of diarrhœa, which at this season of the year is commonly called English cholera. A disease which, if not attended with some more serious trouble, when the system is otherwise healthy and unbroken by disease, does not kill one. But if a second case, which proved to be cholera, occurs, it will be the first case of Asiatic cholera, which is not contagious. Even if Teigh should have a relapse and die, that death would not prove his disease was Asiatic cholera.

Penny Postage.

LONDON, Aug. 22.—John Henniker Heaton, M. C., a passenger on the Majestic, will, it is said, on his arrival in America consult the postmaster general on the policy of reducing the postage to England to one penny.

The California Democrats.

SAN JOSE, Aug. 22.—The democratic State convention completed the nomination for state officers as follows: Associate Justices of the Supreme Court, Judge J. N. Coffey of San Francisco and George A. Sawtell of Los Angeles; Secretary of State, W. F. Herrington; Comptroller, Geo. H. Cryer; Treasurer, William Herold; Attorney-General, S. F. Rosa; Superintendent of Schools, Henry C. Hall; Clerk of the Supreme Court, J. D. Spencer.

"Bloody Mary" May Return.

NEW YORK, Aug. 22.—It is rumored on good authority that Mary Anderson is seriously considering returning to the stage and return to fulfill her contract with Henry E. Abbey. Great pressure is being brought upon both her and her husband, Navarro, to induce her to do this. If she finally consents, as now seems probable, she will appear under the name of Mme. Navarro, instead of Mary Anderson.

It is believed that Abbey will succeed in persuading Rubinstein to visit America under his management next season.

Letter to "Fortuna" Celebration.

CITY OF MEXICO, Aug. 22.—One of the most notable balloons ever held on the American continent took place in this city today. It was the celebration of the anniversary of the fortune of Quauhtemoc, the last emperor of the Aztec race, by Cortez, for the purpose of making him divulge the location of the treasure supposed to have been buried by Montezuma. The celebration took place on the Plaza de la Reforma, where there had been erected the Aztec pavilion. Three companies of infantry formed a double line between which President Diaz and cabinet passed to the Aztec temple, where the governor of the federal district, the city council, military officers and others were in waiting.

A address was delivered in the Aztec language and poem read. The national anthem was played, leading Aztecs were led to embrace such as were with previous to the fall of the Aztec empire. There were entire bands of women, and it is estimated that, including the military bands, there were at least 10,000 persons present. After President Diaz placed a wreath on the statue of Quauhtemoc, the Indians nearly buried the base with flowers, arranged in artistic manner. Open air dances were given, Indian music being furnished by native bands.

"GUATEMALA VICTORIOUS"

In the Tenor of a Dispatch Received from Minister Cruz.

RICHMOND HILL, N. Y., Aug. 22.—Señor Cruz, minister from Guatemala to the United States, received the following dispatch from his government today: "Guatemala victorious. Peace signed yesterday between Guatemala and Salvador. Ayala will be president of Salvador instead of Lerdo until the legal election takes place."

In speaking concerning the treaty of peace Consul-General Rafe of Guatemala said: "My country had no interest in Salvador beyond wishing to see it have a legal government. That of Lerdo was not legal, so he made himself president by force of arms, and refused to acknowledge any authority but that of his own creation. A treaty not to recognize him as president was signed by the four Central American republics. They would eventually have united to depose him if he had not resigned. All reports of the battle to be said to have been wholly false, as only one battle has been fought. The invading army so much talked about consisted of only 2000 Salvadorians and 1000 Guatemalans who were unable to hold their position for even a short time. Gen. Sandoval of Guatemala rallied them as soon as he got his army in action."

In reply to a query of what would be the consequence if another election in Salvador, Rafe said it would evidently be some kind of another revolution.

Bank Teller Short.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Aug. 22.—Finch M. Allen, teller of the Capital City Bank, is reported short in his accounts to the amount of $40,000 or $45,000. Allen has been speculating in Bank Island stock with the bank's money, and a fall in the stock at New York Thursday caused him to make a confession of his shortage.

The Cholera Spreading.

MADRID, Aug. 22.—The cholera is spreading steadily along the Mediterranean north to Valencia, where there are in the neighborhood of twelve new cases daily. The disease has appeared in several villages in the province of Toledo.

Queer Uses For Fish.

Strange beliefs as to the power of fish charms exist in parts of southern Russia, particularly where fish are found that have two small hard round bones on the sides of the head. They are believed to have the power when worn by the owner to prevent colic, and they are termed colic stones. The more wealthy of the peasants have the colic stones mounted in gold, and they are worn upon the neck as a valuable addition to a necklace. The bones of the common bullhead are much used among the Russian peasants as a charm against fever. Among European nations in the Middle Ages doctors of medicine had faith that two bones found in the head of the tench have medical virtues. The bones were applied to the skin in cases of fever. The tench is an European fish and the United States fish commission is endeavoring to introduce it to American waters.

Cholera Cholera.

This terrible disease is spreading as well as any epidemic, and no one knows how soon it may be upon us. Cholera Morbus, Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Cramps and Pains are the first symptoms of cholera. A prompt remedy should be administered. Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry is unsurpassed for cholera morbus, diarrhœa and all diseases of the bowels and kidneys, will prevent cholera. Refuse all other kinds. Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry is guaranteed to cure any and all bowel complaints, or money refunded. Price 50 cts. and $1.00 per bottle. At A. C. Smith & Co.'s Drug Store.

Is Consumption Incurable?

Read the following: Mr. Morris Stewart, Atlanta, says: "Was down with Abscessed Lungs and Elephant proclaimed me an incurable consumptive. Right among Dr. King's New Discovery came to my rescue, and now am as well and hearty as ever. It is the finest medicine extant." Trial bottles free at A. C. Smith & Co.'s Drug Store. Regular size, 50 cents and $1.00.

Wm. Hubbinson, of Boston, Illinois, while dealing in stock, also horses in Texas had September, was taken with a very severe attack of cholera morbus and diarrhœa coming, he supposed, from a change of drinking water. A friend suggested a dose of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhœa Remedy. The second dose, he says, effected a complete cure, and he now takes pleasure in recommending it to others. For sale at 25 and 50 cents per bottle by A. C. Smith Drug Dept.
